On motion, Resolved, That the election of Deputies to the General Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church, be postponed until the next Annual Meeting of the Council.

The Chairman of the Committee on Canons, made the following report:

The Committee on Canons report the following amendments, and recommend their adoption:

That Section 1, of Canon I, Title III, be stricken out, and the following be substituted for it:

HOW CONSTITUTED.

Section 1. Whenever, according to the provisions of Sect. 2, of this Canon, an investigation into the character and conduct of a Clergyman shall be required, it shall be duty of the Bishop to appoint three Clergymen to act as a Board of Preliminary Inquiry.

That in Section 4, the sentence beginning "In case of vacancy," be stricken out.

That, in Canon II, of the same Title, the word "eleven," be substituted for "three," in Section 2.

That, in the same Section, after the words "Canon 1," the following clause be inserted:

THE COURT—HOW CONSTITUTED.

The Bishop shall transmit to the accused a list of the members composing the Ecclesiastical Court, from which list the accused shall strike off five names, whereupon the Bishop shall strike off from the same list three other names, and the remaining members shall constitute the Court for the trial of the accused on the presentment made. But, if the accused shall refuse to strike off the five names, as above provided, then the Bishop, himself, shall strike off eight names, and the number so remaining, shall constitute said Court. The Court being thus constituted,

GEO. F. CUSHMAN, Chairman.

On motion, the Report was received, and the amendments unanimously concurred in.
The Committee on Unfinished Business, made the following report:

May 5, 1864.

May 7, 1863.—I attended the Session of the Diocesan Council of Alabama, in St. Paul's Church, Greensboro', and after the opening sermon, by the Rev. W. A. Stickney, I administered the Holy Communion. This, and the two following days, were spent in attendance upon the sessions of the Council.

March 16th.—Confirmed a sick person in private, belonging to Christ Church, Mobile. In the afternoon, I confirmed a sick person belonging to Trinity Church, Mobile. At night, preached in Christ Church.

March 18th.—I preached in Trinity Church, Mobile, and confirmed eight persons.

March 20th, (Sunday next before Easter.)—I preached in Christ Church, Mobile, and confirmed twelve persons. In the afternoon, I preached in St. John's Church, and confirmed thirty-one persons.

March 21st.—At night, I preached in Trinity Church, Mobile.

March 27th, (Easter Day.)—I preached in St. Paul's Church, Greensboro', confirmed three persons, and celebrated the Holy Communion.

April 3d, (1st Sunday after Easter.)—I preached in “St. John's in the Prairies,” celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed two persons, one of whom was a negro. One of the candidates was presented for confirmation by the Rev. J. Y. Gnozso.

April 8th.—I preached in the Church of the Holy Cross, Uniontown. This was the day recommended to be observed as a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer, by the Civil Authorities of the Confederate States.

April 9th.—I preached at Dayton, Marengo County, confirmed one person, and also baptized two infants. There is at this point no Parish organization and no consecrated house of worship. There is, however, a little band of devoted Church members, who have established a Sunday School, and who purpose at some more propitious time, to erect a Church. The Rev. Messrs. W. A. Stickney and J. Y. Gnozso officiate here alternately upon week days, and find much to encourage them. It would be well if the Clergy, generally, availed themselves of every opportunity, during the week, to hold stated services in the destitute places around them.

April 10.—I preached in St. Michael's Church, Marengo County, and confirmed six negroes. Upon every visitation of this Parish, I have had the privilege to confirm some of this large and interesting class of our population. The Rector of St. Michael's has given much attention to this department of his duty, by officiating regularly on Sunday afternoons at the neighboring plantations, and his labors are yielding their promised rewards. The Rev. Mr. Menæos, Rector of “St. John's in the Prairies,” is similarly engaged, with encouraging success.

On the afternoon of April 10th, I preached in “Faunsdale Chapel,” and confirmed twenty negroes. This Chapel constitutes one of the missionary points under the pastoral care of the Rev. Wm. A. Stickney. I could but think, as I beheld this beautiful House of Worship crowded with an attentive congregation, and witnessed their devout and reverential demeanor, and looked upon the throng around the Chancel, how little they comprehended the mission of the Church, who doubted of the adaptation of her ritual to the necessities of this ignorant and much neglected race. This Chapel, with its band of earnest worshippers, is the fruit of much prayer and labor. May the day soon dawn when all the children of Africa shall worship God in the Prayer of our Blessed Lord; shall rehearse their faith in the Primitive Creeds; and shall be trained to walk in the ways of God’s laws and in the works of His commandments. The prevailing religious systems may, and doubtless do, appeal more directly to the emotions of the black; and in this way they gratify his taste, for the heart craves excitement rather than a knowledge of the truth; but that is the true system for all men, which supplies them with what they need, rather than with what they like. “Let us not be weary in well doing;” we are in the line of duty—a better day may dawn—and, “in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.”

April 17, (3d Sunday after Easter.)—I preached at one of the plantations in the Canebrake under the pastoral care of Rev. W. A. Stickney.

April 20th.—Received the Rev. A. D. McCoy into the Diocese of Alabama, with Letters Dimissory from the Bishop of Louisiana.

April 22d.—Preached in St. David’s Church, Dallas County. This Church is under the pastoral care of the Rev. R. A. Cones, who officiates here once a fortnight.

Received Testimonials from the Standing Committee, recommending Foster Elzy for Deacon’s Orders.

April 24th, (4th Sunday after Easter.)—Preached in St. Luke’s Church, Cahaba, morning and afternoon, and confirmed four persons.

April 26th.—Preached in St. Paul’s, Carlowville, and confirmed four persons.

April 27th.—Preached at County Line, Dallas County.

April 29th.—Preached in St. Mary’s Church, Camden, baptised a child, at the request of the Rector, and confirmed fourteen persons, two of whom were negroes. After service, confirmed a sick person in private.

May 1st, (5th Sunday after Easter.)—Preached in St. John’s, Montgomery, confirmed twenty-six persons, and celebrated the Holy Communion. In the afternoon of same day, preached to the congregation under the pastoral care of the Rev. J. J. Scott, D.D., and confirmed three persons. This new enterprise was undertaken, at my instance, by the Rev. Dr. Scott; a building has been purchased and fitted up for worship; and Divine Service is regularly celebrated. We wish Godspeed to the undertaking, and would fain see similar efforts made in all our cities. I understand that Articles of Association have been signed, and that application will be made to the present Council for admission into the Diocese, under the style of “The Church of the Holy Comforter.”

May 2d.—In St. John’s Church, Montgomery, I baptised a child.

May 3d.—I preached at Greenville in the morning, and confirmed nine persons. At night, I preached again, and confirmed one person. The Church at this place is under the pastoral care of the Rev. Mr. Jarrett, whose labors, under many adverse circumstances, give promise, at last, of being crowned with encouraging success. I trust that, at no distant day, a parish will be regularly organized in Greenville, and that the Church edifice now occupied will be soon completed and consecrated.

May 4.—I visited the Orphan’s Home, in Montgomery. This institution is under the pastoral care of the Rector of St. John’s Church. I hope that similar institutions will soon be established at many points throughout the Diocese; and that the present Council will take into consideration the whole subject of the relation of the Church to the Orphans in our land.
The following is a summary of my official acts during the year past, viz: Confirmations, white 293, black 39; (confirmed by Bishop Green at Demopolis, 5;) Total, 337. Marriages, 2. Baptisms, adults, 5; infants, 5; total, 10. Churches consecrated, 1. Candidates for Holy Orders received, 1. Lay Readers licensed, 2.

The Clerical changes have been as follows:
The Rev. J. B. Avirett, Deacon has been transferred to the Diocese of Virginia.
The Rev. John W. Beckwith has been received into the Diocese of Alabama from the Diocese of Mississippi.
The Rev. Edward McClure has been received into this Diocese from the Diocese of Mississippi.
The Rev. John H. Tillinghast, Deacon, has been received from the Diocese of North Carolina.
The Rev. A. D. McCoy has been received from the Diocese of Louisiana.
The Rev. C. S. Hedges, D. D., of the Diocese of Louisiana, is officiating, with my consent, at Opelika, Auburn, Tallassee and Cross Keys.
The Rev. J. J. Scott, D. D., of the Diocese of Florida, is engaged, at my instance, in building up a new congregation in Montgomery.
The Rev. Wm. Binet is officiating as a Chaplain of the Army in Mobile.
The Rev. G. F. Cushman; D. D., has resumed his former connection with St. Luke’s Church, Cahaba, and is also officiating regularly at County Line, Dallas County.
The Rev. J. C. Waddill has moved to Livingston, and has taken charge of a flourishing School in that place.
The Rev. S. U. Smith is officiating, by my request, at St. Stephen’s Church, Eutaw, in connection with his labors as Rector of St. Mark’s, Fork of Greene.
The Candidates for Holy Orders in this Diocese, are as follows: C. A. Bradford, C. Asher Clarkson, F. E. Dugger, R. C. Stockton, E. G. H. Nicholson, Wm. M. Pettis, and Foster Ely. The candidatesship of S. W. Roberts has ceased.

The foregoing record of my labors for the last year shows a larger number of confirmations than has ever been reported to a Council of the Diocese of Alabama. This is due, in some part, to the presence, in our midst, of many exiles from the invaded States. Alabama has been, in a great measure, happily exempted from hostile occupation. In many instances her Churches have felt the fostering care of the Clergy exiled from other Dioceses. How earnestly should we endeavor to show our thankfulness to Almighty God, by sharing the blessings still vouchsafed to us with those who are seeking shelter and sympathy at our doors; remembering that the days of calamity are the providential occasions for the cultivation and manifestation of the “most excellent gift of charity.”

In this connection, I would call the attention of the Council to the consideration of the duty of the Church to the Army. The religious condition of our soldiers is a matter of deep interest to the Church, and particularly at this time. The record of confirmations will show an unusual proportion of young men confirmed, and, for the most part, while at home on furlough. It would thus appear that they who are called upon to endure the greatest privations, and who are discharging their earthly duty most thoroughly, are also receiving the most striking manifestations of the Divine favor. So true is it, that fidelity in earthly relations will be most surely rewarded by the bestowal of the true riches.
It has been a source of deep regret to me that the Diocese of Alabama has been in a situation to effect so little in the way of ministering directly to the religious necessities of the soldiers in the field. We have no supernumerary Clergy in the Diocese, and it is reasonable to presume that the Clergy who are likely to do good in the Army are those who are most efficient at home. It requires peculiar aptitude on the part of the Clergy, to labor successfully among young men, and the few who are best fitted for such a work could not be spared, without serious detriment to the interests of the Church at home. It has been very earnestly urged, upon the part of some persons, that the religious interests of our young men in the Army were of paramount concern, and that it were better to close our Churches during the war than they should be without religious instruction. I am not prepared to accept this conclusion. I have never felt myself at liberty, except in one instance, to advise a Clergyman, who was fully and successfully engaged in parochial work, to abandon his position for one in the Army. We must have regard not only to the immediate wants of individuals, but also to the future and permanent interests of society, in connection with the maintenance of Church worship.

It has been, again, suggested that, with the view of providing for all concerned, the Clergy should occasionally close their Churches, and visit the Army in rotation. This might be done in individual instances with good effect; but I should doubt its practicability or utility as a general rule.

I have dwelt upon this whole subject with much solicitude, and am unable to suggest any practical solution of the difficulty. The great want, at last, is a sufficient number of suitable men in the ministry. In the meantime, I have been endeavoring to increase the supply of Tracts, Prayer Books, and other devotional works, by contributing to that object from the mission funds under my control. The report of our Treasurer of Diocesan Missions, which I called for in Mobile, showed a considerable amount on hand. I immediately determined, after consultation with some of the Clergy and Laity, to devote all of the fund, above that which was necessary to meet outstanding appropriations, to the supply of the Army with suitable books and tracts, and to establish depositories for that purpose at convenient points within the Diocese. I also appointed an Agent to visit our large cities, with the view of ascertaining what books could be obtained, and at what cost tracts could be published, if it were found practicable to extend our efforts in that direction.

To carry out this work upon a scale-commensurate with its importance, and with the needs of the Army and people, would require a much larger fund than that which is placed at my disposal. I am satisfied, however, that the members of the Church will respond liberally to any call which we may make upon them.

I would report, in this connection, that I have collected at my visitations, besides the amount sent to the Treasurer of the missionary fund by the Rectors of the city Churches, $6,216 35. The larger part of this sum has been distributed to the Clergy in feeble parishes, as I found that they had need; a part has been expended in the publication of books for the Army, and a part, say $1000 (of the old issue) still remains on hand. The Treasurer's report will show that he has in his hands the sum of $3,986 77 (of the old issue.) It is very gratifying to me to be able to report the missionary fund in such a promising condition. It is true that the money is greatly depreciated in value, but it may be made available for the purpose above indicated.

I particularly recommend to the Council the appointment of a special committee, at an early day during its session, with the view of bringing this whole subject before us for deliberation and united effort.

I briefly refer to a subject which I brought to the notice of the Council two years ago, in regard to which there has been, and continues to be, some difference of opinion. I refer to the advice which I gave as to the course proper to be pursued by the Clergy, in the event of portions of the country being temporarily occupied by the forces of the enemy. I then recommended that we should close our churches, rather than consent to worship according to military dictation. In reply to many inquiries which have reached me on this point, I take this opportunity to say, that I have seen no reason to modify the opinion then given, but, on the contrary, that time and experience have only tended to confirm my first impressions.

I have long entertained the opinion, and on suitable occasions have expressed it, that the regular and ordinary forms of public worship should be so entirely catholic in character, as to be adapted to all the exigencies of time, place and circumstance. It seems to me most undesirable and unnecessary, to say the least, that the Book of Common Prayer should undergo a revision and re-print upon the occurrence of every political revolution. The phraseology of the prayer for our Rulers, now in use, has given needless occasion of offence, even in times of high party excitement. The preface to the Book of Common Prayer declares, that, “in the prayers for our civil rulers, the principal care was, to make them conformable to what ought to be the proper end of all such prayers, namely, that Rulers may have grace, wisdom and understanding, to execute justice and to maintain truth, and that the people may lead quiet and peaceable lives in all Godliness and honesty”—a phraseology, in my judgment, at once ample, minute and catholic. If such a form of prayer were introduced into the service, it would always be appropriate, and we should be spared the necessity of changing our worship with every change in the political world around us. Should this Council entertain the same opinions with myself, it would be competent for us to instruct our delegates to the next General Council to propose and vote for such a change as I have proposed.

But, this is aside from my present purpose.—The General Council in the Confederate States has not concurred in the views here expressed, but has ordained the form now in use. The decision of that Council is the supreme law of this Church. To depart from the prescribed mode, at the behest of any civil or military power, is to acknowledge in the Church an authority superior to that of the Church itself. For this reason, and others mentioned in a former address, I cannot advise that the Clergy should ever make the unworthy concession.

The argument which is commonly urged, on the other part, namely, “that it is sad to see the people without the enjoyment of the public means of grace, for the sake of a trifling omission required,” comes to my mind with no weight. For, in the first place, no omission can be deemed trifling, which carries with it the concession of a principle. The principle may involve a matter of secondary moment, but to surrender a principle can never be a matter of secondary importance.

And, besides, the argument is based upon a conception of the Supreme Being, which I cannot but regard as derogatory to his name and character. If the argument urged has any force, it must derive it from the consideration, that man cannot obtain the needful grace and help from on high, without the intervention of public worship in the sanctuary. Ordinarily this is true: for, if we have access to the appointed means of grace, and fail to use them, we are liable to a forfeiture of the benefits to be reaped thereby. But, if we are providentially cut off from the ordinary means of grace, we are instructed that the compensations of the Divine Economy will supply all our needs. For example: we may be kept from the sanctuary by bodily indisposition, or, as in the present supposed case, by conscientious scruples;—the house of worship being under the control of an enemy who makes a sacrifice of principle the condition of our being permitted to occupy it. The latter obstruction seems to be more insurmountable than the former; for we might, perchance, overcome the former, by being carried upon couches within the precincts of the sanctuary; but we could not remove the latter without sacrificing a principle. In both cases, as I conceive of the Almighty, "He would have mercy and not sacrifice"—if not of bodily comfort, surely not of principle.

The disposition in a true man to assert the right, and to suffer all things rather than to compromise with wrong, is a reflection of the divine image in man; is of the essence of the religious principle, and, when done from religious motives, is of itself an act of worship and of allegiance to the Divine Majesty. Far better would it be for us, to worship God with an uncorrupted fidelity imprivate, if need be, in dens and caves of the earth, than to consent to assemble under duress, and at the dictation of a power which addresses itself alike to the subjugation of our souls and bodies, and assumes to take authority in the Church of God. Thus worshipped the primitive Christians under heathen persecutions, and Anglican churchmen under puritanical domination.—During the last two years we have had abundant evidence, I think, to show that my counsel was not ill-timed. Much of our territory has been occupied by the enemy, and the question has been brought to a practical test. The Clergy of this Church have been peculiarly tried, because of the political and local character of the prayers to which I have before referred. In a great majority of instances, perhaps in every instance, they have attempted to continue the celebration of public service, by the omission of the prayer for those in authority. So far as my information extends, the concession on the part of the officiating minister, has been uniformly attended by one or other of the following results: Either violent and scandalous scenes have been enacted in the sanctuary, and ministers dragged from the altar and congregations dispersed at the point of the bayonet, as in Alexandria and New Orleans;—or, an officer has appeared in the Church to read the omitted petition, as in Arkansas;—or, as in other places, the omission has been followed by the subsequent use of the obnoxious petition, and "long life, health and prosperity," have been invoked upon those, who employ all these gifts of Providence for our utter destruction. A fearful mockery this is indeed; but when we once yield to usurpation, and sacrifice right to force, who shall assign limits to the gradual deterioration that must follow from the first wrong doing? God does not require this at our hands, and we may be well assured that, "He is not mocked," in the midst of all this mockery.

I said, at the outset of this address, that the existing condition of our country furnishes a noble opportunity for the display of great virtues. It is also true that occasion is given for great temptations. I pass by the more obvious and notorious forms of temptation, which witnessed on all hands, force themselves upon our observation; only remarking that a day of trial is wont to bring rapidly to maturity the ruling passions of men, of whatsoever sort they may be. He that is unjust will be likely to be still more unjust, as the bonds which restrain men are to some extent relaxed; he that is making haste to be rich, will be apt to make more haste, as the time seems short, and unusual stimulus is applied; and he that is righteous and liberal will become more so, as suffering and want abound. Men live fast in times of revolution, and they come rapidly to a head, each bearing seed after his kind. War is a great teacher also. Peoples and individuals need to be taught by grievous temptations what is in their hearts; to be proved and humbled, and thus, if it may be, to be finally exalted. The Almighty is now teaching us by his rod what we failed to gather from his word. The whole moral of the lesson taught may be summed up in few words, “Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrile.”
Would that we could add, in view of the marvellous light which experience has thrown upon His word, “Thy testimonies, O God, are wonderful; therefore doth my soul keep them.”

But, not to enlarge upon this inexhaustible theme, I feel it to be my duty to call the attention of this Council to one special form of temptation, which may at any time present itself, and which, I am sorry to add, has proved too powerful for the faith and virtue of some of our people. I refer to the temptation to take false oaths, under the pressure of fear, or of greediness of gain.

It is not for me, in this presence, and acting in my official capacity, to touch upon any question of a purely political nature. It is not for me to say, to which of two warring governments a man should give his adhesion; nor to indicate, under what circumstances he may properly transfer his allegiance. There are other places and times for the adjustment of all questions of this character. It is, however, inincident upon me to premonish the Clergy and Laity upon a great question of morals, and to urge them to take heed unto themselves, lest, through an unworthy timidity or an unholy greediness of gain, they make shipwreck of faith and a good conscience, and do dishonor to the name of the great God.

There has been no development made by this war which has excited in my mind such deep concern as the fact, that so many could be found recreant to truth in the hour of trial. We have long deplored the prevailing and increasing love of gain; we have been instructed by the divine word, that it was “the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows;” but little did we think that so many could have been found so faithless to the most sacred obligations of truth, as to declare, that they did “willingly,” what they did reluctantly; that they acted “without reservation,” when the reservation was entire; and that they could then call upon God to attest the truth of a declaration which they knew to be utterly a lie. I refer to these painful and humiliating facts, not to cast reproof upon those, many of whom, in view of all the circumstances of the case, claim our compassion, but rather by way of premonition to ourselves. Their position was a novel one; they had received no warning of the snare that was set for them; they were surprised and yielded, by little and little, under a pressure wholly unforeseen and unprovided for. We are called upon, in view of all these considerations, and under the consciousness of a common frailty, to exercise the largest charity towards their fault; but we should bear in mind that these extenuating circumstances do not in the least affect the moral question involved, and that they may not be pleaded in abatement, should we now be tempted to commit, or justify the act.

There are many in our very midst, I am sorry to say, who are found to justify the taking of such oaths; who do not hesitate so say, that, in order to save life they would not hesitate to take the prescribed oath; and all experience teaches that they who will swear falsely, to save life, will not pause long to save property and position by similar means.

It is our bounden duty, as teachers of righteousness, to enter our solemn protest against all such faithlessness, in the spirit of that heavenly charity, which not only covers with the mantle of pity the weak and the erring, but, also, "rejoiceth not in iniquity," (Falsehood, the original imports,) "but rejoiceth in the truth." It matters not that these oaths are unlawfully enforced; that it is an unheard of abomination to force disloyalty upon citizens, while their government still maintains itself, thus crushing them between the upper and nether millstone; it matters not that these oaths are not binding upon the conscience, for the reason that man cannot be held obliged to consummate a crime. All these considerations are irrelevant to the main issue. And there is no language too decided, in which to express our repudiation of a principle, that renders mutual confidence impossible,—that impairs the sanctions of law,—that saps the foundations of morality, and that does formal dishonor to the name and majesty of God, whose supremacy is thus denied and whose law is set at naught.

It would be impossible for me in this brief address to touch, even by enumeration, upon all the evils which would surely follow from the prevalence of such a principle as the justification of a false oath under any circumstances. All the physical evils we have endured, and may have yet to endure, are less than nothing in comparison with the shock given to public morals by the enforcement of false oaths on the one hand, and the acquiescence in them on the other. We may in time recover from the devastations of war; another generation will soon, in the course of nature, take the places of those who have fallen in battle—time will assuage the grief of the mourners, or remove them to that better world where "God wipes away all tears from off all faces;" but how should we replace the sense of honor, the manly dignity, the love of truth, the reverence for God, and the faith in his providence which are all discarded, when a false oath is taken and justified? It would be difficult to show that a people who maintained such principles, were worthy or susceptible of preservation. Their integrity gone, their self-respect would be lost, and, as for their religion, it must dwindle away into hollow cant or drivelling superstition. Such a people would voluntarily claim the portion of Issachar, and, "couching down between their burdens, become servants to tribute; content if the land be good and the rest pleasant." They would invoke upon themselves the curse that fell upon the king of Babylon, and "eat grass like oxen." Believing that life consists only in abundance, they would lose the lineaments of humanity and fill up, in themselves, the measure of the monarch's doom, by having "a man's heart taken from them and a beast's heart given to them." It may be that thus God is even now punishing some haughty and stubborn hearts, which disowned his allegiance and thus refused a service that would have given them perfect freedom, by bringing them, for a season, into subjection to a degrading and galling yoke. God grant that, "at the end of the appointed time," they may "lift up their eyes unto heaven," as did Nebuchadnezzar, "and praise and extol and honor the King of Heaven, all whose works are truth and his ways judgment; and those that walk in pride he is able to abase."

It is by no means my purpose to treat this subject at length, in all its ethical and religious bearings; but I would fain hope that I have accomplished all that I desired, in calling your attention to its importance. The principles underlying this whole question have been thoroughly discussed in all ages, and by the advocates of all religious systems; but we are compelled to make the humiliating confession, that Christian moralists have, in some instances, maintained conclusions, which the more sturdy hearts of some heathen sages have rejected, as unworthy of manhood and faith in Divine Providence. It has been well said that "there is a ten-fold nearer approximation to the teachings of the Bible in Aristotle than there is in Paley—more affinity with the Gospel in Cicero than in the whole tribe of utilitarians."

Upon all these questions which involve the principles of morality, the Clergy should speak with no uncertain sound. We should earnestly consider that this whole people is under discipline; and how shall men learn righteousness and be trained to prize the ways of truth, unless the "lips of the priests keep knowledge?" We are the ambassadors for Christ; we are sent to preach Christ—not human systems of Ethics—not the traditions of the schoolmen—not the policy of the world—but Christ; and, in so far as God's grace may assist us, to reproduce his whole life. How clearly in his person and teachings, as by the light of day, are all the questions solved, which are darkened by the councils of the schoolmen, and entangled in the meshes of a worldly casuistry. The Pharisee could say, "thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths;" "but I say unto you," saith Christ, "Let your communications be Yea, yea; nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil."

This is the teaching of Christ,—now behold his conduct! When he stood before Pilate, and when the Governor, wondering at his indifference to his decision, asked him, "Knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?" he gave for reply those memorable words which proclaim the absolute Sovereignty of God—words which come to us in every hour of trial and nerve us to suffer all things rather than disown God, by distrusting his love and power—"Thou couldst have no power at all, except it were given thee from above."

Again, when he confronted the adversary in the wilderness, and, in a moment of bodily weakness and want, was tempted to give up his faith in God and to put his hand upon forbidden means for the sustenance of life, he gave for answer these words, which, even now at this distance of time, quicken our faith as we hear them, "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." "More bread, more substance," says an unbelieving world—"man lives by bread, and if necessity requires bread, he need not scruple as to the means of obtaining it, even should man's word be violated and God's law be broken; better for man's life to be prolonged than for God's name to be hallowed." This is the way in which the tempter speaks, but Christ speaks not thus. He teaches us what man's life is and wherein it consists—not in abundance—not in present continuance—not by the will of man, but by the will of God, and says, in effect, by word and example, My Father in Heaven knows what I need; I live by his providence; I will resort to no forbidden and unprovidential means for the prolongation of life; and, if the life which is sustained by bread must terminate, I still live, "for man lives not by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Do not these words instruct us that it is better far for man to rise to a higher life, by resisting temptation and maintaining the truth, than to sink into the abyss of unbelief by giving up a good conscience and distrusting the living God! "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it."

But what need to multiply examples? We are sent to teach and preach Christ and him crucified, and Christ crucified, not alone as the sacrifice for sin, but, also, "as an ensample of godly living, the blessed steps of whose most holy life we are to follow," if need be, "to drink of the cup that he drank of, and to be baptized with the baptism that he was baptized with."

We need more of this spirit in the Church, which Christ redeemed with his most precious blood. While the Church stands true to her Divine Head, there is hope for the world. At any time the cup may be presented to our lips. We owe it to ourselves, to our fellows, and, above all, to Him who made us in his image, "to quit us like men, and to be strong," as Christ was strong—"Strong in that strength which God supplies through his Eternal Son." We are the "light of the world;" let us see to it that our lamps are kept trimmed and ready burning. "We are the salt of the earth;" let us take heed that we lose not our savor, and have a care, that no truth perishes from among men through our neglect or want of faith. Ordinary grace will not avail in the day of extraordinary trial. Let us prepare ourselves, by an humble dependence upon Divine grace and a more than ordinary exercise of self-discipline, to suffer all things rather than to deny the truth. The truth alone can make us free. All lies end in captivity and death. All things, by the operation of an universal law, tend to the level of their source—truth and right upward, to their fountain—falsehood and wrong downward, to the pit whence they were digged.

What a day is this in which we are sent to preach the glorious gospel of the blessed God, when the hearts of so many fail them for fear, as they look forward to possible disaster! Oh! with what authority and truth, with what simplicity and plainness, with what tenderness and long-suffering, should we preach to our fellow men, and beseech them to turn from lying vanities, which cannot profit, and to cleave unto the living God!

And now, unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy; to the only Wise God, our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever—Amen.

The Rev. J. M. Mitchell, from the Committee appointed at the last Council on the Memorial Church, made the following report:

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE MEMORIAL CHURCH FUND.

The Trustees of the Fund for building the proposed Memorial Church, respectfully report, that in order to induce prompt action under the Resolutions of the last Diocesan Council, the passage of which made it the duty of each Clergyman in the Diocese to act as an Agent for the said Fund, they, immediately after the adjournment of the Council, caused a subscription paper and blank notes to be sent to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and in response thereto they have received the following amounts, including the sums obtained at the Council, to wit:

In Confederate Treasury Notes, ......................... $2,063 00
" Individual Notes, bearing interest, ......................... 1,272 00
" Subscriptions, ........................................ 1,450 00

$4,775 00

The Confederate Treasury Notes have all been converted into C. S. Bonds, bearing 8 per cent. interest. JOSIAH MORRIS, Treas'!

On motion, Resolved, That the report of the Committee be received, and that the Committee be requested to continue its action under the resolution of the last Council, as they shall find it expedient.

On motion, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, this Council have heard with deep regret, that some of its members, Clerical and Lay, within the lines of the enemy, have been hindered from attending its deliberations; Therefore Resolved, That this Council, believing in the doctrine that where one member suffers, all others of the members are partakers in suffering, do hereby assure those of our brethren, Clerical and Lay, who are within the lines of the Federal Army, of our heartfelt sympathies with them in their trials and bid them be of good cheer in the name of the Lord, who in his good time will bring to naught the counsels of their and our common enemy.

The Chairman of the Committee, relating to the publication of Tracts, &c., made the following report:
The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop’s Address as related to a supply of religious literature for the use of the Army, have had the subject under consideration, and beg leave to report that, deeming it one of vast importance, they have no hesitancy in expressing the opinion that the Church should promptly and energetically take steps to supply, as far as possible, to the brave men of the Army, far removed from home and its endearing associations and blessed privileges, and often cut off from the holy influences of the worship and instruction of the Sanctuary, such wholesome reading matter as may tend, with the divine blessing, to promote their best interests for time and eternity.

There is everywhere in the Army a great demand for the Bible, Prayer Book, and instructive tracts on religious doctrine and practice. The Committee, therefore, urgently recommend to the Council, the adoption of a plan whereby this demand may be the most speedily and practically met, by the publication or procurement of a cheap edition of the Prayer Book, or at least of those portions of it which embrace the Morning and Evening Prayer, the Litany, the order of celebrating the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord’s Supper, and some of the Psalms and Hymns, together with such other useful tracts as may tend to spiritual edification; and above all, if possible, the Holy Word of God.

The Committee are of opinion that Bibles may be obtained from England, through the blockade, by the application of a little energy and good management. At all events the work is worthy of an effort in that direction. Let the Church be aroused to her duty and do what she can to supply this inestimable gift of God to man—the Holy Bible. And as the Bishop is, under Christ, the earthly head of the Church, so do we believe that, in general, all such religious actions as spring from her in her organic capacity, for the spreading abroad of the knowledge of Christ and the glory of God, should either emanate from him, or be moulded in large measure by him; therefore the Committee would propose that the Bishop take this matter in hand and work it out according to his wisdom and discretion, calling to his aid such Clergymen and Laymen as he may deem best; and as many of either order as he may elect, for the prosecution of his wishes, to act as Agents in the procurement of funds, the purchase, or preparation and publication of religious reading matter and the distribution thereof in the Army.

Such a course would leave the whole question untrammelled; and the Bishop, at his own discretion, could from time to time, send out some one, or more, of the Clergy to the Army, to act as distributors of the literature so provided, who might at the same time also do a good and noble work among their fellow-men in the Army, by personal intercourse and the preaching of the unsearchable riches of Christ.

Finally, the Committee respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That this Council take a deep interest in the spiritual welfare of our noble Armies in the field; pledge itself to adopt immediate measures to provide, as far as lies in its power, a supply of wholesome Christian reading matter for distribution among our soldiers.

2nd. Resolved, That the Rt. Rev. R. H. Wilmer, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Alabama, be respectfully requested to take the control and management of the important enterprise of supplying the Army with religious literature, calling to his aid as many Clergymen and Laymen as he may elect, to assist him in the collection of funds, preparation and publication of reading matter, and the distribution thereof. All of which is respectfully submitted.

On motion, the report was received and accompanying resolutions unanimously adopted.

The President retired, calling the Rev. R. A. Cobbs, to the Chair.

The Committee on Finance made the following report:
REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Finance have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Council and find them correct. They also recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the following assessments be made upon the Parishes for the support of the Episcopate of the Diocese, and 10 per cent. upon the assessments, excepting St. John's in the Wilderness, for Contingent Fund.

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as related to the forms of prayer for those in authority, have had the same under consideration, and respectfully report the following resolution:

Resolved, That while in the judgment of this Council it may be most desirable so to catholiseise the prayers for our rulers and legislators, as to adapt them to the exigencies of all times and occasions, yet they do not think it expedient at the present Council to instruct the Deputies to the General Council upon the subject.

Resolved, That it is the duty of each Parish, in cooperation with the Bishop, to take immediate steps for the establishment of Christian Houses for orphans within its own limits, or within the circle of its influence.

Special Fund, at the date of last report, was: $23,561 80

By contribution from St. Mark's Church, Greene County: 125 00

$23,686 80

A portion of the above amount consists of promissory notes of contributors, and of persons to whom money had been loaned. Owing to the difficulty of making investments, the Trustees have made no effort to collect these notes, nor do they deem their collection advisable in the present condition of the country.

The sum of $8,000 is invested in Confederate 8 per cent. Bonds.

A. R. Bell, Treasurer.

The report was received.
Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have Two Hundred copies of the Journal of this Council printed.

On motion, Resolved, That a Committee of two Clergymen and two Laymen, be appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sentiments of this Council, at the decease of the late Dr. LEROY H. ANDERSON, for many years a Lay Delegate to the Conventions of this Church.

Rev. Messrs. TİCKNOR and DOBB, of the Clergy and A. W. ELLERBE, of the Laity, were appointed said Committee.

On motion, Resolved, That when this Council adjourns, it adjourns to meet in Christ Church, Mobile, on the 1st Wednesday in May, 1865.

On motion, Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the citizens of Montgomery, for their hospitality.

The President retired, calling the Rev. R. A. COBBS to the Chair.

On motion, Resolved, That in consideration of the advanced prices of living, the Parishes be invited to make voluntary contributions to the support of the Bishop, and forward the same to him when practicable, in such manner as they shall deem most expedient.

The Bishop resumed the Chair.

The Chairman of the Committee on the State of the Church made the following report:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church, in presenting their report, would respectfully state to the Council, that on reviewing that part of the Bishop’s Address in relation to his official acts, and the facts laid before them in the Parochial Reports, they find more than ordinary cause for gratitude to Almighty God, in view of the encouraging condition of the Church.

Desirous of confining themselves strictly to the work before them, the Committee would respectfully submit to the Council the following abstract of statistics, which have been carefully collated from the Parochial Reports and the Bishop’s Address.

Within the Parishes from which reports have been received, they find there have been, during the past year,

Baptisms, .................................................. 627
Confirmations, ............................................ 387
Present number of Communicants,.......................... 2220

Collections—Communion Alms, .................. $8,269 60

" Missions, .................. 8,379 00

" Church purposes, .................. 17,254 60—$33,908 20

The Committee would here state that they are not able to present an accurate view of the state of the Church, from the fact that there is quite a number of Parishes from which no report has been received. But in these statistics it will be perceived that there are several features of a most gratifying nature.

Notwithstanding the distracted state of our country, arising from the presence of an invading foe, and the engrossment of the public mind with the troubles by which we are surrounded; in every particular, the progress of the Church in the Diocese, instead of being retarded, has been onward, and that to an unprecedented degree; calling for the most devout gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, and stimulating us to renewed exertion.

In nearly every Parish, Adult Baptisms are reported, making a large increase on any former year.

The number of Confirmations reported by the Bishop is greater by nearly one fourth than any previous year, including an unusual number of men, many of them occupying positions in society which must have the tendency of dispelling prejudice against, and awakening attention to, the claims of the Church.

One of the most cheering and satisfactory views of the healthy condition of the Church, is in the large increase of contributions to Missions and charitable purposes. While there has been a constant demand on the liberality of the people for patriotic and benevolent objects, the offerings which have been laid on the Altar of the Church have been nearly double.

The Committee would take this opportunity of expressing their sincere and earnest sympathy with those Parishes situated in that portion of the Diocese which is under the iron heel of the oppressor; while it is their fervent prayer that the day may speedily dawn when we shall all be permitted to worship God under our own vine and fig tree, none daring to make us afraid.

All which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY SANSON,
Chairman of the Committee.

On motion, the report was received.

The minutes of this day were read and approved, and after singing the Gloria in Excelsis, and Prayer and Benediction by the Bishop, the Council adjourned sine die.

R. H. WILMER, President.

H. A. TAYLOR, Secretary.

During the last year services have been given on alternate Sundays, as far as possible, to the negroes upon a neighboring plantation.

In the death of Henry A. Snow, since the last meeting of the Council, this Parish has sustained a loss which cannot easily be supplied. An active worker in the Parish from the first years of its organization, and for more than twenty years a Vestryman and Warden, it had become a habit for both Minister and people to look to him for wisdom in counsel, and prudence in action, in all matters affecting our corporate life. In his death God has tried us with a severe affliction; but as a compensation He has left us the memory of a pure minded, earnest and irreproachable Christian man, and the humble trust that he has exchanged the labors of earth for the blessedness of Paradise.

Canon 1, section 4 (concerning salary) complied with.

Assumed the charge of this Parish June 25th, 1863, since which time the Church has been closed (I think) but once by my absence.

Attendance upon the weekly services have been regular and large. Owing to the number of refugees and soldiers in and about Demopolis, the Church (on Sundays) has been crowded to overflowing. I am thankful to state, that when I took charge of the Parish, I found in the regular congregation not only a growing interest, but a knowledge of the Church, which made this a most desirable field of labor. In the rapid increase in the congregation during my brief ministry, I feel that I have (as God's instrument) reaped of the good works sown by the labors of my predecessors.

It has been my blessed privilege to minister to the spiritual wants of our soldiers, in the ordinary services of the Church, and in both her Sacraments; to present several for the Holy Rite of Confirmation, to visit them in sickness, and to perform over their bodies the last and most solemn services of the Church, in committing them to the ground.

I wish to make this acknowledgment of my gratitude for the encouragement in my work, which has been so cheerfully given me by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese.

Besides the above, we have received from a Methodist brother, the rent of the school house and lot free for one year. From others, liberal donations in materials and work. We are thankful to report that the grace of God has made the services of the Church effectual in the evident edification of his people, as exhibited in their active efforts to establish a Christian school for boys and girls of all classes of society, the profits of which are to be devoted to feeding, clothing and educating, religiously, morally and intellectually, in agricultural and mechanic arts, the destitute orphans of soldiers.

The present Rector entered upon his duties in the Parish the 27th of July last.

Five of the white infants reported above were baptised by his predecessor, the Rev. S. U. Smith.

In addition to the duties of the Parish, the Rector has held stated services elsewhere, every fourth Sunday in the month, beginning with the fourth Sunday in November. Gainesville, Mt. Sterling and Pushmataha have been visited in this way.

Besides the regular services in the Church, divine service has been regularly held on four plantations, and occasionally on a fifth. These services consist of the Confession, the Abolition, the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Versicles after the Creed, and the three last prayers in the Evening Service, and the Commandments; the singing of three Hymns, and preaching exclusively from the New Testament, and occasionally the Commandments.

A fair number of the servants are interested in the services. I have, however, not felt at liberty to urge them to come into the Church; for they belong to the denominations, and their owners are not inclined to have their religious predilections disturbed.

Since last report, two Church families have moved permanently from the Parish. There are now only three Church families left. The neighborhood is very sparsely settled and the population belongs, fixedly, to the denominations.

The Rector resumed the charge of this Parish, after a vacancy of two months, in July last, to officiate two Sundays in each month; but owing to protracted ill health he has been able to do but little except to fill the pulpit somewhat irregularly. To his people he owes a large debt of gratitude for their kindness and forbearance under the circumstances. The Parish has been much indebted to the Rev. J. H. Tick-nox for his services upon various funeral occasions.

From the first of July I have spent but half the time at this Station, having for the other half resumed the charge of St. Luke's Church, Cahaba. The same want of health has made the services irregular here as there, and nothing has been done but to attempt to fill the pulpit whenever I was able. The congregation is regular and attentive, and the Church is strengthening her influence. The colored congregation for whom services are held Sunday evenings, is interested in our service, and we believe we shall still see the fruit of the labor bestowed upon them. The prejudice among them against the Church was always strong, and it requires patience and faith, as well as labor and God's grace, to overcome and break it down.

REMARKS.—Services regularly held on a week day, once a month, at Dayton, by the Rector of this Parish. An awakened interest is manifested in the Church at that point. It is hoped and believed that a Church edifice will be erected as soon as practicable. At present the services are held in a large room which has been fitted up, and for a temporary purpose answers quite well. A Sunday School, under the superintendence of Mr. Wm. Pettis, (Candidate for Orders,) is now in operation, and in a flourishing condition. As yet, no Parish has been organized. The Communicants number some 12 or 15. At the recent visitation of the Bishop, two children were admitted into the Church by Baptism, and one person received the holy rite of Confirmation.

J. S. JARRATT.

To the Rt. Rev. R. H. Wilmer, D. D.

I hereby very respectfully report to you an account of my labors in your Diocese since my expulsion from New Orleans in May last. After my arrival in Alabama you very kindly and promptly assigned me to duty at Opelika. To this place I moved my family, and on the 26th of June commenced the work of the ministry.—Here I found a very neat Church edifice, recently finished and consecrated, and a few ardent and zealous Church families. At first I gave my entire time to this place, but afterwards, by your advice, I gave a portion of my time to other points. I have monthly appointments on Sundays, at Tallassee and Cross Keys. I have also regular week day services at Tuskegee and Auburn. I have likewise visited Crawford, Salem and Lafayette, in each of which I found a few devoted Church people.

To Opelika I give two Sundays in each month, and also instruct in the Church on Fridays a large and interesting Bible class of adults. Here a Sunday School is regularly conducted by a few faithful teachers, but it is suffering much for the want... of books. At Opelika I have administered the Holy Communion 9 times, at Tallassee once, and at Crois Keys once. At Opelika, I report 10 communicants; the baptism of 9 children and 1 adult—2 confirmed, and 2 funerals. At Crois Keys I have baptised 1 infant, and there are at that place 6 communicants. At Tallassee I have baptised 1 adult. We have here 9 communicants. At Auburn there has been 1 child baptised and 1 person confirmed. At the latter place there are 4 communicants. At Tuskegee there are 8 communicants.

C. S. HEDGES, of the Diocese of Louisiana.

REPORT OF REV. W. D. CHRISTIAN.

Since the meeting of the last Council I have been employed in officiating on two or more plantations in Perry and Marengo Counties. On Mr. Lee Walthall's plantation I have baptised twenty-seven (27) children and have also some candidates for confirmation awaiting the visitation of the Bishop.

HAMNER HALL, MONTGOMERY, ALA.—REV. J. AVERY SHEPHERD, Rector.

The Rector would respectfully report that the success of this Institution has been such as to afford great cause for thankfulness. Notwithstanding the unsettled state of the country, the number of applications for admission has greatly exceeded those of any preceding year. Ninety-nine pupils have been received during the present session, while many in the boarding department have been declined on account of the impracticability, at the high cost of all things, of providing for them suitable accommodations. The general improvement of the pupils and the tone of scholarship has been of a most encouraging character. All diligence will be given to render Hamner Hall, through the blessing of Providence, an Institution, unsurpassed by any in the land, for a high standard of moral and intellectual training. Amongst the confirmations in St. John's Church during the present session four young ladies were members of the household at Hamner Hall.

MISSION TO THE NEGROES IN THE CANEBrAKE.

FAYNSDALE, MARENGO COUNTY, MAY 4th, 1864.

RT. REV. R. H. WILMER, D. D.

Right Reverend Father—An entire year's labors in the field, to which you assigned me, are covered in the following Report:

Six stations were undertaken, each to be served twice a month, making the aggregate of twelve monthly services; viz: at the plantations of Harris Tinker, (his sister and brother uniting theirs,) R. B. Waller, Frank S. Lyon, the two estates of Isaac Croom, deed, and Fawnsdale Chapel.

No exertion has been spared to make these services punctual. In the several points 132 have been celebrated.

Only of Fawnsdale Chapel may a systematic report be given, to wit:

Baptisms—Infants 6, Adults 10, ........................................ Total, 16
Confirmations, ................................................................. 20
Funerals, ................................................................. 3
Marriages, ................................................................. 2
Communions celebrated, ............................................. 9
Communicants, ............................................................. 57
Suspended and put to open penance, ................................ 1

In this Chapel, the high Festivals and Fasts of the Church, occurring during the week days, are duly kept, as well as all National days. When, as on all Sunday services, also, one rule prevails: none are allowed to be absent. Only a certain portion, as yet, attend the daily morning service in Lent.

To develop a sense of religious individuality and responsibility, god-fathers and mothers for infants are allowed only from among the negroes. The practice is proving fruitful in cheering results.
Experience has evolved the necessity of selecting two or three in the congregation to perform an important subsidiary part to the Minister, of both watching over the communicants, and aiding him to reach others. Thus far its practical working has developed a greater measure of success than was promised by anticipation.

Into its proper culture, this field invites the penitential system of the ancient Church, to its full extent. And with the relations existing, nothing is easier to be introduced. So far as I have yet attempted its use, it promises to be a most wholesome help in restraining the grosser tendencies of a gross people.

It must be seen, that the personal supervision required to set such machinery to work, and to keep it working, requires more time on the part of the Minister than I have yet been able to command, except in the Chapel under my immediate eye. And it is hence only here where I may reasonably hope to hew out a model in this vast field of materials.

I will not attempt to utter the eager yearnings of my soul to push this work on, to extend it far and near over this Africanized America. Nor would I dare shrink from any amount of such labor put on me. But I beg leave to suggest, that the habitual practice of three services a Sunday is a questionable mode of expedition. Too much may be undertaken in any work for success. The pastoral turn that might be given to Sunday labors is wholly out of the question; essential as it is in this work. And there is no other day but Sunday for it. Even the services have to be hurried often beyond the point of devout composure. Besides this, my special field, I have been able, in week-days and 5th Sundays of the month, to give 23 services and sermons and 4 Holy Communions to white congregations. Dayton has occupied me with a service and sermon every Friday in Lent, besides once a month during the remainder of the year.

Obediently,

W. A. STICKNEY, Presbyter.

The undersigned hereby acknowledges his indebtedness to the Rev. T. A. Cook, for services rendered through the year, at various times, and especially during his sickness in the month of January.

Besides the performance of his duties for the year past, as Chaplain of this Post, the undersigned has occasionally visited Jacksonville where he celebrated the Holy Communion at every visit.

He also visited Gen. Martin's Division of Cavalry, near Oxford, where he read service and preached to a large congregation of the army. He has also been able to meet all demands made upon him for services, such as the administration of baptism and burying the dead, in the surrounding country.

Since the adoption of the weekly offertory, there has been a very perceptible increase in the congregations attending our service.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GRACE CHURCH, ST. STEPHENS.

RT. REV. R. H. WILMER, D. D.

Dear Sir—In compliance with your request, as the surviving Vestryman of Grace Church Parish, I herewith submit the following:
Since the removal of the Rev. Mr. MENZIES, in 1858, to another field of labor, we have not been favored with the services or ministrations of the Church until recently, by a visit from Rev. Geo. W. STICKNEY, who has celebrated Divine Service and administered the Sacraments, much to the gratification of ourselves and the community generally.
As there is considerable interest manifested at this time, and a number who await to be confirmed, it is hoped that it will be in your power, at an early date, to visit us. The following report is annexed:

Baptisms—White, adults, 3; infants, 3; Colored, adult, 1. Total, 7
Communicants—White, 7; Colored, 2. Total, 9

Very respectfully, yours, &c.

L. J. WILSON, Vestryman.

Time spent in the Parish since last report, twelve months.

Remarks.—This Parish has suffered much during the last eighteen months, from deaths and removals. Two gentlemen, who had been among its firmest friends and most liberal supporters from its foundation, have died; also a most estimable female communicant, who with her husband and children, were the first persons ever baptized by an Episcopal Minister in Wilcox County.

At Claiborne, where I officiate one Sunday in each month, there are five communicants.
