Jerusalem my glorious home
Jesus! and shall it ever be
Jesus I love thy charming name
Jesus I my cross have taken
Jesus lover of my soul
Jesus thou art the sinner's friend
Jesus my all to heaven is gone
Jesus we look to thee
Joyfully, joyfully
Joy to the world
Just as I am
Life is the time to serve the Lord
Lord while for all mankind we pray
Mistaken souls that dream of Heaven
My days are gliding swiftly by
My dear Redeemer and my Lord
My soul be on thy guard
My times of sorrow and of joy
Must Jesus bear the cross alone
No more my God I boast no more
Not all the blood of beasts
Not to condemn the sons of men,
Now to the Lamb
O for a faith that will not shrink
O for a closer walk
O for the death of those
O thou that hear'st the prayer of faith
O thou whose tender mercy hears
O that my load of sin were gone
O when shall I see Jesus
O where shall rest be found
On Jordan's stormy banks I stand
One there is 'above all others
Peaceful be thy silent slumber
People of the living God
Plunged in a gulf of dark despair
Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire
Religion is the chief concern
Return O wanderer return
Rise my soul
Rock of Ages
Safely through another week
Salvation! O the joyful sound
Say brothers will you meet us
Say sinner hath a voice within
Show pity Lord
Sinner rouse thee from thy sleep
Sinners turn! why will ye die
So let our lips and lives express
Soldiers of Christ arise
Soldiers of the cross arise
Sovereign Ruler of the skies

HYMNS.

1
L. M!

1 AWAKE my soul, and with the sun,
Thy daily course of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and early rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first spring of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

3 Direct, control, suggest this day,
All I design or do or say,
That all my powers with all their might
I thy sole glory may unite.

4 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

L. M.

1 GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Under thine own Almighty wings.
2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son;
The ills that I this day have done;
That with the word, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep at peace may be.

3 O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

C. M.

1 ANOTHER day of soldier life
   Is numbered with the past;
   It was not filled with bloody strife,
   And did not prove our last.

2 Thy grace, O God, hath kept us whole;
   To thee we lift our praise;
   Accept the homage of each soul,
   And keep us all our days.

3 Keep us in safety through the night,
   And with us those we love;
   Save us, we pray thee by thy might,
   In battle and above.

C. M.

1 THERE is a fountain filled with blood,
   Drawn from Immanuel's veins.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son;
The ills that I this day have done;
That with the word, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep at peace may be.

3 O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

   And did not prove our last.

   And keep us all our days.

3 Keep us in safety through the night,
   And with us those we love;

   In battle and above.

C. M.

1 THERE is a fountain filled with blood,
   Drawn from Immanuel's veins.
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains.
The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.

E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

And when my lisping, stam'ring tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save!

S. M.

NOT all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.
But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
   Takes all our sins away;
A sacrifice of nobler name,
   And richer blood, than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
   On that dear head of thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
   And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back, to see
   The burdens thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursed tree,
   And hopes her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
   To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
   And sing his bleeding love.

6 C. M.

1 ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed!
   And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
   For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I have done,
   He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
   And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide
   And shut his glories in.
When Christ the mighty Maker died
   For man, the creature's sin.
4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
   While his dear cross appears:
   Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
   And melt mine eyes to tears.
5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
   The debt of love I owe;
   Here, Lord, I give myself away,
   'Tis all that I can do.

WHEN 1 survey the wondrous cross,
   On which the Prince of glory died,
   My richest gain I count but loss,
   And pour contempt on all my pride.
2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
   Save in the death of Christ, my God
   All the vain things that charm me mo
   I sacrifice them to his blood.
3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
   Sorrow and love flow mingled down
   Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
   Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
4 Were all the realm of nature mine,
   That were a present far too small;
   Love so amazing, so divine,
   Commands my soul, my life, my all.
1 HOW lost was my condition,
Till Jesus made me whole!
There is but one Physician
Can cure a sin-sick soul.
Next door to death he found me,
And snatched me from the grave,
To tell to all around me
His wondrous power to save.

2 From men great skill professing,
I thought a cure to gain;
But this proved more distressing,
And added to my pain.
Some said that nothing ailed me:
Some gave me up for lost;
Thus every refuge failed me,
And all my hopes were crossed.

3 At length, this great Physician—
How matchless is his grace!
Accepted my petition,
And undertook my case;
First gave me sight to view him,—
For sin my eyes had sealed,—
Then bade me look unto him:
I looked, and I was healed.
4 A dying, risen Jesus,
   Seen by the eye of faith,
   At once from danger frees us,
   And saves the soul from death.
Come, then, to this Physician;
   His help he'll freely give;
He makes no hard condition;
   'Tis only, Look and live.

C. M.

9 IN evil long I took delight,
   Unawed by shame or fear,
   Till a new object struck my sight,
   And stopped my wild career.

3 I saw one hanging on a tree
   In agonies and blood;
He fixed his languid eyes on me,
   As near his cross I stood.

3 O, never, to my latest breath,
   Shall I forget that look;
It seemed to charge me with his death,
   Though not a word he spoke.

4 My conscience felt and owned the guilt;
   It plunged me in despair;
I saw my sins his blood had spilt,
   And helped to nail him there.
A second look he gave, which said,
   "I freely all forgive."
"This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou mayest live."

Thus, while his death my sin displays
In all its darkest hue,
Such is the mystery of grace,
It seals my pardon too.

10 C. M.

1 CHRIST and his cross are all our theme:
The mysteries that we speak
Are scandal in the Jews' esteem,
And folly to the Greek.

2 But souls enlightened from above
With joy receive the word;
They see what wisdom, power, and love
Shine in their dying Lord.

3 The vital savor of his name
Restores their fainting breath;
But unbelief perverts the same
To guilt, despair, and death.

Till God diffuse his graces down,
Like showers of heavenly rain,
In vain Apollos sows the ground,
EARTH has engrossed my love too long,
'Tis time I lift mine eyes
Upward, dear Father, to thy throne,
And to my native skies.

There the blest Man, my Saviour sits;
The God! how bright he shines!
And scatters infinite delights
On all the happy minds.

Seraphs, with elevated strains,
Circle the throne around,
And move and charm the starry plains
With an immortal sound.

Jesus, the Lord, their harp employs:
Jesus, my love, they sing!
Jesus, the life of both our joys,
Sounds sweet from every string.

Now let me mount and join their song,
And be an angel too;
My heart, my hand, my ear, my tongue,
Here's joyful work for you.

I would begin the music here,
And so my soul should rise;
O for some heavenly notes to bear
My passions to the skies!
12  S. M.
1 GOD'S holy law transgressed,
   Speaks nothing but despair;
   Convinced of guilt, with grief oppressed,
   We find no comfort there.

2 Not all our groans and tears,
   Nor works which we have done,
   Nor nows, nor promises, nor prayers,
   Can e'er for sin atone.

3 Relief alone is found
   In Jesus' precious blood:
   'Tis this that heals the mortal wound,
   And reconciles to God.

4 High lifted on the cross,
   The spotless Victim dies:
   This is salvation's only source;
   Hence all our hopes arise.

13  S. M.
1 JESUS, we look to thee,
   Thy promised presence claim;
   Thou in the midst of us shall be,
   Assembled in thy name:

2 Thy name salvation is,
   Which here we come to prove;
   Thy name is life, and health, and peace,
   And everlasting love.
3 Present we know thou art,
   But, O, thyself, reveal!
Now, Lord, let every bounding heart
   The mighty comfort feel!
4 O may thy quickening voice,
   The depth of sin remove;
And bid our inmost souls rejoice,
   In hope of perfect love!

14 L. M.
1 NOT to condemn the sons of men,
   Did Christ, the Son of God, appear;
No weapon in his hands are seen,
   No flaming sword or thunder there,
2 Such was the pity of our God,
   He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
   Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
   Trust in his mighty name, and live.
A thousand joys his lips afford,
   His hands a thousand blessings give.

15 C. M.
1 JOY to the world; the Lord is come,
   Let earth receive her King;
Let ever heart prepare him room,
   And heaven and nature sing.
2 Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns;
   Let men their songs employ;
   While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
   Repeat the sounding joy.
3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
   Nor thorns infest the ground;
   He comes to make his blessings flow
   Far as the curse is found.
4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
   And makes the nations prove
   The glories of his righteousness,
   And wonders of his love.

C. M.

1 PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
   We wretched sinners lay,
   Without one cheerful beam of hope,
   Or spark of glimmering day.
2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
   Beheld our helpless grief;
   He saw, and O, amazing love!
   He ran to our relief.
3 Down from the shining seats above
   With joyful haste he fled,
   Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
   And dwelt among the dead.
4 O, for this love, let rock and hills
    Their lasting silence break,
And all harmonious human tongues
    The Saviour's praises speak.

17 8, 7.
1 ONE there is above all others,
    Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
    Costly, free, and knows no end.

2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
    Could or would have shed his blood?
But this Saviour died to have us
    Reconciled, in him, to God,

3 When he lived on earth abased,
    Friend of sinners was his name;
Now above all glory raised,
    He rejoices in the same.

4 O for grace our hearts to soften!
    Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
We, alas! forget too often,
    What a friend we have above.

18 L. M.
1 WHEN marshalled on the nightly plain,
    The glittering host besprings the sky,
One star alone, of all the train,
Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.

2 Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks
From every host, from every gem;
But one alone the Saviour speaks—
It is the Star of Bethlehem!

3 Once on the raging seas I rode;
The storm was loud, the night was dark;
The ocean yawned, and rudely blew
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.

4 Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem
When suddenly a star arose—
It was the Star of Bethlehem!

5 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It made my dark forebodings cease;
And through the storm and danger's thrall,
It led me to the port of peace.

6 Now, safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing first in night's diadem,
Forever, and forevermore—
The Star—the Star of Bethlehem!
1 ARISE, my soul, arise;
   Shake off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding sacrifice
   In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands;
My name is written on his hands.

2 The bleeding wounds he bears,
   Received on Calvary,
Now pour 'effectual prayers,'
   And strongly speak for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry,
"Nor let that ransomed sinner die."

3 The Father hears him pray,
   The dear anointed One;
He cannot turn away
   The pleading of his Son;
His spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

4 To God I'm reconciled;
   His pardoning voice I hear;
He owns me for his child;
   I can no longer fear;
With filial trust I now draw nigh,
And "Father, Abba. Father," cry,
L. M.

1 JESUS! and shall it ever be,
   A mortal man ashamed of thee?
   Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise,
   Whose glories shine through endless days!

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
   Let evening blush to own a star;
   He sheds the beams of light divine
   O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear friend
   On whom my hopes of life depend?
   No; when I blush, be this my shame,
   That I no more revere his name.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! Yes I may,
   When I've no guilt to wash away,—
   No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
   No fears to hush, no soul to save.

5 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
   Till then I boast a Saviour slain!
   And O may this my glory be,
   Jesus is not ashamed of me!

C. M.

1 HOW sweet the name of Jesus sounds
   In a believer's ear!
   It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fears.
It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.
Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

C. M.

JESUS, I love thy charming name;
'Tis music to mine ear;
Fain would I sound it aut so loud
That heaven and earth might near.
Yes, thou art yrecious to my soul,
My transport and my trust;
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
All my capacious powers can wish
In thee doth richly meet.
Nor to my eyes is life so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.
Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart,
And shed its fragrance there—
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.
I'll speak the honors of thy name
With my last, laboring breath,
And, dying, clasp thee in my arms,
The antidote of death.

C. M.

ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race.
A remnant weak and small!
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall:
Go spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all!

L. M.

AWAKE, my soul, in joyful lays.
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me;
His loving kindness, O how free!

He saw me ruined by the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate;
His loving kindness, O how good!
3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
   Though earth and hell, my way oppose,
   He safely leads my soul along!
   His loving kindness, O how strong.

4 I often feel my sinful heart
   Prone from my Saviour to depart;
   But though I oft have him forgot,
   His loving kindness changes not.

5 Soon shall I pass this mortal vale;
   Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
   O, may my last, expiring breath
   His loving kindness sing in death.

25 C. M.

1 SALVATION! oh, the joyful sound,
   Glad tidings to our ears;
   A sovereign balm for every wound,
   A cordial for our fears.

2 Salvation! buried one in sin,
   At hell’s dark door we lay;
   But now we rise by grace divine,
   And see a heavenly day.

3 Salvation! let the echo fly
   The spacious earth around;
   While all the armies of the sky
   Conspire to raise the sound.
1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,

Ye nations bow with sacred joy;

Know that the Lord is God alone,

He can create, and he destroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,

Made us of clay and formed us men;

And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed,

He brought us to his fold again.

3 We are his people, we his care,

Our souls, and our mortal frame;

What lasting honors shall we rear,

Almighty maker to thy name?

4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs.

High as the heaven our voices raise;

And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,

Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

5 Wide as the world is thy command;

Vast as eternity thy love;

Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,

When rolling years shall cease to move.
L. M.
FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.
Eternal are thy mercies, Lord,
And truth eternal is thy Word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore;
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

C. M.
I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care;
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear;
And all his promises to plead.
When none but God can hear,
I love to think on mercies past
And future good implore;
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.
I love by faith to take
Of brighter scenes in review
The prospect doth my soul renew
While here by temporal live.
5 Thus when life's toilsome day is o'er,
   May its departing ray,
   Be calm as this impressive hour,
   And lead to endless day.

29 S. M,

1 COME, we that love the Lord,
   And let our joys be known;
   Join in a song with sweet accord,
   And thus surround the throne.

2 The sorrows of the mind
   Be banished from the place;
   Religion never was designed
   To make our pleasures less.

3 Let those refuse to sing,
   Who never knew our God;
   But children of the heavenly King,
   May speak their joys abroad.

4 The hill of Zion yields
   A thousand sacred sweets,
   Before we reach the heavenly fields,
   Or walk the golden streets.

5 Then let our songs abound,
   And every tear be dry:
   We're marching through Immanuel's ground,
1 O THOU, whose tender mercy hears
Contrition's humble sigh;
Whose hand, indulgent, wipes the tears,
From sorrow's weeping eye:—

2 See low before thy throne of grace,
A wretched wanderer mourn;
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said,—"Return?"

3 And shall my guilty fears prevail
To drive me from thy feet?
Oh, let not this dear refuge fail,
This only safe retreat!

4 Oh, shine on this benighted heart
With beams of mercy shine!
And let thy healing voice impart
A taste of joys divine.

1 APPROACH, my soul, the mercy-seat,
Where Jesus answers prayer,
There humbly fall before his feet,
For none can perish there.

2 Thy promise is my only plea;
With this I venture high;
Thou callest burdened souls to thee
And such, O Lord am I.
3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
   By Satan sorely pressed,
   By wars without, and fears within,
   I come to thee for rest.

4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place,
   That, sheltered near thy side,
   I may my fierce accuser face,
   And tell him thou hast died.

5 O, wondrous love!—to bleed and die,
   To bear the cross and shame,
   That guilty sinners, such as I,
   Might plead his gracious name.

6 “Poor tempest-tossed soul, be still,
   My promised grace receive:”
   ’Tis Jesus speaks—I must, I will,
   I can, I do believe.

32 L. M.

1 What various hindrances we meet,
   In coming to a mercy-seat;
   Yet who that knows the worth of prayer,
   But wishes to be often there.
   Prayer makes the darkened cloud withdraw,
   Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
   Gives exercise to faith and love,
   Brings every blessing from above.
Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian’s armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

Have you no words? Ah! think again,
Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill your fellow creature’s ear
With the sad tale of all your care.

Were half the breath thus vainly spent,
To heaven in supplication sent.
Your cheerful song would oftener be,
“Hear what the Lord has done for me.”

DEPTH of mercy, can there be
Mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God his wrath forbear?
Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

I have long withstood his grace,
Long provoked him to his face;
Would not hearken to his calls,
Grieved him by a thousand falls.

There for me the Saviour stands,
Shows his wounds, and spreads his hands:
God is love! I know, I feel,
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.
4 Now incline me to repent!
   Let me now my fall lament!
   Now my foul revolt deplore,
   Weep, believe, and sin no more.

34 C. M.

1 COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
   With all thy quickening powers,
   Kindle a flame of sacred love
   In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look, how we grovel here below,
   Fond of these trifling toys!
   Our souls can neither fly nor go
   To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
   In vain we strive to rise;
   Hosannas languish on our tongues,
   And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
   At this poor dying rate?
   Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
   And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavedly Dove,
   With all thy quickening powers:
   Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
   And that shall kindle ours.
1 FROM every stormy wind that blows,
   From every swelling tide of woes,
   There is a calm, a sure retreat;
   'Tis found before the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
   The oil of gladness on our heads,
   A place of all on earth most sweet;
   It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
   Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
   Though sundered far, by faith they meet
   Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, on eagle wings we soar,
   And sin and sense molest no more;
   And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
   And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

1 A THRONE of grace! then let us go
   And offer up our prayer;
   A gracious God will mercy show
   To all that worship there.
A throne of grace! O, at that throne
Our knees have often bent,
And God has showered his blessings down
As often as we went.

3 A throne of grace! rejoice ye saints!
That throne is open still;
To God unbosom your complaints,
And then inquire his will.

4 A throne of grace we yet shall need
Long as we draw our breath,
A Saviour too, to intercede,
Till we are changed by death.

5 The throne of glory then shall glow
With beams from Jesus' face,
And we no longer want shall know,
Nor need a throne of grace.

37 C. M.

1 GOD is a Spirit, just and wise,
He sees our inmost mind;
In vain to heaven we raise our cries:
And leave our souls behind.

2 Nothing but man before his throne
With honor can appear.
The painted hag rites are known;
Through the disguise they wear.
3 Their lifted eyes salute the skies,
    Their bending knees the ground;
But God abhors the sacrifice,
    Where not the heart is found.

4 Lord, search my thoughts, and try I ways,
And make my soul sincere;
Then shall I stand before thy face,
And find acceptance there.

C. M.

1 PRAYER is the soul’s sincere desire,
    Unuttered or expressed,
    ’t he motion of a hidden fire,
    That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
    The falling of a tear,
    The upward glancing of an eye
    When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
    That infant lips can try;
    Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
    The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the christian’s vital breath,
    The Christian’s native air,
    His watchword at the gates of death
    He enters heaven with prayer.
L. M.
1 WITH all the boasted pomp of war,
In vain, we dare the hostile field;
In vain, unless the Lord be there;
Thine arm alone our land can shield.

2 Our arms succeed, our councils guide,
Let thy right hand our cause maintain
Till war's destructive rage subside,
And peace resume her gentle reign.

C. M.
1 LORD, while for all mankind we pray,
Of every clime and coast,
O, hear us for our native land—
The land we love the most.

2 O, guard our shores from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown
Our fields with plenteousness.

3 Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and thee;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The song of liberty.

4 Lord of the nations, thus to thee
Our country we commend;
Be thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend.
1 RELIGION is the chief concern
   Of mortals here below;
   May I its great importance learn,
   Its sovereign virtue know.

2 Religion should our thoughts engage
   Amidst our youthful bloom,
   'Twill fit us for declining age,
   Or for an early tomb.

3 O, may my heart by grace renewed,
   Be my Redeemer's throne;
   And be my stubborn will subdued,
   His government to own.

4 Let deep repentance, faith and love,
   Be joined with godly fear;
   And all my conversation prove
   My heart to be sincere.

1 COME, trembling sinner, in whose breast
   A thousand thoughts revolve;
   Come, with your guilt and fear oppressed,
   And make this last resolve.

2 I'll go to Jesus, though my sin
Hath like a mountain rose;
I know his courts, I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.

3 Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer;
But if I perish, I will pray,
And perish only there.

4 I can but perish if I go,
I am resolved to try;
For if I stay away, I know
I must forever die.

43 8's, 7's & 4.

1 Come, ye sinners, poor and wretched
   Weak and wounded, sick and sore!
Jesus ready stands to save you,
   Full of pity joined with power;
   He is able,
He is willing: doubt no more.

2 Come, ye thirsty! come and welcome
   God's free bounty, glorify;
   True belief, and true repentance,
   Every grace that brings us nigh—
   Without money,
Come to Jesus Christ and buy.

3 Let not conscience make you linger,
   Nor of fitness fondly dream;
   All the fitness he requireth,
Is to feel your need of him;
This he gives you;
'Tis his Spirit's rising beam.

4 Come ye weary, heavy laden,
Lost and ruined by the fall!
If you tarry till you're better;
You will never come at all:
Not the righteous—
Sinners, Jesus came to call.

44 7's.
1 BLEEDING hearts defiled by sin,
Jesus Christ can make you clean!
Contrite souls with guilt opprest,
Jesus Christ can give you rest.

2 You that mourn o'er follies past,
Precious hours and and years laid waste;
Turn to God, O turn and live!
Jesus Christ can still forgive.

3 Souls benighted and forlorn,
Grieved, afflicted, tempest-worn,
Now in Israel's Rock confide;
Jesus Christ for man has died.

4 Fainting souls, in peril's hour,
Yield not to the tempter's power;
On the risen Lord rely;
Jesus Christ now reigns on high.
COME, ye disconsolate, wher'er ye languish:
Come to the mercy-seat fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts. here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Joy to the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure,
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.

Here see the bread of life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can...
1 JESUS thou art the sinner's Friend;
   As such I look to thee.
Now in the bowels of thy love,
   O Lord, remember me.

2 Remember thy pure word of grace;
   Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy dying groans,
   And then remember me.

3 Thou woundrous Advocate with God,
   I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
   O Lord, remember me.

4 I own I'm guilty, own I'm vile,
   But thy salvation's free:
Then in thy all-abounding grace,
   O Lord, remember me.

5 Howe'er forsaken or distressed,
   Howe'er oppressed I be,
Howe'er afflicted here on earth,
   Do thou remember me.

6 And when I close my eyes in death,
   And creature helps all flee,
Then, O my great Redeemer God,
   I pray, remember me.
1 O THAT my load of sin were gone?
   O that I could at last submit,
   At Jesus' feet to lay it down!
   To lay my soul at Jesus' feet!

2 Rest for my soul I long to find:
   Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
   Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
   And stamp thine image on my heart.

3 Fain would I learn of thee, my God,
   Thy light and easy burden prove;
   The cross all stained with hallow'd blood
   The labor of thy dying love.

4 I would, but thou must give the power;
   My heart from sin release;
   Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
   And fill me with thy perfect peace.

5 Come, Lord, the drooping sinner cheer.
   Nor let thy chariot wheels delay:
   Appear, in my poor heart appear!
   My God, my Saviour, come away.

1 LIFE is the time to serve the Lord,
   The time t' ensure the great reward;
   And while the lamp holds out to burn,
   The vilest sinner may return.
2 Life is the hour that God has given
To 'scape from hell end fly to heaven;
The day of grace, and mortals may
Secure the blessings of the day.

3 The living know that they must die,
But all the dead forgotten lie;
Their memory and their sense is gone,
Alike unknowing and unknown.

4 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands, with all your might pursue,
Since no device nor work is found,
No faith, nor hope beneath the ground

5 There are no acts of pardon past
In the cold grave to which we haste,
But darkness, death, and long despair,
Reign in eternal silence there.

1 SINNER, rouse thee from thy sleep,
Wake, and o'er thy folly weep;
Raise thy spirit, dark and dead;
Jesus waits his light to shed.

2 Wake from sleep; arise from death;
See the bright and living path;
Watchful tread that path; be wise;
Leave thy folly; seek the skies.
3 Leave thy folly; cease from crime;
From this hour redeem thy time;
Life secure without delay;
Evil is thy mortal day.

L. M

1 SAY, sinner, hath a voice within
   Oft whispered to thy secret soul,
   Urged thee to leave the ways of sin,
   And yield thy heart to God's control?

2 Sinner, it was a heavenly voice,
   It was the Saviour's gracious call;
   It bade thee make the better choice,
   And haste to seek in Christ thine all.

3 Spurn not the call to life and light;
   Regard in time the warning kind;
   That call thou may'st not always slight,
   And yet the gate of mercy find.

4 Sinner, perhaps this very day
   Thy last accepted time may be;
   O, shouldst thou grieve him now away,
   Then hope may never beam on thee.

51 7's.

1 SINNERS turn; why will ye die?
   God, your Maker asks you why;
   God, who did your being give,
   Made you with himself to live.
2 Sinners turn; Why will ye die?
   God, your Saviour asks you why:
   Will ye not in him believe?
   He has died that ye might live.

3 Will ye let him die in vain?
   Crucify your Lord again?
   Why, unpardoned sinner, why
   Will ye slight his grace, and die?

4 Sinners, turn; why will ye die?
   God, the Spirit, asks you why:
   Often with you has he strove,
   Wooed you to embrace his love.

5 Will ye not his grace receive?
   Will ye still refuse to live?
   O, ye dying sinners, why,
   Why will ye forever die?

7's.

1 WHEN thy mortal life is fled,
   When the death-shades o'er thee spread,
   When is finished thy career,
   Sinner, where wilt thou appear?

2 When the world has passed away,
   When draws near the judgment-day,
   When the awful trump shall sound,
   Sav. O where
3 When the judge descends in light,
   Clothed in majesty and might,
When the wicked quail with fear,
   Where, O where wilt thou appear?

4 While the Holy Ghost is nigh,
   Quickly to the Saviour fly;
Then shall peace thy spirit cheer;
   Then in heaven shalt thou appear.

L. M.

1 RETURN, O wanderer, return,
   And seek an injured Father’s face;
Those warm desires that in thee burn,
   Were kindled by reclaiming grace.

2 Return, O wanderer return,
   And seek a Father’s melting heart:
His pitying eyes thy grief discern,
   His hand shall heal thy inward smart.

3 Return, O wanderer, return,
   Thy Saviour bids thy spirit live;
Go to his bleeding feet, and learn
   How freely Jesus can forgive.

4 Return, O wanderer, return,
   And wipe away the falling tear;
’Tis God who says, “No longer mourn.”
   ’Tis Mercy’s voice invites thee near.
1 WE'RE travelling home to heaven above,
   Will you go?
To sing the Saviour's dying love,
   Will you go?
Millions have reached that blest abode,
  Anointed kings and priests to God,
And millions more are on the road,
   Will you go?

2 We're going to see the bleeding Lamb,
   Will you go?
In rapturous strains to praise his name,
   Will you go?
The crown of life we there shall wear,
The conqueror's palms our hands shall bear,
   And all the joys of heaven we'll share,
   Will you go?

3 We're going to join the heavenly choir,
   Will you go?
To raise our voice and tune the lyre,
   Will you go?
There saints and angels gladly sing
Hosanna to their God and King,
   And make the heavenly arches ring,
   Will you go?
The way to heaven is straight and plain,
Will you go?
Repent, believe, be born again,
Will you go?
The Saviour cries aloud to thee
"Take up thy cross and follow me,
And thou shalt my salvation see,
Come to me."

AND can I yet delay
My little all to give?
To tear my soul from earth away,
For Jesus to receive?

Nay, but I yield, I yield!
I can hold out no more:
I sink, by dying love compelled,
And own the conqueror!

Though late, I all forsake;
My friends, my all resign;
Gracious Redeemer, take, O take,
And seal me ever thine!

Come, and possess me whole,
Nor hence again remove:
Settle and fix my wavering soul
L. M.

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot:
O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
With fears within, and wars without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

5 Just as I am,—thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

6 Just as I am,—thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down:
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come!
L. M.

1 BROAD is the road that leads to death,
   And thousands walk together there;
   But wisdom shows a narrow path,
   With here and there a traveler.

2 "Deny thyself and take thy cross,"
   Is the Redeemer's great command:
   Nature must count her gold but dross,
   If she would gain this heavenly land.

3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
   And walks the ways of God no more,
   Is but esteemed almost a saint,
   And makes his own destruction sure.

4 Lord, let not all my hopes be vain;
   Create my heart entirely new—
   Which hypocrites could ne'er attain,
   Which false apostates never knew.

C. P. M.

1 O THOU that hear'st the prayer of faith,
   Wilt thou not save a soul from death
   That casts itself on thee?
   I have no refuge of my own,
   But fly to what my Lord hath done
   And suffered once for me.
2 Slain in the guilty sinner's stead,
   His spotless righteousness I plead,
   And his availing blood:
That righteousness my robe shall be;
That merit shall atone for me,
   And bring me near to God.
Then save me from eternal death;
The Spirit of adoption breathe:
   His consolation send;
By him some word of life impart,
And sweetly whisper to my heart,
   "Thy Maker is thy Friend."

4 The king of terrors then would be:
   A welcome messenger to me,
   To bid me come away;
Unclogged by earth, or earthly things,
I'd mount, I'd fly with eager wings,
   To everlasting day.

59 L. M.

1 SHOW pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive;
   Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
   May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 My crimes are great, but can't surpass
   The power and glory of thy grace;
Great God, thy nature hath no bound;
   So let thy pardoning love be found.
3 O, wash my soul from every sin
   And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.

4 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath,
   I must pronounce thee just in death;
And if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.

5 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
   Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

60 C. M.

1 FATHER, I stretch my hands to thee,
   No other help I know;
If thou withdraw thyself from me,
   Ah! whither shall I go?

2 What did thine only Son endure,
   Before I drew my breath!
3 Author of faith, to the I lift
   My weary, longing eyes:
O, let me now receive that gift,
   My soul without it dies!

61 7's.

1 ROCK of ages cleft for me,
   Let me hide myself in thee;
   Let the water and the blood,
   From thy side, a healing flood,
   Be of sin the double cure—
   Save from wrath, and make me pure.

2 Should my tears forever flow,
   Should my zeal no languor know,
   All for sin could not atone:
   Thou must save, and thou alone;
   In my hand no price I bring;
   Simply to thy cross I cling.

3 When I draw this fleeting breath,
   When mine eyelids close in death,
   When I rise to worlds unknown,
   See thee on thy judgment throne,—
   Rock of ages cleft for me,
   Let me hide myself in thee.

62 7's.

1 HASTEN, sinner, to be wise;
   Stay not for the morrow's sun:
Wisdom if you still despise,
Harder is it to be won.

2 Hasten mercy to implore -
Stay not for the morrow's
Lest thy season should be o'
Ere this evening's stage be run.

3 Hasten, sinner, to return;
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Lest thy lamp should cease to burn,
Ere salvation's work is done.

4 Hasten, sinner, to be blest;
Stay not for the morrow's sun:
Lest perdition thee arest,
Ere the morrow is begun.

63 11's.

1 DELAY not, delay not; O sinner! draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee;
No price is demanded, the Saviour is here,
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

2 Delay not, delay not; why longer abuse
The love and compassion of Jesus, thy
A fountain is opened,—how canst thou refuse,
To wash and be cleansed in his pardoning blood?

3 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace,
Long grieved and resisted, may take its sad flight,
And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,—
To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

64

C. M.

1 AWAKE my soul; stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.

2 A crown of witnesses around,
Hold thee in full survey
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.

3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand that presents the prize,
To thine uplifted eye.
4 That prize, with peerless glories bright,
    Which shall new lustre boast,
When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems
    Shall blend in common dust.

65

L. M.

1 STAND up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
    And gird the gospel armor on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
    Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone.

2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course;
    But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
Thy Saviour nailed them to the cross,
    And sung the triumph when he rose.

3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
    Press forward to the heavenly gate;
There peace and joy eternal reign,
    And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
    And triumph in almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies
    Join in my glorious Leader's praise.
66

S. M.

1 MY soul, be on thy guard,
   Ten thousand foes arise:
   And hosts of sin are pressing hard
   To draw thee from the skies.

2 O watch, and fight and pray,
   The battle ne’er give o’er;
   Renew it boldly every day,
   And help divine implore.

3 Ne’er think the victory won,
   Nor lay thine armor down;
   Thine arduous work will not be done
   Till thou obtain thy crown.

67

7’s.

1 HARK my soul! 'tis the Lord,—
   'Tis thy Saviour, hear his word;
   Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee;
   “Say, poor sinner, Lovest thou me?

2 “I delivered thee when bound,
   And when wounded, healed thy wound
   Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
   Turned thy darkness into light.

   “Mine is an unchanging love,
   Higher than the heights above;
   Deeper than the depths beneath,
   Free and faithful, strong as death.
4 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
    When the work of grace is done;
Partner of my throne shalt be;
Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?"

5 Lord, it is my chief complaint,
    That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee and adore;
O for grace to love thee more!

68      S. M.

1 SOLDIERS of Christ arise,
    And gird your arm on,
Strong in the strength which God supplie,
Through his eternal Son.

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
    And in his mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,
Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand then in his great might,
    With all his strength endued;
And take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

4 That having all this done,
    And all your conflicts past.
Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.
SOLDIERS of the cross arise!
Lo! your Captain, from the skies,
Holding forth the glittering prize,
Calls to victory:
Fear not, though the battle lower;
Firmly stand the trying hour;
Stand the tempter's utmost power,
Spurn his slavery.

By the mercies of our God—
By Immanuel's streaming blood,
When for us alone he stood,
Ne'er give up the strife;
Ever to the latest breath,
Hark to what your Captain saith,—
"Be thou faithful unto death;
Take the crown of life!"

COMMIT thou all thy griefs
And ways into his hands,
To his sure trust and tender care
Who earth and heaven commands.

He points the clouds their course,
He shall prepare thy way;
He shall direct thy wandering feet,
Whom winds and seas obey.
3 Firm on the Lord rely,
   So safe shalt thou go on;
Fix on his work thy steadfast eye,
   So shall thy work be done.
4 Far, far above thy thought
   His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work hath wrought
   That caused thy needless fear.
5 No profit canst thou gain
   By self-consuming care;
To him commend thy cause, his ear
   Attends the softest prayer.

71 C. M.
1 MY times of sorrow and of joy,
   Great God, are in thy hand;
My choicest comforts come from thee,
   And go at thy command.
2 If thou shouldst take them all away,
   Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
   They were entirely thine.
3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word,
   Though all the world were gone,
1 GRACE! 'tis a charming sound!
Harmonions to the ear!
Heaven with the echo shall resound
And all the earth shall hear.
2 Grace first contrived the way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display
Which drew the wondrous plan.
3 Grace first inscribed my name
In God's eternal book:
'Twas grace that gave me to the La
Who all my sorrows took.
4 Grace led my roving feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies, each hour, I m
While pressing on to God.
5 Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days:
It lays in heaven, the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

1 HOW can I sink with such a prop
As my eternal God,
Who bears the earth's huge pillars
And spreads the heavens abroad
2 How can I die while Jesus lives,
   Who rose and left the dead?
Pardon and grace my soul receives
   From mine exalted Head.

3 All that I am, and all I have,
   Shall be forever thine,
What e'er my duty bids me give,
   My cheerful hands resign.

4 Yet if I might make some reserve,
   And duty did not call,
I love my God with zeal so great
   That I should give him all.

74  L. M.

1 NO more, my God, I boast no more
   Of all the duties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held before,
   To trust the merits of thy Son.

2 Now for the love I bear his name,
   What was my gain I count my loss,
My former pride I call my shame,
   And nail my glory to his cross.

3 Yes, and I must and will esteem
   All things but loss for Jesus' sake:
O may my soul be found in him.
4 The best obedience of my hands
  Dares not appear before thy throne:
  But faith can answer thy demands,
  By pleading what thy Lord has done.

75

S. M.

1 HOW charming is the place
   Where my Redeemer God
   Unveils the beauties of his face,
   And sheds his love abroad!

2 Here, on the mercy-seat,
   With radiant glory crowned,
   Our joyful eyes behold him sit,
   And smile on all around.

3 To him their prayers and cries
   Each humble soul presents;
   He listens to their broken sighs,
   And grants them all their wants.

4 To them his sovereign will
   He graciously imparts;
   And in return accepts, with smiles,
   The tribute of their hearts.

5 Give me, O Lord, a place
   Within thy blest abode,
   Among the children of thy grace,
   The servants of my God.
76

C. M.

1 O FOR a faith that will not shrink
Though pressed by many a foe;
That will not tremble on the brink
Of poverty or woe;

2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod;
But in the hour of grief or pain
Can lean upon its God.

3 A faith that keeps the narrow way
By truth restrained and led;
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.

4 Lord, give me such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
I'll taste e'en here the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

77

C. M.

1 HOW sad our state by nature is!
Our sin, how deep its stains!
And Satan binds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.

2 But hark! a voice of sovereign love
'Tis Christ's inviting word—
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,
An trust upon the Lord."

3 My soul obeys th' almighty call,
   And runs to this relief;
I would believe thy promise, Lord;
   O, help my unbelief.

4 To the dear fountain of thy blood,
   Incarnate God, I fly;
Here let me wash my spotted soul
   From stains of deepest dye.

5 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
   On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness
   My Saviour and my all.

78 10's & 11's

1 BEGONE, unbelief! my Saviour is near
   And for my relief will surely appear:
By prayer let me wrestle, and he will perform—
   With Christ in the vessel, 'I smile at the storm.'

2 Though dark be my way, since he is my guide,
   'Tis mine to obey, 'tis his to provide—
Though cisterns be broken, and creatures all fail,
The word he has spoken shall surely prevail.

3 His love, in time past forbids me to think
He'll leave me at last in trouble to sink;
Each sweet Ebenezer I have in review,
Confirms his good pleasure to help me quite thro'

4 Determined to save, he watched o'er my path,
When, Satan's blind slave,
with death;
And can he have taught me to trust in his name,
And thus far have brought me to put me to shame?

5 Why should I complain of want or distress?
Temptation or pain?—he told me no less.
The heirs of salvation, I know from his word,
Through much tribulation must follow their Lord.

6 How bitter that cup no heart can conceive,
Which he drank quite up, that sinners might live—
His way was much rougher and darker than mine;
Did Christ my Lord suffer, and shall I repine?

7 Since all that I meet shall work for my good,
The bitter is sweet, the med’cine is food;
Though painful at present, ’twill cease before long,
And then, O how pleasant the conquerer’s song!

79 8’s.

1 HOW tedious and tasteless the hours;
   When Jesus no longer I see!
Sweet prospects, sweet birds and sweet flowers,
   Have all lost their sweetness with me:
The midsummer sun shines but dim,
   The fields strive in vain to look gay,
But when I am happy in Him,
   December’s as pleasant as May.

2 His name yields the richest perfume,
   And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
   And
I should were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I
My summer would last all the year.

3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind.
While blessed with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4 Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song:
Say, why do I languish and pire,
And why are my winter so long?
O, drive these dark clouds from my sky,
Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
Or take me unto thee on high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

80 L. M.

1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess,
So let our works and virtues shine
To prove thy doctrine all divine.
2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God,
When the salvation reigns within.
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
Passion, and envy, lust and pride;
While justice, temperance, truth, and love
Our inward piety approve.

4 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord,
And faith stands leaning on his word.

SOVEREIGN Ruler of the skies!
Ever gracious, ever wise!
All my times are in thy hand—
All events at thy command.

2 Times of sickness, times of health,
Times of penury and wealth;
Times of trial and of grief,
Times of triumph and relief;

3 Times the tempter’s power to prove;
Times to taste a Saviour’s love:
All must come, and last, and end,
As shall please my heavenly Friend.
4 O thou Gracious, Wise, and Just,
In thy hands my life I trust:
Have I somewhat dearer still?—
I resign it to thy will.

5 Thee at all times will I bless,
Having thee, I all possess;
How can I bereaved be,
Since I cannot part with thee?

82 C. M.

1 IN all my Lord’s appointed ways
   My journey I’ll pursue;
   “Hinder me not,” ye much-loved saints
   For I must go with you.

2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead
   I’ll follow where he goes;
   “Hinder me not,” shall be my cry;
   Though earth and hell oppose.

3 Through duties and through trials too,
   I’ll go at his command;
   “Hinder me not,” for I am bound
   To my Immanuel’s land.

4 And, when my Saviour calls me home,
   Still this my cry shall be—
   “Hinder me not,” come, welcome, death;
   I’ll gladly go with thee.
83 C. M.

1 This world would be a wilderness,
   If banished, Lord, from thee;
   And heaven, without thy smiling face,
   Would be no heaven to me.

2 My Friend art thou where'er I go,
   The object of my love,
   My kind Protector here below,
   And my reward above.

3 When foes intrude or tyrants frown,
   Thou art my sure relief;
   To thee I make my sorrows known,
   And tell thee all my grief.

4 Midst rising winds and beating stormis,
   Reclining on thy breast,
   I find in thee a hiding-place,
   And there securely rest.

84 C. M.

1 In duties and in sufferings, too,
   Thy path, my Lord, I'd trace:
   As thou hast done, so would I do,
   Depending on thy grace.

2 Inflamed with zeal, 'twas my delight,
   To do thy Father's will;
   O, may that zeal, my soul excite
   Thy precepts to fulfil.
3 Unsullied meekness, truth and love,
Through all thy conduct shine;
O, may my whole deportment prove
A copy; Lord, of thine.

85 C. M.

1 IN vain I trace creation o'er,
   In search of solid rest;
The whole creation is too poor
   To make me truly blest.

2 Let earth and all her charms depart,
   Unworthy of the mind;
In God alone this restless heart.
   Enduring bliss can find.

3 Thy favor, Lord, is all I want;
   Here would my spirit rest;
O, seal the rich, the boundless grant,
   And make me fully blest.

86 L. M.

1 MY dear Redeemer and my Lord,
   I read my duty in thy word;
But in thy life the law appears,
   Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
   Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
   I would transcribe and make them mine.
3 Cold mountains and the mid.
Witnessed the fervor of thy pray;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and thy victory too.

4 Be thou my pattern; make bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

L. M.

1 I SEND the joys of earth away;
Away ye tempters of the mind;
False as the smooth, deceitful sea,
And empty as the whistling wind.

2 Your streams were floating me along
Down the gulf of dark despair,
And while I listened to your song,
Your streams had e'en conveyed me there.

3 Lord, I adore thy matchless grace,
That warned me of that dark abyss,
That drew me from those treacherous seas,
And bade me seek superior bliss.

4 Now to the shining realms above
I stretch my hands and glance my eyes;
O for the pinions of a dove,
To bear me to the upper skies.

C. M.

1 MISTAKEN souls! that dream of heaven,
And make their empty boast
Of inward joys, and sins forgiven,
While they are slaves to lust.

2 Vain are our fancies, airy flights,
If faith be cold and dead;
None but a living power unites
To Christ the living head.

3 'Tis faith that changes all the heart,
'Tis faith that works by love,
That bids all sinful joys depart,
And lifts the thoughts above.

4 'Tis faith that conquers earth and hell
By a celestial power;
This is the grace that shall prevail
In the decisive hour.

C. M.

1 HOW happy is the Christian's state.
His sins are all forgiven;
A cheering ray confirms the grace,
And lifts his soul to heaven.
2 Though, in the rugged path of life,
   He heaves the pensive sigh,
   Yet, trusting in the Lord, he find
   Supporting grace is nigh.
3 If, to prevent his wandering steps,
   He feels the chastening rod,
   The gentle stroke shall bring him back
   To his forgiving God.
4 And when the welcome message comes,
   To call his soul away,
   His soul in raptures will ascend
   To everlasting day.

90                  C. M.
1 HAIL! sweetest, dearest tie that binds
    Our glowing hearts in one;
Hail! sacred hope that tunes our minds
   To harmony divine.
It is the hope, the blissful hope,
   Which Jesus' grace has given,
The hope, when days and years are past,
   We all shall meet in heaven.
We all shall meet in heaven at last,
   We all shall meet in heaven:
The hope, when days and years are past,
   We all shall meet in heaven.
2 No lingering look, no parting sigh,
Our future meeting knows;
There friendship beams from every eye,
And love immortal glows.
O sacred hope! O blissful hope!
Which Jesus' grace has given, &c.

C. M.

1 AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Shall I be carried to the skies
On flowery bed of ease?
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas.

3 Are there no foes for me to face,
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vain world a friend to grace?
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
By faith they bring it nigh.
When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

BRETHREN, while we sojourn here,
Fight we must, but should not fear;
Foes we have, but we've a friend,
One who loves us to the end;
Forward, then, with courage go,
Long we shall not dwell below;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls, come home."

In the way a thousand snares
Lie to take us unawares;
Satan with malicious art,
Watches each unguarded heart:
But from Satan's malice free,
Saints shall soon in glory be;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls, come home."

CHILDREN of the heavenly King!
As ye journey sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.
2 Ye are travelling home to God,
   In the way the fathers trod;
   They are happy now, and ye
   Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest;
   Ye on Jesus' throne shall rest;
   There, your seat is now prepared,—
   There, your kingdom and reward.

4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
   On the borders of your land;
   Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
   Bids you undismayed go on.

5 Lord, submissive make us go,
   Gladly leaving all below;
   Only thou our leader be,
   And we still will follow thee.

94 S. M.

1 Unto thine altar, Lord,
   A broken heart I bring;
   And wilt thou graciously accept
   Of such a worthless thing?

2 To Christ, the bleeding Lamb,
   My faith directs its eyes;
   Thou may'st reject that worthless thin
   But not his sacrifice.
3 When he gave up his life,
    The law was satisfied;
    And now, to its severer claims,
    I answer, “Jesus died.”

95
1 COME on, my fellow-pilgrims come,
    O glory, hallelujah!
    We’re on our way to Zion,
    Hallelujah!

2 We have some trials here below;
    By and by we’ll go and leave them.

3 We’ll bear with all our sufferings here,
    There’s a better day coming.

4 A few more beating winds and rains—
    Then the winter will be over.

5 Let winds blow high, let winds blow low,
    We’re making for the harbor.

6 We have some friends before us gone,
    By and by we’ll go and meet them.

7 We’ll meet around our Father’s throne,
    And be with him forever.

8 Farewell, vain world, we’re going home,
    We soon shall meet our Saviour.
9 O what a happy day 'twill be.
    When we all meet in Heaven.
10 O how it lifts my soul to think
    Of meeting in the Kingdom.
11 There through a long eternity,
    We'll praise our Redeemer.
12 O, who will come and go with me?
    My home is over Jordan!

96 C. M.
1 FIRM as the earth the gospel stands,
    My Lord, my hope, my trust;
    If I am found in Jesus' hands,
    My soul can 'ne'er be lost.

2 His honor is engaged to save
    The meanest of his sheep;
    All, whom his heavenly Father gave,
    His hands securely keep.

3 Nor death nor hell shall e'er remove
    His chosen from his breast;
    Within the bosom of his love
    They must forever rest.

97 C. M.
1 O FOR a closer walk with God!
    A calm and heavenly flame,
    A light to shine upon the road,
    That leads me to the Lamb!
2 Where is the blessedness I knew
   When first I saw the Lord?
   Where is the soul-refreshing view
   Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I then enjoyed
   How sweet their memory still!
   But they have left an aching void,
   The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy dove, return,
   Sweet messenger of rest;
   I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
   And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
   Whate'er that idol be,
   Help me to tear it from thy throne,
   And worship only thee.

98 C. M.

1 Do not I love thee, O my Lord?
   Behold my heart and see;
   And turn each hateful idol out,
   That dares to rival thee.

2 Do not I love thee from my soul?
   Then let me nothing love;
   Dead be my heart to every joy,
   When Jesus cannot move.
3 Is not thy name melodious still
   To my attentive ear?
   Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound,
   My Saviour's voice to hear.
4 Thou know'st I love thee, dearest Lord.
   But O, I long to soar
   Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
   And learn to love thee more.

99

1 JESUS, lover of my soul!
   Let me to thy bosom fly;
   While the billows near me roll,
   While the tempest still is high;
   Hide me, O my Saviour, hide
   Till the storm of life be past!
   Safe into the haven guide;
   O! receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none.—
   Hangs my helpless soul on thee!
   Leave, O! leave me not alone;
   Still support and comfort me:
   All my trust on thee is stayed;
   All my help from thee I bring;
   Cover my defenceless head
   With the shadow of thy Plenteous grace with thee is found,—
Grace to pardon all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within;
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

HOW firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he hath said—
You who unto Jesus for refuge have fled?
"In every condition—in sickness, in health:
In poverty's vale, or abounding in
At home and abroad; on the land, or the sea,—
As thy day may demand, shall thy strength ever be.
"E'en down to old age, all my people shall love
My sovereign, eternal unchangeable love;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not, desert to its foes
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no, never, no, never, forsake!

8's & 7's

1 JESUS, I my cross have taken.
   All to leave, and follow thee;
Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
   Thou, from hence my all shalt be:
And whilst thou shalt smile upon in
   God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate, and friends disown me
   Show thy face, and all is bright.

2 Man may trouble and distress me;
   'T will but drive me to thy breast:
Lit with trials hard may press me;
   Heaven will bring me sweeter rest
O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While thy love is left to me;
O, 't were not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with thee.

102 C. M.

1 I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,
Or to defend his cause;
Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.

2 Jesus, my God. I know his name—
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.

3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour.

4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face;
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place.

103 S. M.

1 A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify;
A never dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil;
O may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.

3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And O, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.

4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

104 C. M.

1 MUST Jesus bear the cross alone,
And all the world go free?
No, there’s a cross for every one,
And there’s a cross for me.

2 The consecrated cross I’ll bear,
Till death shall set me free,
And then go home my crown to wea
For there’s a crown for me.

3 Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' pierced feet,
Joyful I’ll cast my golden crown.
105

1. HOW happy are they,
   Who the Saviour obey,
   And have laid up their treasure above?
   O, what tongue can express
   The sweet comfort and peace
   Of a soul in its earliest love!

2. 'Twas heaven below
   My Redeemer to know,
   And the angels could do nothing more
   Than to fall at his feet,
   And the story repeat,
   And the lover of sinners adore.

3. Then, all the day long,
   Was my Jesus my song,
   And redemption through faith in his name:
   O, that all might believe,
   And salvation receive;
   And their song and their joy be the same.

106

1. O, WHEN shall I see Jesus,
   And reign with him above,
   And from that flowing fountain
   Drink everlasting.
When shall I be delivered
From this vain world of sin,
And with my blessed Jesus
Drink endless pleasures in?

But now I am a soldier;
My Captain's gone before;
He's given me my orders,
And bid me not give o'er;
His faithful word has promised
A righteous crown to give;
And all his valiant soldiers
Eternal life shall have.

Through grace I am determined
To conquer, though I die,
And then away to Jesus
On wings of love to fly.
Farewell to sin and sorrow—
I bid you all adieu;
And O, my friends, prove faithful,
And on your way pursue.

And if you meet with troubles
And trials on your way,
Then cast your care on Jesus,
And don't forget to pray.
Gird on the heavenly armor
Of faith, and hope, and love;
Then, when the combat's ended
He'll carry you above.
107

1 MY days are gliding swiftly by,
   And I, a pilgrim stranger,
   Would not detain them as they fly,
   Those hours of toil and danger,

2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear,
   Our heavenly home discerning;
   Our absent Lord has left us word,
   Let every lamp be burning.

3 Should coming days be cold and dark,
   We need not cease our singing;
   That perfect rest naught can molest,
   Where golden harps are ringing.

4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow,
   Each chord on earth to sever;
   Our King says come, and there's our home,
   Forever, O forever

CHORUS.

For O! we stand on Jordan's strand,
   Our friends are passing over,
   And just before, the shining shore uncover.
108 C. M.

1 AMAZING grace! how sweet the sound
   That saved a wretch like me!
   I once was lost, but now am found,
   Was blind, but now I see.
2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
   And grace my fears relieved;
   How precious did that grace appear,
   The hour I first believed.
3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares
   I have already come:
   'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far
   And grace will lead me home.
4 And when this flesh and heart shall fail,
   And mortal life shall cease,
   I shall possess within the vail,
   A life of joy and peace.

109 8's & 7's.

1 COME thou fount of every blessing,
   Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
   Streams of mercy never ceasing,
   Call for songs of loudest praise,
2 Teach me some melodious measure,
   Sung by raptured saints above;
   Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
   While I sing redeeming love.
3 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
   Wandering from the fold of God;
   He, to save my soul from danger,
   Interposed his precious blood.

4 O, to grace how great a debtor
   Daily I'm constrained to be!
   Let thy grace, Lord, like a fetter
   Bind my wandering heart to thee.

5 Prone to wonder, Lord, I feel it,
   Prone to leave the God I know;
   Here's my heart; O, take and seal it;
   Seal it for thy courts above.

1 JESUS is my all, to whom I go:
   He whom I fix my hope;
   His track I see, and the narrow way
   The way I long have sought.

2 This is the way I long have sought,
   And mourned because I found it not;
   My grief my burden long has been,
   Because I was not saved from sin.

3 The more I strove against its power,
   I felt its weight and guilt the more;
   Till late I heard my Saviour say,
   "Come hither, soul, I am the way;"
4 Lo! glad I come; and thou, blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee as I am:
Nothing but sin have I to give,
Nothing but love shall I receive.

5 Then will I tell to sinners round,
What a dear Saviour I have found
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say, "Behold the way to God."

111 11's.

1 I would not live alway; I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
The few lucid mornings that dawn on us here
Are followed by gloom or beclouded with fear.

2 I would not live alway thus fettered by sin—
Temptation without and corruption within:
E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.

I would not live alway; no—welcome the tomb;
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom:
There sweet be my rest till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

Who, who would live alway away from his God—
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where rivers of pleasure flow bright o'er the plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

There saints of all ages in harmony meet
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet;
While anthems of rapture unceasingly roll;
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

S. M.

Give to the winds thy fears,
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears
God shall lift up thy head.
2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms,
   He gently clears the way;
   Wait thou his time; so shall this night
   Soon end in joyous day.
3 Still heavy is thy heart?
   Still sink thy spirits down?
   Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
   And every care begone.
4 What though thou rulest not?
   Yet heaven, and earth, and hell,
   Proclaim God sitteth on the throne,
   And rulest all things well.
5 Leave to his sovereign sway,
   To choose and to command;
   So shalt thou wondering, own his way
   How wise, how good his hand!

113  8, 7, 4.
1 GUIDE me, O thou great Jehovah!
   Pilgrim through this barren land;
   I am weak, but thou art mighty,
   Hold me with thy powerful hand:
   Bread of heaven!
   Feed me now and evermore.
2 Open now the crystal fountain,
   Whence the healing waters flow;
   Let the fiery, cloudy pillar,
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

2 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Thou of death and hell the conqueror,
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee.

114 C. M.

1 FATHER, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sovereign will denies,
Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise:—

2 "Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free;
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.

3 "Let the sweet hope that I am thine,
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end."

115 C. M.

1 WHILE thee I seek protecting Power,
Be my vain wishes stilled;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled.
2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
    To thee my thoughts would soar;
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
That mercy I adore.

3 In each event of life, how clear
    Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by thee.

4 In every joy that crowns my days,
    In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.

5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
    Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.

6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
    The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall know no tear;
That heart shall rest on thee.

116 C. M.

1 GOD moves in a mysterious way,
    His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.
2 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
With blessings on your head.

3 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

4 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

5 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

117 S. M.

1 DID Christ o'er sinners weep,
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye.

2 The Son of God in tears
The wondering angels see;
Be thou astonished, O my soul;
He shed those tears for thee,
3 He wept that we might weep;
   Each sin demands a tear:
In heaven alone no sin is found,
   And there's no weeping there.

118 7's.
1 'TIS religion that can give
   Sweetest pleasures while we live;
'Tis religion must supply
   Solid comfort when we die.
2 After death its joys will be
   Lasting as eternity!
Be the living God my friend,
   Then my bliss shall never end.

119 7's.
1 PEOPLE of the living God,
   I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
   Peace and comfort nowhere found.
2 Now to you my spirit turns—
   Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
   O, receive me into rest.
3 Lonely I no longer roam,
   Like the cloud, the wind, the wave;
Where you dwell shall be my home,
   Where you die shall be my grave.
4 Mine the God whom you adore;
    Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more;
   Every idol I resign.

120          C. M.

1 YE glittering toys of earth, adieu!
    A nobler choice be mine;
    A real prize attracts my view,
        A treasure all divine.

2 Begone, unworthy of my cares.
    Ye specious baits of sense,—
    Inestimable worth appears,
        The Pearl of price immense!

3 Jesus, to multitudes unknown,
    O name divinely sweet!
Jesus, in thee, in the alone,
    Wealth, honor, pleasure meet.

5 Should earth's vain treasures all depart,
    Of this dear gift possess'd,
I'd clasp it to my joyful heart,
    And be forever bless'd.

6 Dear sovereign of my soul's desires,
    Thy love is bliss divine;
Accept the wish that love inspires,
    And bid me call thee mine.
BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we assunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free,
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.
122

C M

1 HOW precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears:
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

123

C M

1 O HOW I love thy holy law!
'Tis daily my delight;
And thence my meditations draw
Divine advice by night.

2 My waking eyes prevent the day,
To meditate thy word;
My soul with longing melts away,
To hear thy gospel, Lord.

3 When nature sinks, and spirits droop,
Thy promises of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write my praise.
124  C·M

1 THE day approaches, O my soul!
The great decisive day,
Which from the verge of mortal life,
Shall bear thee far away.

2 Another day more awful dawns;
And lo! the judge appears;
All nations stand before his bar,
With mingled hopes and fears.

3 Yet does one short preparing hour,
One precious hour remain;
Rouse then, my soul! with all thy power,
Nor let it pass in vain.

125  S·M

1 O WHERE shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul;
'Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.
4 There is a death, whose pang
   Outlasts the fleeting breath:
   O, what eternal horrors hang
   Around the second death.

5 Lord God of truth and grace,
   Teach us that death to shun,
   Lest we be driven from thy face,
   For evermore undone.

126 L M
1 WHY should we start and fear to die?
   What timorous worms we mortals are:
   Death is the gate to endless joy,
   And yet we dread to enter there.

2 Jesus can make a dying bed
   Feel soft as downy pillows are,
   While on his breast I lay my head,
   And breathe my life out sweetly there.

127 8's & 7's
1 PEACEFUL be thy silent slumber;
   Peaceful in the grave so low;
   Thou no more wilt join our number,
   Thou no more our songs shall know.

2* Dearest brother, thou hast left us;
   Here thy loss we deeply feel:
But 'tis God that hast bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

AND let this feeble body fail,
And let it faint or die!
My soul shall quit this mournful vale,
And soar to worlds on high;
Shall join the disembodied saints,
And find its long sought rest,
(That only bliss for which it pants),
In the Redeemer's breast.

In hope of that immortal crown,
I now the cross sustain;
And gladly wander up and down,
And smile at toil and pain:
I travel my appointed years,
Till my Deliverer come,
And wipe away his servant's tears,
And take his exile home.

O, what hath Jesus done for me!—
Before my raptured eyes
Rivers of life divine I see,
And trees of Paradise!
I see a world of spirits bright,
Who taste the pleasures there;
They all are robed in spotless white,
And conquering palms they bear.

O what are all my sufferings, here,
If, Lord, thou count me meet,
With that enraptured host t' appear
And worship at thy feet!
Give joy or grief, give ease or pain,
Take life or friends away;
But let me find them all again,
In that eternal day.

1 ETERNITY is just at hand,
And shall I waste my ebbing sand,
And careless view departing day,
And throw my inch of time away?

2 Eternity! tremendous sound!
To guilty souls a dreadful wound!
But, O! if Christ and heaven be mine
How sweet the accents! how divine!

3 Be this my chief, my only care,
My high pursuit, my ardent prayer—
An interest in the Saviour's blood,
My pardon seal'd and peace with God.
4 But should my brightest hopes be vain
The rising doubt, how sharp its pain!
My fears, O gracious God! remove;
Speak me an object of thy love.

5 Search, Lord, O search my inmost heart,
And light, and hope, and joy impart:
From guilt and error set me free,
And guide me safe to heaven and thee.

130

S. M.

1 O FOR the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

2 Their bodies in the ground,
In silent hope may lie,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.

3 Their ransomed spirits soar,
On wings of faith and love;
To meet the Saviour they adore,
And reign with him above.

4 With us their names shall live
Through long-succeeding years,
Embalmed with all our hearts can give
Our praises and our tears.
5 O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord?
O, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

131 P. M.

1 VITAL spark of heavenly flame,
Quit, O quit this mortal frame;
Trembling, hoping, lingering flying,
O, the pain, the bliss of dying!
Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife,
And let me languish into life.

2 Hark!—they whisper; angels say,
"Sister spirit, come away;"
What is this absorbs me quite?
Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
Drowns my spirits, draws my breath?
Tell me, my soul, can this be death?

3 The world recedes, it disappears;
Heaven opens on mine eyes; mine ears
With sounds seraphic ring:
Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly!
"O Grave, where is thy victory?
O Death, where is thy sting?"
132  C. M.

1 AND must I be to judgment brought,
And answer in that day
For every vain and idle thought,
And every word I say?

2 Thou awful judge of quick and dead,
The watchful power bestow;
So shall I to my ways take heed,
To all I speak or do.

3 If now thou standest at the door,
O let me feel thee near!
And make my peace with God, before
I at thy bar appear,

133  C. M.

1 HARK! from the tombs a warning sound;
My ears attend the cry,—
"Ye living men, come view the ground
Where you must shortly lie.

2 "Princes. this clay must be your bed,
In spite of all your towers:
The tall, the wise, the reverend head,
Must lie as low as ours."

3 Great God, is this our certain doom?
And are we still secure?—
Still walking downward to the tomb,
    And yet prepare no more?

4 Grant us the power of quickening grace,
    To fit our souls to fly;
    Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
    We'll rise above the sky.

1 IN the Christian's home in glory,
    There remains a land of rest,
    There my Saviour's gone before me,
    To fulfil my soul's request.
    There is rest for the weary,
    There is rest for you,

On the other side of Jordan
In the sweet fields of Eden,
Where the tree of life is blooming,
    There is rest for you.

2 He is fitting up my mansion,
    Which eternally shall stand;
    For my stay shall not be transient
    In that holy, happy land,
    There is rest, etc.

3 Pain and sickness ne'er shall enter,
    Grief nor woe my lot shall share,
    But in that celestial centre,
    I a crown of life shall wear,
    There is rest, etc.
4 Sing, Oh! sing ye heirs of glory;
Shout your triumphs as you go;
Zion's gates will open for you, *
You will find an entrance through,
There is rest, etc.

135 6’s & 4’s.

1 I'M but a traveler here—
Heaven is my home
Earth is a desert drear—
Heaven is my home
Danger and sorrow stand
Round me on every hand;
Heaven is my father-land,
Heaven is my home.

2 What though the tempest rage!
Heaven is my home,
Short is my pilgrimage—
Heaven is my home,
Time's cold and wintry blast
Soon will be overpast;
I shall reach home at last,
Heaven is my home.

3 There at my Saviour's side
Heaven is my home,
I shall be glorified—
Heaven is my home,
There are the good and blest—
Those I love most and best,
There, too, I soon shall rest;
Heaven is my home.

1. RISE, my soul and stretch thy wings,
   Thy better portion trace;
Rise from transitory things
   Towards heaven, thy native place;
Sun, and moon, and stars decay,
   Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
   To seats prepared above.

2. Rivers to the ocean run,
   Nor stay in all their course;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun,
   Both speed them to their source;
So the soul that's born of God
   Pants to see his glorious face,
Upward tends to his abode,
   To rest in his embrace.

3. Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn;
   Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return,
   Triumphant, in the skies;
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given;
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

1 THERE is a happy land,
   Far, far away,
   Where saints in glory stand,
   Bright, bright as day;
   O, how they sweetly sing,
   Worthy is our Saviour King;
   Loud let his praises ring,—
   Praise, praise for aye.

2. Come to this happy land,
   Come, come away;
   Why will ye doubting stand—
   Why still delay?
   O, we shall happy be,
   When from sin and sorrow free,
   Lord, we shall live with thee!
   Blest, blest, for aye.

3 Bright in that happy land
   Beams every eye,—
   Kept by a father's hand,
   Love cannot die,
   On, then, to glory! on!
   Be a crown and kingdom won;
And bright above the sun,
We reign for aye.

C: M.

1 WHEN I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts be hurled,
Then I can smile a Satan’s rage,
And face a frowning world.

3 Let cares, like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall!
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

JERUSALEM! my glorious home!
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy, and peace, and thee?

O when, thou city of my God,
Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end?

3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom
    Nor sin nor sorrow know;
    Blest seats! through rude and stormy scenes,
1 onward press to you.

4 Why should I shrink at pain and wo,
    Or feel, at death, dismay?
    I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
    And realms of endless day.

5 Jerusalem! my glorious home!
    My soul still pants for thee;
    Then shall my labors have an end,
    When I thy joys shall see.

140

1 JOYFULLY, joyfully onward I move,
    Bound to the land of bright spirits above;
    Angelic choristers sing as I come,
    Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home!
    Soon with my pilgrimage ended below,
    Home to the land of bright spirits I go;
    Pilgrim and stranger no more shall I roam.
121

2 Friends, fondly cherished, have passed on before;
Waiting, they watch me approaching the shore;
Singing to cheer me through death's chilling gloom,
Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home.
Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear!
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear:
Ringswith the harmony heaven's high dome,—
Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home.

3 Death with thy weapons of war lay me low,
Strike, king of terrors, I fear not the blow;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb!
Joyfully, joyfully will I go home,
Bright will the morn of eternity dawn,
Death shall be banished, his sceptre gone;
Joyfully, then shall I witness his doom.
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

141 C. M.

1 ON Jordan stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.
2 O, the transporting, rapturous scene,
    That rises to my sight!
    Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
    And rivers of delight.
3 O'er all those wide extended plains
    Shines one eternal day;
    There God—the Son forever reigns,
    And scatters night away.
4 When shall I reach that happy place,
    And be forever blest?
    When shall I see my Father's face,
    And in his bosom rest?

142 C M

1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
    Where saints immortal reign;
    Eternal day excludes the night,
    And pleasures banish pain.
2 There everlasting spring abides,
    And never-withering flowers;
    Death, like a narrow sea, divides
    This heavenly land from ours.
3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood,
    Stand dressed in living green;
    So to the Jews' old Canaan stood,
    While Jordan rolled between.
4 O! could we make our doubts remove,—
    Those gloomy doubts that rise,—
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unbeclouded eyes.

5 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,—
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold:
Should fright us from the shore.

143

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love;
But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope and strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
No groans shall mingle with the songs,
Which dwell upon immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of angry foes;
No cares to break the long repose;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high eternal noon.

4 O long expected day begin;
Dawn on these realms of pain and sin;
With joy we'll tread the appointed road,
And sleep in death to rest with God.

144

I'M a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger;
I can tarry but a night;
Do not detain me, for I am going
To where the rivers are ever flowing.

2 There the sunbeams are ever shining,
I am longing for the sight;
Within a country unknown and dreary,
I have been wandering forlorn and weary.

3 Of the country to which I'm going,
My Redeemer is the light;
There is no sorrow, nor any sighing,
Nor any sinning, nor any dying.
   I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger,
   I can tarry but a night.

145. S M

1 WELCOME sweet day of rest,
   That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
   And these rejoicing eyes!

2 The King himself comes near,
   And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
   And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One day amidst the place
   Where Jesus is within,
Is better than ten thousand days
   Of pleasure and of sin,
4 My willing soul would stay
   In such a frame as this,
   Till it is called to soar away
   To everlasting bliss.

146 7's
1 SAFELY through another week
   God has brought us on our way;
   Let us now a blessing seek,
   Waiting in his courts to-day;
   Day of all the week the best,
   Emblem of eternal rest,
2 While we seek supplies of grace,
   Through the dear Redeemer’s name
   Show thy reconciling face,
   Take away our sin and shame;
   From our worldly cares set free,
   May we rest this day in thee.
3 May the gospel’s joyful sound
   Conquer sinners, comfort saints,
   Make the fruits of grace abound,
   Bring relief from all complaints:
   Thus let all our sabbaths prove,
   Till we join the church above.

147* L M
1 COME Christian brethren ere we part,
   Join every voice and every heart,
One solemn hymn to God we raise,
One final-song of grateful praise.

2 Christians, we here may meet no more,
  But there is yet a happier shore;
  And there released from toil and pain,
  Dear brethren, we shall meet again.

148

1 SAY, brothers, will you meet us
   On Canaan’s happy shore?
   By the grace of God we’ll meet you
   Where parting is no more.

2 Jesus lives and reigns forever
   On Canaan’s happy shore!
   Glory, glory, hallelujah,
   Forever, evermore!

149

1 DISMISS us with thy blessing, Lord,
   Help us to feed upon thy word;
   All that has been amiss, forgive,
   And let thy truth within us live.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good;
   Wash all our hearts in Jesus’ blood;
   Give every fettered soul release,
   And bid us all depart in peace.
NOW to the Lamb,
Be endless blessings
Salvation, glory, joy, remission
Forever on thy head.

Praise God from whom all flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below:
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
