The Emory Campus
The CAMPUS 1934
Published by Student Council of EMORY UNIVERSITY
Emory University, Georgia VOLUME XLII
In this, the 42nd volume of THE CAMPUS, an endeavor has been made to present a glimpse of the beauty of the flowers, paths, scenes, and buildings on the Emory Campus. For those who have already seen her beauty, we hope that in future years this volume will act as a spark to kindle again the memories of her unrivaled beauty; for those who have been less fortunate, we hope that it will act as an inspiration. If this endeavor has been achieved, our work will certainly not have been in vain.
The editors of THE CAMPUS, on behalf of the entire Student Body, dedicate this, the 42nd volume, to the members of our Faculty,

Who have endeared themselves to us and have won our high regard and esteem,

Whose understanding nature has always been a consolation to us in our deepest despair,

Whose instructions have prepared us for a better and fuller life,

Whose example has ever inspired us to braver and nobler deeds.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES COUNCIL

THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES COUNCIL, the highest organ of the student government, exercises indirect control over all forms of student endeavor. The Council is composed of representatives from all the departments of the University and meets every two weeks to supervise the efficient working of the various campus affairs and to handle any crisis which may arise.

This Council elects the Business Managers for the three publications and drafts the budget for all the activities on the campus for the following year. The President of the student body serves as the President of the Student Activities Council.

HONOR COUNCIL

THE UNIVERSITY HONOR COUNCIL is composed of five students and one member of the faculty. This committee is nominated by the outgoing council and is elected by the student body each spring quarter to serve during the following scholastic year. All violations of the Honor Code are reported to the Chairman of the Council, who summons the rest of the body for an official trial of the accused. For a direct breach of the Honor Code as laid down in the Y. M. C. A. Handbook, the usual punishment is dismissal from school, and from a sentence at the hands of the Honor Committee there is absolutely no appeal.

having received over a twenty-five per cent reduction in funds from the Student Activities Appropriations, the Editor realized the necessity of making many changes in the CAMPUS. With this realization foremost in his mind, he has conscientiously striven to perform his duty.

All extraneous material was discarded. The remainder was carefully reorganized, improved, and apportioned. The theme, which in past years has been abstraction, has been given a place more in keeping with the book itself. In keeping with the expressed desires and wishes of the students, the Faculty, for the first time in several years, has been given a place in the book. The roll of the different classes has also been included, correcting to a large extent the erroneous idea of the size of our school. Special attention has been given in every case to accuracy and uniformity. We have checked and rechecked as much as time would permit in an endeavor to get each picture, name, and title in its proper place. We feel that we have performed this task reasonably well. If a few errors have been made, we hope that the students will not think too harshly of us.

The diction of the singers is excellent, so excellent that it could serve as an example to many other groups.

Washington, D. C. Star: "The singing of these young men showed at once a solid foundation that assured fidelity to pitch and free tone production. There is a quality of strength in the ensemble singing which has more to do with the character of the tone than the power used.

Charlotte Observer: "There is no doubt that Dr. Malcolm H. Dewey, who directs this organization, knows his business."

Lynchburg Daily: "In their negro spirituals the singers displayed the rich rhythm and deep fullness of the negro songs and the audience showed its appreciation by encore time and time again."

Since the Emory Players were founded in 1927, they have presented six full-length plays and twelve one-act plays, and have achieved almost complete independence of outside aid. Last December a group of three one-act plays were given: "Where the Cross Is Made," one of Eugene O'Neill's most gripping pieces; "The Tangled Webb," a complicated and brilliant little farce; and "The Boy Comes Home," a drama of a returned war veteran's domestic conflict. In May the club presented "Broadway Jones," George M. Cohan's popular comedy of the broke Broadway playboy who inherited a million-dollar chewing gum factory; the cast consisted of fifteen members.

Dr. T. H. English, who has been director of the players since their beginning, was forced by other duties to resign his position last spring. Dr. Garland G. Smith and Professor Ellis H. Rece succeeded him and directed "Broadway Jones."

THERE ARE FEW WHO DENY that the real purpose of college athletics is the promotion to the greatest extent of the physical welfare of the greatest number of students.

To build sound bodies, and to keep men in good health—not a few men of the student body, but every one—should be the sole purpose of college athletics, and we feel that this is true at Emory more so than at any other college in the country.

Students, faculty members, and trustees are now more keenly awake to the physical needs of the student body than they have ever been before. There is one person, however, whose unceasing efforts have brought Emory nearer the happy medium, between over-emphasis and under-emphasis, in athletics than any other man. That person is Coach Jeff D. McCord, who two years ago was named Emory's first full-time athletic director.

At Emory he is making athletics a necessary adjunct to student life. Since Coach McCord was placed in charge of our athletic system we have added to our equipment a covered swimming pool, a new athletic field, an improved track; and additional tennis courts are now under construction.

During the last few years Emory has made athletic history. It is to her credit that she has braved new fields to do more for every man in college physically than has ever been done before. Her system is unique. It is one of the participation of the entire student body in intramural, and to a lesser degree, intercollegiate athletics. Tennis, swimming, and golf are the intercollegiate sports, while all others are purely intramural.

Although Emory has not endeavored to thrust herself into the limelight through her athletics, she is proud of her system. The University knows of no greater tribute that could be paid to this system than to dedicate this section of the 1934 Campus to the men who, through the medium of athletics, have contributed so much to her welfare.
James Sledd, Guard
Jimmy was a constant thorn in the flesh of the plays of his opponents. He looks tough and plays a game which certainly backs up his looks.

Booshie Turman, Back
Booshie, senior backfield ace, played a strong consistent game. His speed coupled with his ability for sidestepping tacklers presented a difficult problem to his opponents.

Clem Sutton, End
Clem played an excellent defensive game. Many a bright hope for gain was smeared by his quick thinking.

Tom Bailey, End
Tom played his position well during the entire season. His pass receiving was one of the main things contributing to the strength of the Sophomores.

Chris Conyers, Back
Chris was a strong man in his position, running and blocking well. He proved a great help to the Sophomores.

Grover Irwin, Tackle
Grover always a good man, proved his ability with his stellar play this year. He was a constant menace to plays over his side of the line.
Albert Stubbs, Center

"Stubby" again showed his true qualifications as an "E" man. This is his third year as winner of a letter in football. He was above any of his competitors for the center position.

Johnny Maddox, Back

Johnny played hard, fast ball. He constantly carried the ball deep into the enemy's territory. No man relished the tackling of Johnny's driving knees.

T. K. Slaughter, Tackle

T. K. played a consistent game full of upsets for his opponents. His tackling was sure and hard. This makes T. K.'s second year wearing the "E".

Charles Puleston, Back

Charlie was a fast man when he circled the end. Time and time again his flying feet brought long gains to the Sophomores.

Albert Reichert, Back

"Rick" is one man who can always be depended upon for a gain. He constantly drove through the line with devastating effects on his opposition.

Allen Alexander, Tackle

Allen is one of the best tackles seen at Emory in the past few years. His play was outstanding as evidenced by his being elected captain of the Freshman team this year and of the Sophomore team for next year.

Johnny Coxwell, Guard

Johnny was a powerful guard on the defense. He constantly broke through to throw his man for a loss. Though he is big and heavy, he shows remarkable speed.
FOOTBALL

The 1934 football season at Emory was filled with unusual happenings. Although there were only three teams this year owing to an insufficient number of interested Juniors to form a Red team, there was much enthusiasm shown towards the games.

No decision as to championship was made. The results of the games left the Sophomores and the Seniors tied for first place.

No points were scored in any of the first quarters; most points were scored in the third quarters. The Freshmen, strange to say, never crossed their opponents’ goal.

Chris Conyers of the Sophomores was high-point man with 20 points, rivalled by Albert Reichert, also a Sophomore, with 13 points and Charles Pulston, a Sophomore, with 12 points.

The seniors, who tied the Juniors for the conference title last year, tied the Sophomores this year. The struggle was long and hard, but neither of the teams was able to prove its superior ability.

Their backfield proved a veritable precision machine, clocking up gains steadily. Maddox and Turman made some beautiful runs. The punting of Turman was the best in school.

In the line, Sutton, Stubbs, Irwin, Pringle, and Conyers were outstanding. They proved exceedingly hard to get by.

Prof. Peebles coached the Seniors this year.

Six of the players were selected for the All-Emory Team—Maddox, Turman, Stubbs, Slaughter, Irwin, and Sutton.

SOPHOMORE FOOTBALL TEAM

The sophomores went into action with a determination to win the conference title this year. They almost succeeded, but were unfortunately tied by the Seniors. They played a hard fast game, constantly breaking through the defense of their opponents. On the defense they were like a stone wall, almost impenetrable.

In the line Bailey, Sledd, Campbell, and Goodyear held their respective positions well. Without a doubt, the Sophomore line was the best in school.

Not unworthy of comparison to this formidable line was the stellar backfield made up of Puleston, former Tech player, Flournoy, Conyers, Barker, Reichart, and Cullum.

They placed five men on the All-Emory Team. Gene Hauck was their coach.

THE FRESHMEN, playing together for the first time, developed an excellent unity in their game. As a result of the coaching by Bill Dunn, they constantly pushed their opponents back. Strange to say, however, they never crossed the goal line of the opposition; on the other hand they were a constant threat to their opponents.

The outstanding men of the backfield were Conner, Beard, Barton, and Klausman. These boys did good work in their positions.

In the line Alexander, Crosswell, Coxwell, Holland, and Pendleton stood out. They were hard to break through and fast on the offense.

Two Freshmen, Alexander and Coxwell, were selected for the All-Emory Team.

Freshman Football Team
BASKET-BALL

The 1934 basket-ball season was one of many upsets, the championship of the intra-mural league being decided only after a post-season game between the Freshman and Lawyer teams in which the Freshmen emerged victorious. The championship Freshman quintet was coached by Bill Dunn and has the distinction of being the first Freshman champions of any sport.

At the beginning of the season, the Junior team was selected as the probable winner, but slumped badly after a fast start. The Freshman team played consistently during the entire season and was defeated only three times in fourteen contests.

The nine men receiving All-Emory awards were: forwards, Francis Nunn (Juniors), John McCay (Juniors), Booshie Turman (Lawyers) and Alf Hind (Seniors); centers, Allan McGhee (Seniors) and Morgan Cantey (Lawyers); guards, Chris Conyers (Sophs), Tom Dover (Juniors). The Frosh receiving numerals were: Kulbersh, Sugarman, Harris and Mauldin, forwards; Beard, center; Davis, Robertson and Holland, guards.

After the season the annual inter-organizational basket-ball tournament was held and the Chi Phi's gained their sixth consecutive victory.

FRESHMEN

The frosh presented a smooth working quintet throughout the season and as a reward for their fine play won the intra-mural championship. In Sugarman and Kulbersh, the champions possessed two of the leading point getters in the league. Don Beard at center, David and Robertson at guards complete the first team, while Holland, Harris and Mauldin proved capable reserves. The frosh were coached by Bill Dunn.
The Lawyer team played fine basket-ball throughout the campaign and were leading the field at the halfway mark. The barristers finished in a tie with the frosh and were defeated in the play-off for the championship. The team was greatly aided by Morgan, Cantey, leading scorer, and Booshie Turman, stellar guard, Maddox, Ben Conyers, Alston, Gaines and Parks rounded out the team.

Juniors

At the beginning of the season the Juniors appeared to be the potential champions as they returned five regulars from their last year's team. The team, coached by Sam Laird, started off at a fast pace, but slumped badly in their most important games. Nunn, Dover, Wiggins and McCay were awarded letters. Bagwell and Walker completed the Junior roster.
SENIORS

The Senior team possessed splendid material, but were unable to organize themselves into a team. In Hind and McGhee, the Seniors had two accurate shots. Wimberly, Thompson, Johnson and Zion were the other members of the quintet.

GRADS

On account of an insufficient number of Grads to compose a team, the Grads were forced to employ the aid of two freshmen to complete their team. The only Grads on the team were Sam Laird and Al Velcof, while Siegel and Rich, Freshmen, and Abelsky, Junior, completed the team. The Grads occupied undisputed possession of the cellar, winning only one game during the entire season—a forfeit from the Theologs.

SOPHS

The Sophs were the real “dark horses” of the league. They displayed championship form in several contests and were aided considerably by the shooting of Chris Conyers and Carleton Collar. Sledd, Jones, Sammons and Burke completed the squad which was coached by Gene Hauck.
With several veterans returning from their championship machine of last year, the Meds were expected to wage a hard fight with the Juniors for the championship, but due to insufficient practice the "docs" fared badly and finished in a tie for fifth place. At the end of the season they displayed a return to their form of play which before had led them to a championship. Greenberg, Neighbors, Logue, Stevens, Stephenson and Freedman composed the squad.

THEOLOGS

The Preachers ran true to form during the campaign and finished in seventh place with three victories and eleven defeats. Their outstanding feat was their defeat of the Lawyer quintet. The Theologs and the Grads waged a merry battle for last place, the Grads winning easily.
BASEBALL

At the completion of the first half of the regular baseball season, May 2, the Med nine was leading the league, one game ahead of the Juniors and Freshman Meds, who were tied for second place. Of the remainder of the seven teams who composed the league this year, there was no outstanding nine, all four being bunched closely together in fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh positions.

Carlisle Taylor, assisted by W. C. Millsap, together with a number of Freshman assistants, carried out the baseball program with noteworthy efficiency.

Many good games have been played this year, but as this goes to press there seems to be no team able to catch the league-leading Meds. The Freshman Meds should win out over the Juniors for the second-place position. The Sophomores will most likely wind up in fourth place, followed by the Freshmen, Senior-Theologs, and Lawyers.

MEDS

Sam Work, Morgan Driscoll, and Ed McLennon are their best pitchers. Fridge and Lange alternate as the receiving half of the best battery in school. Gene Hauck and Robert Gilliam are two good hitters. The pitchers' hitting has won a few games, too. Best infield in school, and a hard-hitting outfield.
“Rat” Davis pitched this team to many victories. Molly Friedman handled the pitchers well. Bruce Logue, Arthur Marshall, Arthur Primsner, and Bill Cromartie made up the infield. Neighbors and Green were two heavy-hitting outfielders. These boys were late in starting, but when they were organized, they gave the opposition plenty of competition.

Had heavy hitters and a good pitcher, but were erratic in the field. Ben Conyers was the fast-ball artist; Oscar Kelley, the catcher, had a good arm and a fine batting eye. Henry Alston, Johnny Maddox and Alexander Gaines were the heaviest stick wielders.
SENIOR-THEOLOGS

The two teams combined when the Theologs disorganized. Merriwether Ficklen was an outstanding pitcher and a heavy hitter. Bill Dunn, besides being one of the leading batters in school, had very few bases stolen on him as this team's catcher. Team had good hitters but were weak in the field. Herman Weston, and Cecil Heiner were also heavy hitters.

JUNIORS

Were one of the favorites in the pre-season dope, and they ran true to form. Bill Mackey was their best pitcher; Tom Dover was the other half of the battery—he was a good hitter, too. Francis Nunn, Fred Bading, Jack Cannon, and Bob Wiggins were in the infield. Charlie Pack was the heavy-hitting outfielder.
Sophomores

This team had fine material and should wind up no less than fourth place. Tom Bailey and Chris Conyers were two good fast-ball pitchers. They were also two of the heaviest hitters in school. Pete Head received them behind the plate. Joe Flournoy and Oscar Ham were on their toes in the outfield, and Conger and "Fuzzy" Redmond played well in the infield.

FRESHMEN

B. H. Dillard, Emanuel Kulbersh, and Earl Mauldin were their pitchers. Nat Klausman and Wesley Slate alternated behind the plate. Don Beard, Leonard Seligman, Ed Everitt, and Fred Hammond composed a fast infield. Allen Alexander was the best outfielder in the lot. Hammond, Beard, and Dillard were the team's leading hitters.
SWIMMING

Emory's swimming team had a very mediocre year. Teams from other schools were met, including Georgia, Clemson, Auburn, and Maryville.

In the Interorganization meet the winners of first place were the S. A. E.'s, with the Chi Phi's taking second and Kappa Alpha third.

An All-Campus meet was held and also a Varsity-Freshman meet. The Freshmen had a light season, engaging only Tech High and the Tech Freshmen.

The Freshman star of this year was Dulaney Fitch, who did well in the backstroke and the dashes. Jimmy Campbell was very good in the backstroke and dashes. Johnny Maddox was the best man in diving. Levering Neely showed up unusually well in the breaststroke.

TENNIS

THE EMORY TENNIS TEAM has progressed by ups and downs throughout the season. Victories and defeats were intermingled. Emory's net-men encountered the players of Union College, Davidson College, Florida, Alabama, Mercer, University of Chattanooga, and Georgia Tech. The team was coached by Milo Potucek, Atlanta tennis professional.

VARSITY TEAM RANKING

1. Nick Polites 4. Frank Morrison
2. Jack Boykin 5. Chris Conyers

The Freshman team played Decatur High, Georgia Freshmen, Baylor, Tech High, and Boys High. At the time of going to press the Freshmen were undefeated.
EMORY'S GOLF TEAM had a very successful season, taking easy wins from the University of Richmond, Miami University, University of Florida, and the University of Tennessee. Post-season matches were played with University of Georgia, and Davidson College.

This is the third consecutive year that Bobby Chambers has played number-one position. Joe Horacek, Epps Brown, and Albert Stubbs were the other members.

ALMA MATER

In the heart of dear old Dixie,
    Where the sun doth shine,
There is where our hearts are turning,
    Round old Emory's shrine.

CHORUS

We will ever sing thy praises,
    Loyal sons and true;
Hail thee now, our Alma Mater,
    Hail the Gold and Blue.

Though the years around us gather,
    Crowned with love and cheer,
Still the memory of old Emory,
    Grows to us most dear.

ENGLISH

WHOM have we here?
We have Tommy.
What is Tommy doing?
He is looking out of the window.

Why is he looking out of the window?
Good only knows.

Does Tommy speak with an English accent?
Yes.

Why is that?
He was in England once for two months.

Does Tommy play a violin?
No.

Then why is his hair so long?
He likes it that way.

Does anyone else?
No.

BEAUTY

WHAT is this?
This is a beauty section.

What is that?
It is a group of young, women's photographs which seems necessary to the complete yearbook.

Are they beautiful?
No.

Why the name?
It is one of those things.

Who picks the beauty section?
The annual staff votes on it and the editors select it.

On what basis are the beauties picked?
No one knows.

Why is a beauty section?
Same answer.

WHAT's wrong with these sentences?
1. Miss Jemison smiled and said, "That's all right, boys. Go right on talking, but speak in a lower tone."
2. "Georgia's county unit system is a model for the entire United States," said Goosey Gosnell during one of his interesting and informative government lectures.
3. "You amuse me greatly, gentlemen," smiled Charles Lester in his usual cheery manner.

PHILLIP

THE STORY OF PHILLIP

1. Phillip was a model child.
2. As a toot he always played with the nearest children.
3. His hair was always neatly combed.
4. He was always polite to his elders.
5. He never did anything that was not exactly right.
6. As a youth he won declamation contests and stood high in his classes.
7. As a young man he was a model of propriety and conservatism.
8. Then he came to Emory.
9. Dr. English was pointed out to him.
10. Now he writes poems, eats pencils and lets his hair grow.
11. He never buttons his shirt and speaks with a drawl.
12. He is known as the campus maniac and would-be genius and doesn't seem to care.

MORAL: "As the twig is bent" is a lot of hooey.

GOSNELL

WHO is that?
That is Goose Gosnell.

What is he doing?
The Goose is lecturing.
To whom is he lecturing?
He is lecturing to future governors of Georgia.

What is he talking about?
The county unit system.
Will that make them governors of Georgia?

It never has.
Is it important?
No.

Is the Goose important?
See above.

GLEE CLUB

WHAT have we here?
We have the Emory Glee Club.
What is that?
That is an organization composed of the outstanding young men of Emory.

Outstanding in what way?
We'd rather not say.
Who directs this group?
Dr. Malcolm H. Deoey.
Who is that?
One of Tarzan's little helpers.

Does he like the boys in the Glee Club?
Yes.

Does anyone else?
No.

What is a University?

CALLING a group of buildings a University doesn’t make it a University.

A University must have money, men, ideals, and standards. Money for buildings, equipment, and operating expenses. Scholarly men — men whose love of learning is animated by an even greater love of God and man—for a faculty. Ideals of character and conduct which tend to develop the best in each individual student. Standards of training which insure that its students will receive what a University purports to give: instruction of the quality accepted and approved by the highest accrediting agencies.

In addition, a real University must have research facilities through which its scholars may strive to extend the boundaries of human knowledge; it must also provide extension courses through which any earnest man or woman may obtain the advantages of University training by correspondence or by afternoon and evening study.

To be a University in every sense of this definition is Emory University’s purpose.

E M O R Y U N I V E R S I T Y
ATLANTA     GEORGIA
Emory University was the scene of a very colorful event yesterday afternoon when the annual May Day Fete was presented on the new greensward in the rear of the gymnasium. Miss Jane McCord, teacher of physical culture, directed the entire program.

First to enter was the Queen of the May, Miss Alice Waldo Jones, accompanied by the following members of the Court: Misses Tommie Brumby, Lucy Thomson, Florence Truitt, Elia Evans, Tommie Scott, Jamie Harris, Wannie Roberts, Hattie Wiygul, Alberta Turner, Julian Stone, and Caroline Long.

After the Queen had flitted to her throne and lit, she was suitably crowned with a wreath of hydrangeas. The first dance presented was the Spring Dance. The Emory Little Symphony Orchestra played Mendelsohn's Spring Song as the dancers, led by Jon Rooney, tripped lightly over the grass. The other dancers were Jonnie Maddox, Della Fitch, Alberta Stubbs, Fannie Shropshire, Jackie Peebles, Marian Coley, Winnie Newman, Benita Anderson, and Dezie Davis.

To the gentle strains of the Hunting Song, the next group of young ladies whisked across the scene and galloped through their routine. They were given a big hand on the conclusion of their canter as the audience voiced its approval. The title to this number was "Dansant des Chevaux" and the following terpsichoreans participated: Hallie Canning, Sis Abernathy, Jacqueline Bagwell, Billie Mackey, Wilena Love, Charlotte Patterson, Wilhelmina Hightower, Willie Lee Starr, Edwina Matlin, Wallie Wilson, Josephine Horacek, Troy Bivins, and Willa Dunn. Much credit should be given these young ladies for the delicate way in which they executed the difficult steps, ranging all the way from the single-foot to the trot.

Next was presented the Dance of the Glow-worms, in which all the dancers wore sequins so that they would sparkle more in the glancing rays of the sunlight. These dancers entered on the run, singing and shouting nondescript sentences about their prowess in combat on dance floors, class rooms, and athletic fields, and deputations. These dancers were the following: Raymond Starr, Georgia Carroll, Leona Wachtel, Blondie Lange, Louise Wesley, Jasmine Lester, Sheila Kitchings, Rae Dellinger, Georgia Smith, Elvira Neely, and Pueblo Casales.

At the conclusion of this dance the following teachers poured tea: Mesdames Green, Brinkley, Harvey, Guy, and McLean.

APPRECIATION

For several years now, the general attitude of the student body has been that of an indifferent group, showing no interest whatsoever except that manifested by a random complaint or two. If any thought is ever given to willingly cooperating with the staff, it is most securely hidden. Few seem to realize that THE CAMPUS is alive, ever assuming that form which will best portray and record the activities and achievements of the students themselves. It is essential to acquire this cooperation in order to publish a successful book. Fortunately, there have been a few who have awakened from this prevalent lethargy and have willingly cooperated with the staff. To these, I am gratefully indebted.

To the members of the editorial staff who have labored hard in getting together the material for this edition, I sincerely express my thanks, and hope that future editors will ever find an equally cooperative staff. Individually, I wish to thank Tom Brumby for his invaluable suggestions concerning the art work, and John A. Griffin for his constant support and his knack of taking good pictures. To Miss Hilley, Miss Odum, and others who have shown an infinite patience and an ability always to find the right information, I express my deepest appreciation. Dr. Steadman, who was ever ready to assist, deserves profuse thanks for his assistance in proofreading this book.

No annual could be successfully published without technical advice and suggestions from those who have had a great deal of experience in this work. The editor is grateful for this opportunity to thank Charlie Young, of the Foote & Davies Company, the printers; Walt Dargan and Miss Poteat, of the Wrigley Engraving Company, the engravers; Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, of the Elliotts' Peachtree Studio, the photographers; and A. A. Lubersky, of the S. K. Smith Company, the cover producers, for their constant and untiring efforts which have been most essential in publishing the 1934 CAMPUS.

MERRIWETHER FICKLEN.
