CIRCUITAL LETTER.

To the Lower Caneoeche Association, or to the Churches of whom her body is composed, and to the Saints scattered abroad who have obtained like precious faith.

DEAR BRETHREN:—According to former usage, you expect from us a Circular, and for a subject for the same, your attention is invited to the fourth chapter of the Epistle of Paul to the Galatians, and 24th verse. "Which things are an allegory, for these are the two covenants: the one from the Mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar." My reader, there cannot be a greater difference in the world between two things, than there is between law and grace. It is a most difficult thing to discriminate properly; he who knows the essential difference between law and grace has grasped the marrow of divinity, and to every enlightened Christian they are as opposite as light and darkness. We shall attempt to teach you some of the Allegories of Sarah and Hagar, that you may thereby better understand the difference between the covenants of the law and of grace. I first invite you to notice the women Hagar and Sarah; they are the types of the two covenants; the first covenant for which Hagar stands is the covenant of works which is this. There is my law, oh man! if thou on thy part wilt engage to keep it, I on my part wilt engage that thou shalt live by keeping it fully without a single flaw; I will carry thee to heaven, but if thou dost rebel, I will destroy thee forever. That is the Hagar covenant propounded on Sinai, amidst fire and smoke, "For this Agar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem, which now is, and is in bondage with her children," which you will find in Galatians the 4th chapter. All that desire to live under the law is not under grace, but is of the bond woman borned after the flesh and not after the spirit, but all the chosen family in Christ Jesus are the children of promise, as Isaac was, and are the children of the free woman which is the mother of them all. "So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond woman, but of the free."—Galatians 4th chapter 31st verse. But the Sarah covenant is the covenant of grace not made with God and man, but made with God and Christ Jesus, which covenant is this Christ Jesus on his part, engages to bare the penalty of all his people's sins, to die to pay their debts, to take their iniquities upon his shoulders, and the Father promises on his part that all for whom the son doth die shall most assuredly be saved, that seeing they have evil hearts he will put his law in their hearts, that he will pass them by and not remember them any more forever. The covenant of works was, do this and live oh man! But the covenant of grace is, do this oh Christ, and thou shalt live oh man! The difference of the covenants rests here, the one was made with man, the other with Christ, one was a conditional covenant with man, the other is a conditional covenant with Christ. Now come and look at Sarah who is the type of the new covenant of grace, and was the original covenant after all of Christ Jesus, before the foundation of the world. According to the fore-knowledge of God the Father, through the obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, “According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the word, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.”—Ephesians the 1st chapter and 4th verse.

“For if the first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second; for finding fault with them, he saith, behold, the day’s come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Judah; not according to the covenant that I made with their Fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord; for this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people; for I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.”—Hebrews the 8th chapter, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 12th verses. If you could go back to eternity and ask which is the oldest borned, you would hear that grace was borned before law, before law was promulgated, and blessed be God the law was never intended to save men. What is God’s law now? It is not above a christian; it is under a christian. The poor sinner trying to be saved by law is like a blind horse going around a mill and never getting a step further but being whipped continually, yea, the faster he goes, the more work he does, the more he is tired, so much the worse for him. The better legalist a man is, the more sure he is of being damned; the more holy a man is if he trust to his words, the more he may rest assured of his own final rejection, and eternal fortune with Pharisees, so the legalist may not only know himself to be damned, but the law as a covenant has ceased to be. Oh legalist, I do not wonder that ye teach the doctrine of falling away! Because that is consistent with your theology, of course Hagar has to be driven out and Ishmael too, but we who preach the covenant of grace prove that Isaac never shall be driven out, and that Sarah shall ever be the friend and wife of Abraham. Oh reader! How sweet to think that the covenant was in all things ordered well and sure, and never shall be removed, for “God who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us: even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ; by grace ye are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God.”—Paul to the Ephesians, 2d chapter, 4th and 5th verses—Ye Hagarines, ye ceremonialist, ye hypocrites, of what avail will it be when at last ye shall say where is my mother, the law? Oh, she is driven out, and thou shalt go with her into perdition. But where is my mother? The christian can say at last and it shall be said there is the mother of the faithful above the mother of us all, and we shall enter in and dwell with our Father and our God forever. Isaac is a type of the man who walks by faith and who hopes to be saved by grace. Now I call your attention to the 49th chapter of Isaiah and 8th verse. We all believe that our Saviour has much to do with the covenant of eternal salvation; I will give thee for a covenant of the people, we have been accustomed to regard him as the mediator of the covenant as the surety of the covenant, as the scope or substance of the covenant, we have considered him to be the mediator of the covenant, for we are certain that God could make no covenant with man unless there were a mediator, a day's man who could stand between them both, and we have hailed him as the great mediator who with mercy came down to tell sinful man the news that grace was promised in the eternal counsel of the most high. We have also served our Saviour as the surety of the covenant who on our behalf undertook to pay our debts, and on his Father's behalf undertook also to see that all our souls should be secure and safe, and ultimately presented unblemished complete before him; then he is the sum and substance of the covenant, he is the great and glorious article of the covenant, which God has given to his children. Farewell.

CORRESPONDING LETTER.

The Lower Canoochee Association to her sister Associations with whom she corresponds—Greeting:—

DEAR BRETHREN IN THE LORD:—Through the tender mercies of our Heavenly Father, we have been spared through another associational year, and permitted once more to assemble in an associate capacity, for which we desire to return our unfeigned thanks. We have enjoyed one of the pleasantest of meetings. Our churches were not all represented, but as far as was represented they generally bespeak peace and harmony among themselves. Dear brethren, one thing that added greatly to the comfort of our meeting was your correspondants, who came in the fullness of the Gospel of Christ, and declaring that salvation is of the Lord. Dear brethren, our next Association will be held with the Mill Creek church, Bullock county, 10 miles south of station No. 5, C.R. R., which is to commence on Saturday before the second Sunday in October, 1863, where we hope to meet with you again, for we greatly desire a continuance of your correspondence with us.

JOHN G. WILLIAMS, Moderator.

OWEN GIBSON, Clerk.

CONSTITUTION.

WHEREAS, The assemblage of the Delegates at Lime Stone Church, Washington County, Ga., on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in September, 1829, from the several Churches, viz: Newhope, Hebron, Lime-stone, Hines', Mill Creek, Fox Bay, Canoochee, Lake, Upper Black Creek, Bethlehem, Little Brier Creek, Gum-log, Bethesda, having then and there agreed and covenanted together to become united in one body, called the United Baptist Conference or Association; but at the Association held at Lower Lott's Creek, Bulloch county, in the year 1847, agreed then to become two bodies for convenience, called Upper and Lower Canoochee Associations; and we the Lower Canoochee Association, composed of the several Churches, viz: Nevil's Creek, Mill Creek, Elem, Upper Lott's Creek, Jones' Lake, Lower Lott's Creek, Bethlehem, Upper Black Creek, Line's, Fellowship, Ashe's Branch, Lower Black Creek, Beard's Creek, Cedar Creek, Deloache's, Water-melon Creek, Elbethel, Fox Bay, Salem and Gum Branch, do agree to unite on the following principles:

1. This Association shall, if they think proper, meet annually as an advisory Council.
2. This Association shall be composed of Messengers from the several Churches so that each church may have two Messengers, if they choose, and no more; and the Messengers’ names shall be inserted in their Letters.
3. This Association shall have power to make its own rules to govern itself; but none of its Rules shall be binding on the churches, for they are free and of right ought to be.
4. It shall be the duty of this Association to give her best advice in cases of difficulty, and to endeavor to keep up a union among the churches composing her body and arrange General Meetings.
5. This Association shall admit into its body any Church whom they find sound in faith and moral in practice. Also, if any church in order wishes to withdraw from this body, she may at her discretion on application, have a letter of dismission.
6th. 7th. We, the Churches composing this Association, believing the Books of the Old and New Testament to be the word of God, declare we take the New Testament for the Rule of our Faith and Practice, for we are not under the Law, but under Grace.

OWEN GIBSON, Clerk.
