This is Emory University, compressed into four hundred pages of glossy paper and printer's ink, as we seek to recapture some of the moments that made this year worth living, and most of all, worth remembering.

The challenge and stimulation of being part of a changing university, evaluating its position and planning for its role in the future.
The diversion of an unexpected mid-winter snow . . . an excuse to put away the books for a time and get on a sled (cafeteria tray), or just sit inside by a roaring fire.
The beginning of a new quarter. The mixed feelings lamenting the shortness of the vacation, but with a certain satisfaction of getting back into the routine and the chance to begin anew.
When there is time to think. The pressure off, one can be alone, and there is an opportunity to ponder, to consider, to think through.
The 1964 Campus Is Proudly Dedicated to
There are some rare individuals who are able to view the broad horizons of higher education with vision and imagination while retaining a warm personal interest and concern with the people and problems of the present. Such a man is Judson Clements Ward Jr., vice-president and dean of the faculties at Emory.

A native of Marietta, Judson Ward took his bachelor's and master's degrees at Emory and his Ph.D. at the University of North Carolina. An outstanding teacher and writer in the field of history, he has taught at Birmingham Southern College and at the U.S. Military Academy. His flair for administration took him from the teaching ranks and, at the age of 35, he became president of Georgia Teachers College and later assistant chancellor of the University System in Georgia. He was named dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Emory in 1948 and elected vice-president and dean of the faculties in 1957.

During 1962-63 while Emory searched for a president, Dr. Ward was a member of the three-man committee who administered the University. Called by a colleague "the working member of the Troika," Judson Ward handled the business of the President's Office with wisdom and judgment. Under his leadership, Emory emerged from a difficult year strong and progressive. And, with all the responsibility placed at his door, "Jake" Ward always took time for students. He gave a friendly welcome to individuals and spent many hours addressing groups and organizations. Throughout that year of pressures and problems, Vice-President Ward never lost his sparkling sense of humor.

His greatest pride has been in Emory's students and he has publicly commended them on many occasions. He added a new dimension to formal graduation ceremonies by taking a moment to address graduating seniors and to express his pleasure at their achievements and the University's interest in them as individuals. Twice in the past, in 1951 and again in 1957, he has been chosen honorary senior by graduating classes.

We are here to learn...

Our todays and yesterdays are the blocks with which we build.

And nothing, not God, is greater to one than one's self is...

And there is no trade or employment but that the young man following it may become a hero.
And there is no object so soft but that it may become a hub for the wheeled universe.

Something new added to the Dooley’s Frolics weekend this year was a student-faculty barbecue sponsored by the sophomore class. Held at the Lullwater Estate, it provided a needed break between the lawn displays and the street dance.
FRIDAY NIGHT STREET DANCE
The witty and versatile Smothers Brothers provided an enjoyable afternoon at the concert sponsored by the College Council.
Hank Ballard and the Midnighters entertained Saturday night, at the annual Dooley's Frolics Dance, held this year in Cox Hall.

During intermission, Chip Baker, an Emory student and folk singer, performed for the enjoyment of all those attending the dance.

Awards and Presentations

Two annual awards made at the Saturday night dance are the Most Outstanding Junior Award, and the Dooley's Derby Award.

Dooley's Derby was presented to Joe Massey for meritorious service to Emory by Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity.

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity made the Most Outstanding Junior Award to Ben Shapiro, as the Junior contributing the most to the university.

Kathryn Brown, Miss Emory for 1963, was also presented at the dance.

Activities
The Brittain Award is given annually in the name of Marion Luther Brittain. In the words of the award itself, "This award is made each year to a student who has rendered notable service to the University. It is intended especially to give public and permanent expression to the University's gratitude for service done without expectation of reward or recognition."

The committee for the selection of the recipient of the award is composed of the Deans of Men and Women and representative faculty members who review the recommendations submitted by students and faculty. The formal presentation of the award is made at Honors Day in the spring, when the person being honored first learns of his having been chosen.

Phi Beta Kappa, founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776, is the oldest national honorary society in the United States. The Emory chapter, Gamma of Georgia, was chartered on September 11, 1928.

The purpose of Phi Beta Kappa is to encourage learning and achievement in colleges and universities.

Based upon outstanding scholarly attainment, the range and character of courses selected, and a consideration of the moral character of the student, and his general promise to the world, membership in Phi Beta Kappa is bestowed upon students having a 3.5 average after their first three years in college or a 3.25 average after the fall or spring quarter of their senior year.
Past Electives to DVS

DVS, the Senior Honor Society, was founded on the old Oxford, Georgia campus in the spring of 1900; since then it has represented the highest honor that can be given to a student at Emory University. Moreover, the Senior Honor Society has long stood for the things which make Emory a great university, the success of the university as a whole is the success of the Society. The members of the Society have always been a secret society of men, all of whom have a reputation for outstanding scholarship, ability and character. The purpose of the Society is to give recognition to students who have shown themselves to be outstanding in their studies and who have lived up to the high standards set by the Society.

DVS has been in existence since its founding, the active members of the Society have chosen from the junior classes of the College of Arts and Sciences and the School of Business Administration, seven men to succeed each. Each man in their senior year, is considered for election. Since the Society seeks to serve Emory, it chooses men with that sort of interest and character to represent the purposes of the Society. Those traits are a deep-rooted interest in Emory and a willingness to work and bring about a change for the better. This interest willingness and capacity are recognized in outstanding graduates who are chosen by the Society for their contributions to Emory and its activities.

Emory, since its founding, has been a secret society, from which the active members of the Society have chosen its officers and from which the Society has chosen its representatives to the general student body. The Society has always been known as the secret society, and its members have been known only to those who have been elected to membership. The Society is not recognized by the Administration of the University, and its activities are not officially recognized.

WHO, the Women's Honor Organization, was established on the Emory campus in May 1954; it represents the highest honor which can be granted to a woman while she is a student at Emory University. WHO represents those things which make Emory a great University. It was organized to recognize and encourage women students in the fields of leadership, scholarship, character, and service; to promote a closer understanding between the Administration and the students; to serve the community; and to cooperate with the faculty and other organizations of the University.

To be eligible for membership in the Women's Honor Organization, an Emory coed must be a last quarter junior or a senior. She must have not only demonstrated the outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, and service; but she also must have fulfilled the ideals set forth in the Emory Honor Code and the unwritten standards of the Emory Woman.

Tapping ceremonies are held in the fall and spring quarters with a public installation ceremony. The privilege of being in WHO is not merely a reward for past accomplishments; it is a challenge to do greater and better things for the University.
Omicron Delta Kappa, leadership society for men, was founded on December 3, 1914 at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia.

The two-fold purposes of ODK are to honor those Emory men who have demonstrated leadership in student affairs and to serve the University. Through its annual leadership workshop for high school students and by meeting on a common plane with members of the faculty and administration to solve mutual problems, ODK performs a valuable service for Emory.
Eta Sigma Psi, founded on the Emory campus in 1928, strives to encourage and recognize student leadership at the lower division level. The purposes of the organization are to create within the students an interest in extracurricular activities which are beneficial to the University and to honor those students active in such areas. Election to membership is based upon the leadership, character, and scholarship of the student.
Alpha Epsilon Upsilon, founded at Emory-at-Oxford in 1906, is the lower division scholastic honor society. Patterned after Phi Beta Kappa AEU recognizes scholastic achievement among freshmen who have a 3.5 average at the end of their third quarter and sophomores who have a 3.25 at the end of their fourth or fifth quarter. Moral character and promise of contribution to the world are also requirements.
Wheels
Each year a number of students are chosen by the dean of each school in the university to be honored as Emory Wheels. To be nominated for this honor, a student must have contributed in an outstanding manner to some aspect of campus life.

Student Senate

The Student Senate is the governing and coordinating organization for the entire student body, with representatives from each of the eight schools which compose Emory University. The Student Senate, however, is also composed of students who are not elected but who are active on the Senate committees. According to the preamble of the Senate's Constitution, the purpose of the Student Senate is "to achieve a more perfect government, to develop the best interests of the University and to satisfy the current and future needs for control of the various student activities."
College Council

College Council is the representative governing body of the College, with members being elected from each class in the spring and fall of each year.

During the year the Council sponsors various activities. This year they held a reception for President Atwood, sponsored a Hootenanny, the teacher evaluation survey, a mock GOP Convention, and Dooley's Frolics.

House Council is a self-governing of undergraduate women's dormitories. Executive Council, in cooperation with Dean Rusk and other housing officials, is the coordinator for the six residence halls. The council handles all minor offenses and social activities, such as exam break parties. The officers of Executive Council, including dorm presidents, are elected in a mass meeting; representatives are elected in floor meetings for a member on each floor. Mrs. Moore is the advisor for each of the dorm councils.

Executive Officers: L. Bassett; C. Brannon; E. Way; S. Tanner; L. Bates; P. Winston; D. Baxter; G. Price; V. Pryor; J. Floyd; S. Wilson.

Freshman Advisors: S. Shaw; P. Franklin, Z. Dixon; S. Knight; D. Baxter; S. Rollins; L. Bates; B. Lindsay; H. Levine.

Women's House Council

House Council Representatives

The Men’s Residence Hall Council, under the guidance of Mr. Harry Cannon, is the governing body of the men's residence halls. Each hall elects its officers in the fall. The officers are Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Treasurer-Secretary, Social Chairman, and Sports Chairman. The Council enforces housing rules, and sponsors break parties and sports competition between the residence halls.

The Student Center Board is the planning and coordinating body of all programs and activities in the Student Center, as well as being the sponsor of many other programs. This year the Board presented a speaker’s program on International Communism, a film series, a jazz concert, the Intercollegiate Tournaments with bowling, chess, table tennis, billiards, and bridge, and produced the student telephone directory.

The biggest and most admirable achievement was the presentation of the Creative Arts Festival, a week of programs with representatives from six fields of the creative arts. In addition to this, an interesting exhibition of paintings from many Atlanta galleries was open all week for the public. The week’s entertainment included Vance Packard, the Turnau Opera Company, The Kaleidoscope Players, Sabicus, Cannonball Adderly, and Bob Dylan.
The Women's Student Association is the coordinating body of all women's student organizations. All women in the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business, and the School of Nursing are automatically members of the Women's Student Association. Its purpose is to strive to promote the intellectual, social and spiritual welfare of all women students as well as to establish better relations between students, Faculty and Administration.

The WSA Executive Council is composed of the four WSA officers, two representatives from each class, and the Presidents of WHO, WAA, Chorale, Panhellenic Council, Association of Women's Residence Halls and the Student Body of the School of Nursing. This Council promotes and plans the various projects undertaken throughout the year.

Publications
An accurate portrayal of Emory University, its life, its growth, and its people, was the goal of the 1964 Campus. Under the editorship of Al Wight, the staff has worked hard, through the usual headaches and mix-ups, to present a yearbook that will be meaningful to all Emory students.

Aided by the very capable photography of Darrell Thompson and the support of those listed in the advertising section, this book goes to the Taylor Publishing Company with the hope that it will be enjoyed by Emory students now and in later years as a pleasant reminder of their college days.
Arlene Bucklew instructs Ellen Holder and Joan Charlton in the use of the scaleograph.

Now in its 45th year of publication, "The South’s Most Independent Collegiate Newspaper" has been awarded the All-American rating, the highest recognition given by the Associated Collegiate Press, twenty-three times since 1937.

The Wheel this year was under the leadership of Dave Aiken, the first full-time Emory co-ed to be editor of the paper.

The Wheel expresses itself in battling campus institutions and practices that it believes need to be modernized or eliminated. It receives both praise and criticism on its stands by students and faculty, but its popularity can not be doubted, as illustrated by the rapidity with which the issues are taken up by the Emory community.

Glee Club
Women’s Athletic Association

The Women’s Athletic Association organizes and manages the athletic program for Emory women. The organization attempts to promote interest in athletics and good sportsmanship as well as encouraging a high level of athletic achievement. Members are chosen from each sorority and independent group on campus.

WAA Representatives: Sary Ellington, Dell Fleming, Beth Wilson, Margaret Chase, Susan Dungan, Lillis Turner, Barbara Batho, Carol Thigpen, and Kathy Moorehead.

Circle K

Circle K, a service organization, each year sponsors Senior Day, a program established for high school seniors accepted by Emory, and attended by students from all over the South, as well as other parts of the nation. Circle K also provides ushers for various programs on campus.

Officers, Seated: Ed Rainey, President, Woody Turner, Executive Board Member. Standing: John Reese, Treasurer; Tom Chamblin, Vice-president; Dub Leake, Secretary.
Delta Kappa, the Emory chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, was established in 1946. A national service fraternity, APO’s ideals are friendship, leadership, and service. As one means of fulfilling these ideals, APO sponsors a Pretty Girl-Ugly Man Contest to raise funds for charity.

This winter quarter the Delta Kappa chapter sponsored an APO convention, held at Emory, and representing APO chapters from schools throughout the entire Southeast.

Alpha Phi Omega

Officers are Kim Kimball, Secretary; Perry Cohn, 1st Vice-Pres.; Bill Kemp, 2nd Vice-President; Jerry Drummond, Treasurer; Fred Miller, President; and Ira Pozen, Historian.

Collegiate Civitan

The Emory Collegiate Civitan Club was organized Spring Quarter, 1963. Already the club has participated in many Emory activities and service projects. Among these are assisting with the Creative Arts Festival and the Student Coke Lounge, and selling fruit cakes. The group is enthusiastic and capable, always willing to be of service to the Emory community.

Officers: Eddie Able, Lilly Grace Matlock, Gene Matlock.
The Emory Players

In their thirty-fifth dramatic season, the Emory Players justified their long and glorious tradition with stirring presentations of "The Prodigal" and "The Importance of Being Earnest." The long hours of preparation by cast and production staff were fulfilled in these very successful productions, and were evident to the appreciative audiences.

Membership in the Players is open to all Emory students, and interested persons are urged to participate.

The Barkley Forum’s position is better today than ever before. The team has ten proven varsity debaters, giving the Forum the greatest depth of any team in the South. The members of the Forum have debated a total of 249 times interscholastically. Emory has won 177 of these debates for a win percentage of .711, one of the top records among southern teams.

The Forum each year holds two tournaments on the Emory campus: The Annual Peachtree Invitational Debate Tournament for colleges, with more than 200 debaters in attendance, and the Annual Barkley Forum for high schools of the Southeastern United States, with more than 300 high school debaters competing. The high school meet is generally considered the best of its kind in the nation.

The Forum’s efforts are directed toward representing Emory well, and the record of the team shows that it is succeeding.

Emory
Religious Association

As the interfaith union of all religious groups on campus, the Emory Religious Association seeks to coordinate activities stimulating the growth and expression of religious life within the Emory community. The directing body of the ERA is its council, composed of a community chairman and representatives from all affiliated denominational groups, fraternities, and sororities. The Reverend Sam L. Laird has again served as advisor to the council this year.

Annual activities sponsored by the ERA and its cooperating affiliates have been: Religious Emphasis Week, a special Christmas program, Brotherhood Week, a spring banquet, Holy Week Services, and an Easter Sunrise Service.

Denominational organizations affiliated with ERA are: the Baptist Student Union, sponsored by Mr. Dwight Pearce; Canterbury Club, sponsored by Father Robert H. Manning; Christian Medical Society; Graduate Christian Fellowship; Hillel, advised by Mr. Adalbert Freedman; Liberal Club; Newman Club, sponsored by Father Alvin Matthews; Wesley Fellowship, advised by the Reverend Lon Chesnutt; and Westminster Fellowship, sponsored by the Reverend Emmett Herndon.

WHAT ARE WE LOSING?
New sport now under consideration by the athletic department . . .
On September 1, 1963, the administration of Emory was taken over by Dr. Sanford S. Atwood. The choice of Dr. Atwood as Emory’s new president had been made by a committee of nine men from a list composed of over a hundred names, with his selection being voted on by the Board of Trustees. Dr. Atwood is a native of Wisconsin, and received his Ph.D. in plant cytology from the University of Wisconsin. He joined the faculty Cornell University in 1944 and became Dean of the Graduate School in 1953. Until coming to Emory, President Atwood served as provost at Cornell since 1955. Dr. Atwood’s inauguration which took place in November 1963 on the Quadrangle was only the second formal inauguration in the history of Emory as a University.

A UNIVERSITY IS MORE THAN A COLLEGE . . . its College of Arts and Sciences is the nucleus of highly developed graduate and professional schools, towards which students may develop special interests for advanced study.

IT IS PEOPLE . . . the most important of whom are talented faculties, and interested, aspiring students, engaged in a common pursuit of knowledge.

IT IS AN ENVIRONMENT . . . classrooms, libraries, laboratories, residence halls, cultural and recreational facilities, brought together as a center of learning.

IT IS A SPIRIT . . . the most important elements of which are curiosity, freedom of inquiry, creative endeavor, encouragement to excel, to grow, to lead . . . to seek truth.

IT IS A FORUM FOR IDEAS . . . an atmosphere in which new and old ideas and theories are open to deeper consideration, and in which the student assumes increased responsibility in reaching his own conclusions.

IT IS A COMMUNITY OF CHALLENGE . . . anxious to stimulate its students to the heights of present knowledge and human understanding, and instill in them a lifetime desire to seek further.

IT IS NOT AN END UNTO ITSELF . . . it is a realm of striving, not divorced from the world about it, but urging its students to face the problems of that world, preparing themselves with a deeper awareness of who they are and where they stand.

— Progress

At present a fifty million dollar building program is underway, some of it actually being built by the university, the rest because of it.

Wesley Woods Retirement Home will be located near Emory.

Other projects which will increase and enhance the Emory complex are the Veterans Administration Hospital, an addition to the Communicable Disease Center, and a new motor hotel for the convenience of visitors to Emory.

Chat at Phi Chi Ground Breaking Ceremonies

Projects which directly concern Emory are the Georgia Mental Health Institute, which will be directed by the Emory Department of Psychiatry, a new addition to Woodruff Memorial Building, and a new Phi Chi Medical Fraternity House.
Construction of new Graduate Dormitory.

Proposed Yerkes Primate Center.

Ground Breaking for Primate Center

Among the projects Emory is undertaking are also included a new air conditioned dormitory for graduate and professional students, another research building for the medical staff at Grady Hospital, and the Yerkes Regional Primate Center.

In 1956 Yale gave the Primate Center to Emory and in 1963 the university received a grant to transfer the laboratories from Orange Park, Florida to Atlanta. The center should be complete in 1965 and will house the largest confined colony of Chimpanzees in the world.
As another birthday passes, let it not be another year to add to the obsolescence of Emory, but one to add to its maturity; its enduring strength—to lead the way in the field of education.

We must grow with Emory and make progress in whatever we do—

—SERIOUSLY—
Perhaps with enough maturity and progress, the student may even shed the confining chains of nebulous animosity so prevalent in the university and develop a sense of sincere loyalty and devotion to his

ALMA MATER.

Business School

The threefold obligation of the Business School, to the student, to business, and to itself, form the basis of the policy and objectives of the school.

The School of Business Administration aims to develop intellectual and professional competence in business management. The school provides professional education on the university level for positions of responsibility in business, emphasizing fundamental concepts of business affairs.

A two-year program, following two years of satisfactory college work, is offered by the school, leading to a degree of Bachelor of Business Administration.

The Business School also takes an active part in the placement of its graduates, immediately following graduation and in later years. The Placement Office maintains an extensive file of information on both students and positions, in order to be of maximum service to both.

On the graduate level, the School offers a professional program leading to the degree of Master of Business Administration. This program is open to graduates of colleges of commerce and business administration and to students whose undergraduate education has been in liberal arts, science or other fields of study.

Business seeks to recruit young people who give promise of qualifying for places of responsibility in management. The demand is for those who not only have some vocational skills but also have a sound education in the fundamentals of business.

The M.B.A. program at Emory University is designed to provide a broad professional training. Its aim is to acquaint the student with the theory, the principles and the technique of analysis, organization, planning and control common to all business. It does not pretend to be a complete substitution for training in specific routine tasks which can best be acquired in business itself. However, through the use of case materials based on actual business situations and in courses dealing with detailed business functions the student is particularly well prepared to benefit from his future on-the-job experience.

The Emory University School of Dentistry was founded September 1, 1944 through the acquisition of the Atlanta-Southern School of Dentistry. This school in turn had resulted from a merger in 1917 of The Southern Dental College, founded in 1887, and The Atlanta Dental College, founded in 1892. The school is now recognized by The American Dental Association, The American Association of Dental Examiners, The National Board of Dental Examiners, and the great majority of the State Boards. There are over 5,000 active Alumni on the School rolls.

The science of Dentistry is learned and practiced in many different buildings and clinics employed by the Dental School. Prominent amongst these are The DeLos L. Hill Memorial Clinic for Children, and The Joseph D. Osborne Memorial Clinic.

The Emory University School of Dentistry offers programs leading to the M.S.D. degree in oral surgery, oral pathology, periodontia, orthodontia, crown and bridge prosthetics, prosthodontic dentistry, and operative dentistry, besides the D.D.S. degree.

Honor Council

The Honor Council, composed of elected members of each class, serving for a four-year term, puts forth efforts to create a spirit of honor in the academic activities of the Dental School. If infraction of the standards of the honor code occurs, the council reviews the case and holds trial in attempting to maintain this stable honor system.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council governs the fraternity system in the Dental School. As the controlling group of the dental fraternities, the Interfraternity Council makes decisions in matters of common interest, and works to promote cooperation among the fraternities. It regulates the rushing system of the four fraternities involved. Composed of representatives from each fraternity, the IFC gives a dance each winter quarter.
Student Council

The Student Council functions not only bringing the students together socially by means of a dance held during winter quarter, but also in acting as a major liaison between the faculty and the student body of the Dental School. The Student Council also promotes a better understanding and a deeper personal contact between faculty members and students by a direct interchange of ideas.

Student American Dental Association

The Student American Dental Association is a special class of membership in the American Dental Association of students of dentistry. In the SADA students are invited to attend meetings of dental societies and receive the "Journal" of the American Dental Association.

The purpose of the SADA is to further the students professional training and to develop their understanding of the scope of dentistry in better meeting the health needs of the nation. The membership of the Emory University chapter is almost 100 per cent of the school's enrollment.

Alpha Delta Chapter of Alpha Omega Fraternity was founded in 1928 at Atlanta Southern Dental College. The Fraternity's national membership has grown to over ten thousand since its beginning in 1908 at the University of Maryland.

The chapter enjoyed a successful year, being well represented in the various activities of the Dental School. The Spring Formal provided the social highlight of the year. Mrs. Robert Jenko was selected as fraternity Sweetheart at this time. Numerous drop-ins, dances and banquets completed the social program for the year.

Delta Sigma Delta, oldest of the Dental Fraternities, was founded in 1882 at the University of Michigan. In 1921, Theta Theta Chapter was organized at Atlanta Southern Dental College. The fraternity objective is to keep high standards of dentistry by inculcating in the minds of Dental students and practitioners a spirit of fraternal cooperation toward scientific, ethical and professional progress.

Theta Theta Chapter has had a successful year with several informal parties. It has been quite active in school and extracurricular affairs.
Psi Omega

Psi Omega, founded at Baltimore College of Dental Surgery in 1892, was established locally in 1904 at the Atlanta Southern Dental College, which latter became Emory Dental School.

Gamma Tau Chapter enjoyed a successful year academically, athletically, and socially, having won the Interfraternity Scholarship trophy, and placing first in the Graduate League in softball. Socially, Psi Omega held a Christmas Party, the Winter Formal and the annual Spring Barbecue.
Xi Psi Phi

Xi Psi Phi Fraternity was founded at the University of Michigan in 1899 and Alpha Eta Chapter was organized in 1912. This year the fraternity pledge twenty-men during fall rush. Xi Psi members hold many positions of leadership in the Dental School.

The social calendar was headed by the annual spring formal and included a chapter party each month plus a house party during the fall.

Graduate School Sets Pace for the University

The epitome of learning in a university is the Graduate School. Students and faculty reach a closer relationship, and communication is at a peak. Fewer students than in undergraduate programs make possible a greater dissemination of knowledge to each individual mind. The creative abilities of faculty and student join, and the fusion of ideas causes new contributions to learning, new foundations for more theories in the future.

The Graduate School is the real community of scholars in the university. The Graduate School sets the tone, the pace for the other schools. The emphasis is beyond mere handing down of facts; it is in the realm of creativity. Masters' and doctoral students are conducting research; they are looking for new educational heights.

A new discovery may be just beyond the horizon for graduates. These researchers are working to reach it.

Graduate Students Begin Research in Library

A feeling of accomplishment and uncertainty is that of a graduate student. He has completed his baccalaureate and is going on to attain new heights in the academic world. When his mind is filled with knowledge, and he feels like he can discuss his subjects with fluency, a graduate student is ready for the next class; he has a sense of being prepared. But this sense of preparedness does not last long. After class it seems to disappear.

To keep supplementing the information stored away in his mind, the graduate student turns to one of the university libraries. When he enters, there is an emptiness in him that must be filled and he may not know how to begin to fill it. Through searching the tools at hand, he digests materials to satisfy the need. Each time he visits the library, he gains a new outlook; when he leaves, the sensation is one of new prominence.

Librarian in Training

When someone comes into a library, he asks the librarian for help. The librarian's work opens up new paths for inquiring minds by putting before them tools from which new knowledge and pleasure may be extracted.

Leland Madison Park is preparing to work in a college library. Like other graduate students, Leland's time is filled with assignments of many kinds. Written and oral comprehensive examinations precede his graduation in June, but Leland looks forward to becoming a professional librarian, a rewarding and fascinating occupation.
The School of Law of Emory University is named in honor of Associate Justice L. Q. C. Lamar of the Supreme Court of the United States, who served from 1888-1893. The Law School was founded in 1916, and was admitted to the Association of American Law Schools in 1920. When the American Bar Association initiated its classification of law schools in 1923, the Law School was approved as a "Class A" school. The Law School has also been approved by the Board of Governors of the Georgia Bar Association.

It is the aim of the Law School to prepare its graduates for the practice of law as a profession. Although the emphasis is on the education of graduates who will go into the private practice of law, this is a rapidly widening emphasis as more and more law graduates are becoming government attorneys and corporate counsel. It is the purpose of the Law School to qualify its graduates for the finest opportunities for legal service that can be anticipated for them, and to instill in them a sense of ethics of the highest professional order.

DEAN BEN F. JOHNSON
Student Bar Association

The student government of the Law School is in the hands of the Student Bar Association. The Student Bar Association has a Day Division and an Evening Division, each with a separate group of officers, except that there is a single president presiding over the entire organization. The Association is a member of the American Law Students Association which is an affiliate of the American Bar Association. The Student Bar Association sponsors an informal lecture series during the year, which brings to the students outstanding lawyers, judges, and persons prominent in government and civic affairs.
The Case Club

Each year sixteen students are invited to membership in the Case Club from among the students who have completed the course in Legal Research, Writing, and Advocacy, and from other similarly qualified students. These students team up in pairs to compete in a series of intraschool appellate arguments before a moot court. Each team is given "a record" of a hypothetical case on appeal, and is required to prepare a brief, develop an oral argument, and argue the case in an elimination competition with another team. The two surviving teams are brought together in a final argument each year as an important part of the Law School's annual observance of Law Day.

Officers of the Case Club are, First row: Allan Serby, President; Allan Rinzler, Clerk. Second row: Larry Jewett, Vice-President; Lamar Brannon, Vice-President.

Journal of Public Law

Since 1952 the Law School has published semi-annually the Journal of Public Law which is edited by advanced law students under the general direction of a faculty committee. The Journal is an international review devoted to law, government, and politics. Its contributors are philosophers, historians, economists, political and social scientists, lawyers, and legal scholars. Work on the Journal of Public Law staff includes the writing and editing of case notes by the students themselves.

Editors are Frank Bird, Associate Editor; Robert Ansley, Associate Editor; Dave Coker, Editor-in-Chief; Russell Grove, Associate Editor; and Thomas Harper, Student Writing Editor.

Honor Court

The Law School Honor Court seeks to uphold the principles found in the Emory Honor Code, and which are also found as part of the Code of Ethics of the legal profession. The Honor Court deals with violations of academic and professional integrity found within the Law School. The Court is composed of the president of the Student Bar Association, three members from the Day Division of the Law School, and three members from the Evening Division.

Moot Court Team

The two teams which survived the intraschool moot court competition which was held last year were brought together in a final argument as an important part of the Law School's annual observance of Law Day last spring. The winning team then represented the Emory Law School this past fall in competition with teams from other law schools, in the Southeastern Regional Moot Court Competition.

Members of the Moot Court team are Lamar Brannon and Hilton Fuller.
Law Day

Law Day is a traditional event of the spring term, usually scheduled in late April or early May. It is sponsored by the Student Bar Association. It serves, at one and the same time, as a local observance of "Law Day-U.S.A.," as a "homecoming day" for alumni, and as a "senior day" for the students. The program includes the final arguments of the Case Club Competition, a barbecue at noon, an address by an outstanding legal figure, and a banquet and dance in the evening at which honors and awards are presented. The speaker for Law Day 1963 was Justice Tom Clark of the United States Supreme Court.

Medicine
The goal of the Emory University of Medicine is to offer a sound educational program that will allow its graduates to develop in the area of their own choosing, be it general practice, specialty practice, teaching, research, or medical administration.

On the campus, the Medical School's facilities are found in the Anatomy, the Physiology and the Woodruff Memorial Buildings. In addition, junior and senior medical students are given assignments in the Emory University Hospital and in the Henrietta Egleston Hospital for Children. The Veteran's Administration Hospital of Atlanta is also used for teaching and new facilities for this hospital near the main campus are now under construction. However, the main base of clinical instruction is at the Grady Memorial Hospital in downtown Atlanta.

In these four hospitals, where the students and faculty work with patients, there are over 1500 beds. This involves a serious responsibility but also a wide opportunity for excellent clinical instruction and for medical research. In addition to the medical students, interns and residents continue their training under the direction of the Medical School’s clinical departments.

Before a medical student begins work with patients in a hospital, he must be thoroughly grounded in the basic health sciences. The departments which provide instruction in these fields (anatomy, biochemistry, microbiology, pharmacology and physiology) are, like the clinical departments, also engaged in a wide variety of research projects and work to push back the frontiers of knowledge and contribute to developments in medicine.

Step out of the elevator into the world of a medical student at Grady Memorial Hospital.

Many hours of study and research take place before a medical student reaches Grady and many more after he gets there.
There is some time for a medical student to relax, too, but during this time he usually can find other things to be doing or taking care of.

Medical students and nurses go on rounds to see and take care of patients.
Emory's medical school students give their patients their undivided attention to help restore the patients to their normal health.

The care of a doctor is present in all his work from the most elder person to the newly born baby.

In diagnosing a patient's illness much lab work is done by the doctor.
Medical students studying at Grady Hospital check a cardiograph.

Medical students keep in constant contact with their patients by checking lab reports and the patient’s records.
Nursing
The profession of nursing is most often symbolized by the cap. The Emory cap represents:

HONOR

TRUTHFULNESS

ENDURANCE

CHEERFULNESS, TOLERANCE
And lighter moments...
School of Nursing

The Emory School of Nursing has been a part of the University since 1944. The school offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Science degree and the Master of Nursing degree.

The Baccalaureate program runs for nine quarters and is available to students who have completed six quarters of a liberal arts education. Registered nurses are eligible to enter the masters program which runs for four quarters. This program trains the nurse to specialize in either Medical and Surgical, Public Health, or Psychiatric Nursing. The School of Nursing is under the direction of Dean Ada Fort.

Theology

The Candler School of Theology, a major division of Emory University, is one of the twelve official seminaries of the Methodist Church. The purpose of the School of Theology is the education of men and women for pastoral ministry and for other full-time service in the Christian Church. In seeking to provide a theological education of the highest quality, the curriculum is arranged in four general areas. These are designed to awaken the student to the best Biblical, historical, theological, and contemporary insight into the Christian faith and its implications for the work of the Church and the ministry. The degrees of Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Christian Education are offered by the School of Theology. The curriculum seeks to achieve its primary task, the professional training of the ministry. It seeks to develop mature, growing persons equipped with the basic knowledge and appropriate skills necessary to meet the exacting demands of the high calling which is theirs under God.

Theta Phi

Theta Phi is an Honor Society for theological students, scholars in the field of Religion, and outstanding religious leaders. The Society exists to encourage scholarship in Religion and to foster intellectual and ethical standards of the highest quality among religious leaders.
National Methodist Scholarship Winners

Each year two outstanding students are given National Methodist Seminary Awards. These are given on the basis of high academic standing and unusual promise of usefulness in a parish. The awards carry a $500 stipend and travel seminar to all boards and agencies of the Methodist Church.

Candidates for Master of Christian Education Degree

The M.C.E. Degree is designed for persons who are interested in serving as Directors of Christian Education in local churches and workers with students on denominational and state campuses.

Executive Council members are, top to bottom: Susan Knight, President; Dean Rusk; Phyllis Krolick, Secretary; Gail Gilson, Rush Chairman; Ann Soule, Vice-President; Judy Miller, Treasurer; and Ann Hutchins, Projects Chairman.

The Emory Panhellenic Council is the governing body of the sororities. It is responsible for setting policies and handling matters concerning the entire sorority system. The Panhellenic Council is composed of two representatives from each sorority. Officers of the Council are elected by a rotation system. During the year the Council sponsors many events including the Sing and fund raising projects.

The Interfraternity Council, as the governing body of the fraternity system, sponsors a workshop for fraternity officers, offers a scholarship to a fraternity man, supervises the Pledge IFC projects, handles fraternity discipline cases through the IFC Trial Committee, sponsors Greek Week, Dooley’s Frolics, and the IFC Sing.

Alpha Chi Omega

For Delta Iota Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega this has been another year of individual and group achievement in all areas of campus life. Fall Quarter the AXO’s were awarded the KA Best Sorority Trophy for all round excellence. Also they received the Sigma Chi and PanHellenic Council awards for scholarship. Athletically, the AXO’s were active, capturing first place in volleyball.

Alpha Chi’s campus activities included the Alpha Chi Capers, a Bridal Fashion Show, silver teas, and a quarterly used book sale. In connection with their national service project, the Alpha Chi’s gave parties for the children at the Cerebral Palsy Home.

The Social Calendar was highlighted by the Pledge Formal, slumber parties, fall house party, the spring combo party, and the Pledge and Initiation Banquets.

Individually, the members have been tapped for Women’s Honor Organization, Eta Sigma Psi, Alpha Epsilon Upsilon, Alpha Kappa Delta, and Kappa Delta Epsilon. Many sisters are active in College Council, the Chorale, the Wheel, the Student Center Board, Women’s Student Association, and House Council.
Delta Alpha of Alpha Delta Pi had a busy and successful year. Sisters can be found as members of WHO, Eta Sigma Pi and AEU. ADPi's participated in House Council, WSA, Collec Council, Stipe Scholars, Chorale, Student Senate, Career Scholars ERA, Freshman Advisors, and the Wheel. Alpha Delta Pi took first place in the APO Contest, Sadie Hawkins Day, and the Powder Puff Football Classic. The Presidents of WSA, WAA, Executive House Council, Panhellenic and the Emory Band are ADPi sisters.

Several honor organizations tapped ADPi's for membership. Other honors include sisters as the Georgia Tech Homecoming Queen, Tech Rambler Girl, Tech Blue Print Girl, fraternity sweetheart, sorority sweet heart court members, AFROTC Sponsor, Miss Emory Finalists, and class officers. At the 1963 ADPi National Convention, Delta Alpha received 5 awards for all around excellence.

The National Philanthropic Project of ADPi is working with Crippled Children. Delta Alpha participates through Penny-a-Day Banks, the Easter Seal Foundation, and the Swimming class at the Emory pool. ADPi also has a twelve year old foster child who lives in Greece.

The highlight of the social year is the Pledge Dance and Banquet.

Alpha Epsilon Phi

Epsilon Eta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Phi has enjoyed another prosperous year. The numerous and varied activities in which the sisters participated have all contributed to fostering a continually increasing spirit of sisterhood within the chapter. These activities include the annual publication of What's Where, quarterly visits to Aidmore Hospital, a Thanksgiving dinner for orphans, teas for fraternities at Emory and Georgia Tech, and open house every fall quarter, the annual spring formal, and several functions with the Atlanta Alumnae.

The sisters of Epsilon Eta Chapter have been active in practically all aspects of campus life and have been recipients of many outstanding awards and honors. Among the honors received by Alpha Epsilon Phi are Phi Beta Kappa, Women's Honor Organization, Phi Sigma Iota, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Phi Delta Epsilon, the French Government Prize, third place in ATO Sweepstakes, members of College Council, Freshman and Sophomore House Council, the Campus, Hillel Council, the Emory Religious Association, and fraternity court members.
Tau Zeta Chapter of Chi Omega has completed another enjoyable year of activities and honors. Sisters were members of Chorale, House Councils, Emory Players, International Relations Club, Student Center Board, and the various religious organizations.

The chapter won the first place trophy in the annual ATO Sweepstakes. They also won first place in the APO "Send a Mouse to College" Cancer Drive and placed third in the annual "Pretty Girl-Ugly Man" Contest.

Houseparties, picnics, slumber parties and banquets and teas with the alumnae were among the social events enjoyed by the chapter. Highlighting the year's activities were the fall dance given in honor of the pledges by the actives, and the annual White Carnation Formal.

The chapter's main projects were filling stockings for Sheltering Arms Children's Home and giving an Easter Egg Hunt for underprivileged children. Another project was the annual Social and Civic Service prize which was awarded by Chi Omega to the senior Emory woman who was most outstanding in the Social Science Department.
Delta Delta Delta

Alpha Omega Chapter of Delta Delta Delta has had another busy and successful year. The leadership of the chapter can best be seen in the many elected campus offices. Among the sisters of Tri Delta can be found elected members of the Executive House Council, as well as the freshman, sophomore, and junior branches; Women's Student Association; College Council; Traffic Court; Dorm Presidents; Class officers; Panhellenic Council and Freshman Advisors.

A Tri Delta was chosen Miss Emory for 1963. Other individual members have received such honors as the Dean's List, Stipe Scholar, Eta Sigma Psi and Alpha Epsilon Delta.

Tri Delta was well represented by having several girls on fraternity sweetheart courts. The Emory Chapters of Sigma Chi, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Tau Delta, and the Georgia Tech Chapter of Kappa Alpha now have sisters as their sweethearts.

The social calendar included a Founder's Day Banquet, Pledge Formal and other social events such as the Christmas Party.

Tri Delta's projects are the local Scholarship Fund, providing Christmas gifts for a needy family and an old clothes drive.

The Gamma Psi Chapter of Delta Gamma has had another successful year of fun and activity, with members participating in the Chorale, the Wheel, the Student Senate Board, the Student Nurses Association, Young Republicans, the Campus, Foreign Relations Club, and various religious organizations. The posts of Chorale secretary, and of Baptist Student Union Executive Council secretary are held by members.

Throughout the year the sorority takes part in different athletic competitions—volleyball and basketball—and has a member on the All-Star Volleyball Team.

Members in Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Epsilon Delta, and Alpha Epsilon Upsilon bring added honors to their sorority.

Delta Gammas enjoyed many social events this year such as the Harvest Dance, Christmas Party, Valentine Dance, and Pledge Dance and many teas and coke parties.

The service project of Delta Gamma is aiding the blind. Each week the sisters skate with blind children and at Christmas filled stockings for the children. The members also gave presents to needy children at Christmas.
Kappa Alpha Theta

Delta Zeta Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta has had another active and successful year. Service Projects such as weekly visits to the Atlanta Girls Club have greatly enriched the meaning of true sisterhood. Our national service project is the Institute of Logophetic. Delta Zeta seeks to find both a challenge and enjoyment in her activities. Both are readily encountered; enjoyment in such things as the Pledge-Active Retreat, the annual kite fly, Founder's Day Banquet, Spring Square Dance, and the Winter Pledge Formal. A challenge is found in achieving our scholastic goals and in living up to what is expected in regard to self-development and individual maturity. Many of our sisters have been honored by membership in various honor groups. Included among these are Women's Honor Organization, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Epsilon Upsilon, Eta Sigma Psi, Phi Sigma Iota, Kappa Delta Epsilon, and several others. In the past year Thetas have been recognized for their beauty. One of our sisters was named Miss Emory and several others were selected as sweetheart by the Tech and Emory fraternities.

Gamma Pi Chapter of Kappa Delta has had an active year. Sisters have been busy in sorority and in campus activities. Some of the organizations are Chorale, Student Center Board, the Campus, College Civitan Club, International Relations Club, Bend and Bar, Pan-Hellenic and House Council. In several of these Kappa Deltas hold offices.

Many of the sisters have been honored for their achievements. Women’s Honor Organization, Kappa Delta Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa have tapped Kappa Deltas this year. Several sweetheart courts and the Miss Emory finals have also included sisters. Of Honors Day KD’s received the Best Freshman Award and the Britain Award.

All the sisters have participated in the projects and social functions sponsored by the sorority. Founder’s Day and Initiation Banquets, informal parties and the White Rose Ball have been favorite events of the year. Study break parties, the pledge scavenger hunt, and the Christmas Party also added fun to the year. Weekly visits to Fairhaven School for Mentally Retarded Children and making educational toys for the children have also helped to make the chapter one of many diversified activities.
Kappa Kappa Gamma

Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma has enjoyed a very successful year. Major social projects included fall and spring houseparties, the annual pledge formal, and several banquets and teas. In addition, the pledge class sponsored a university-wide "Halloween Haunt." In our philanthropy, we found our work at a new branch of the Atlanta Girls' Club very pleasurable and rewarding.

Individually, Kappas have received many honors and responsibilities. Several have served as fraternity sweethearts and many have been named to sweetheart courts. Members were tapped into Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Epsilon Upsilon, Women's Honor Organization, Eta Sigma Psi, and Pi Delta Epsilon. Kappa also claimed the first woman editor of the Wheel, president of the freshmen advisors, president of the nursing school, secretary and treasurer of the sophomore class, and vice-president of WHO.

Other organizations represented in the group are College Council, House Council, Barkley Forum, ERA, the Campus Chorale, and the Emory Players. Kappas also participated in the Stipe Scholar and Ford Career Scholar Programs.

This year was another busy and successful one for Alpha Phi chapter of Phi Mu. Phi Mu's participated in community service projects by working at Eggleston Hospital and Aidmore Hospital.

Sisters were active in many campus organizations such as House Council, the Campus, Stipe Scholars, ERA, the Wheel, and the Barkley Forum. The Vice-President of the Players, the Secretary of Civitan as well as several officers in the Chorale are Phi Mu's. In the Panhellenic Sing, Phi Mu placed third.

Individually, Phi Mu's won many honors such as second place in the Alpha Chi Capers, finalists in the Miss Atlanta Pageant and winning the ATO Sweepstakes Beauty Contest for the second straight year. Phi Mu's are also members of fraternity sweetheart courts and the Pledge Sweetheart of Sigma Phi Epsilon at Georgia Tech is a Phi Mu.

Social functions of the chapter include the fall houseparty, the annual Enchantress Ball, along with the Founders' Day Banquet and spring Scholarship Banquet.

Alpha Epsilon Pi

Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity founded at Washington Square Campus of New York University on November 7, 1913. Epsilon, first Southern Chapter, founded at Emory in November, 1920.

We of Epsilon are a large group of people, a diversity of personalities and interests. You find among us scholars and athletes, those who enjoy classical music and rock 'n' roll enthusiasts. That is what makes us a great fraternity. That is what makes up Epsilon.

A E Pi successfully initiated the fall quarter by pledging thirty-nine “top” freshmen. The fraternity captured the Scholarship Trophy for the second consecutive year. Epsilon men were active in many extracurricular activities. A campus leader in scholarship, athletics, and extraeurriculars, Alpha Epsilon Pi continues to be one of the best fraternities on campus.

F. Leiter, G. Levie, B. Levin, J. Levin, P. Levine, J. Levitt, J. Mack, III.

For years A.T.O. at Emory has exemplified the national tradition of excellence established by the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity since its founding in 1865.

In 1963 A.T.O. was represented on every campus honorary, most campus publications, and throughout campus politics. Typical of A.T.O.'s all-around excellence was its rating of second in both athletics and scholarship among all gentile fraternities at Emory. A.T.O.'s were especially prominent in D.V.S., Phi Beta Kappa, ODK, Barkley Forum, the Phoenix and the Wheel.

Taus held the presidency of the Student Senate and Honor Council.

A.T.O. was outstanding athletically, placing in most interfraternity sports while winning track, wrestling, and cross-country. Taus were also prominent on the intercollegiate tennis, soccer, wrestling, and swimming teams.

The social highlight of the year was the Annual Orchid Formal at which Miss Susan Rollins was named Sweetheart of A.T.O., Alpha Theta chapter. Another event especially enjoyed was the joint party with the Georgia Tech and Auburn chapters.

In 1948 Beta Theta Pi again became active on the Emory campus. Since that time, Gamma Upsilon Chapter has been well represented in various campus activities, such as the Wheel, IFC, and athletics.

The biggest event of the 1963-64 school year was the Fifteenth Anniversary, held November 23. An Open House was held in the afternoon, and a banquet that night. The celebration was attended by President Atwood, and a large percentage of the administration and faculty.

Betas participated in the Empty Stocking Fund Drive, and held a Christmas party for underprivileged children.

Another feature of this year was the Annual Winter Formal, held in February.

Fraternity life at Gamma Chapter of Chi Phi has a special meaning to each brother. From Pledge Sunday to fall quarter finals, from the Winter Formal to spring sports, we work hard and play hard together.

We believe in the old-fashioned ideals of fraternity life because we have experienced that type of life and we like it. A house doesn't make a fraternity, nor does the size of its membership or the strength of its alumni association. There is an intangible which creates an atmosphere of a true fraternity, and to know and to understand that intangible, one must live the true fraternity life.

Delta Tau Delta

Delta Tau Delta is one of the oldest national fraternities, founded in 1858 at Bethany College. Beta Epsilon chapter, too, is one of the oldest fraternities on the Emory campus, established at Oxford in 1882.

Dels in many organizations and activities have done much in the way of service to the University.

This year the Delta Tau Delta’s received honorable mention in the Interfraternity Sing. The Delts also hold honors in various organizations—the presidency of The Gordon Stipe Scholars, and the vice-presidency of the Barkley Forum.

Climaxing Religious Emphasis Week, and highlighting the Delta Tau Delta social calendar is the annual Go to Hell Party.

C. Kelly, W. Kemp, A. Kreigsman, C. Krell, B. McIntosh, L. McLeod, J. Martin.

Since its founding almost one hundred years ago, Kappa Alpha Order has exhibited a unique spirit on college campuses. Epsilon Chapter remains true to that tradition, as an embodiment of ideals and goals are emancipated in qualities and leadership, quest for knowledge, and the enjoyment of social events.

K.A. members serve in all campus organizations and political offices, in addition to election to such honorary societies as D.V.S., O.D.K., and Phi Beta Kappa. Kappa Alpha placed second in the IFC Sing, and third in the Dooley's lawn competition.

Socially the season is highlighted by numerous parties, and climaxed in the spring by the "Old South Ball" with the presentation of the Rose and the Rose Court. The annual Sorority Girls' Tea has become a tradition at the Kappa Alpha house.

The Phi Delta Theta national fraternity was founded in 1848 at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and has grown until presently it has 125 active chapters.

Georgia Beta was established on the Emory at Oxford campus in 1871 and moved with the school to Atlanta in 1915. The chapter's membership represents a wide scope of interests and personality. The chapter provides for the major social, scholastic, and athletic needs of its members.

The diversification within the chapter is evident in the wide scope of activity of its members. They hold many key positions, such as Editor of the Campus, President of IFC, Vice-president of the Student Senate, three officers of Circle K, two members of DVS, two members of ODK, Honor Council, Phi Beta Kappa, AEU, Eta Sigma Psi, and many other activities. Phi Delts play a key part in the varsity soccer, swimming, and track teams. Phi Delts consistently rank high in interfraternity athletic competition.

The fraternity social year is highlighted by the Annual Winter Formal. Last spring Georgia Beta received national recognition for its active service work.

Phi Gamma Delta

The Fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta was founded at Jefferson College, Pennsylvania, on May 1, 1848, by the "Immortal Six." Six individuals also organized Delta Colony at Emory in the spring of 1962. Now after Fall Rush 1963, we have grown to thirty-three members who are able to take part in fraternity life and also retain their integral individuality.

The emphasis at Delta Colony is first to school, then to fraternity, and finally to self. Fijis are well represented in all facets of Emory life, including government, honor organizations, publications, and sports. The year is highlighted by the Purple Garter Formal winter quarter and the spring orgy that is the Fiji Island Party.
Pi Kappa Alpha

Pi Kappa Alpha, one of the oldest and largest social fraternities, was founded at the University of Virginia in 1868. Beta Kappa chapter was chartered at Emory in 1919.

PiKA's are active in many areas of college life. Brothers and pledges are connected with the Wheel, Glee Club, Young Republican Club, Newman Club, Bench and Bar, and the International Relations Club. A number of Stipe Scholars are also Pi Kappa Alphas. In athletics Beta Kappa participated actively in every inter-fraternity sport.

S. Cutshaw, W. Dinwoodie, A. Dorsey, A. Epps, III.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Founded in 1865 at the University of Alabama, the Georgia Epsilon chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was chartered at Emory in 1881. The high standards of this traditionally fine fraternity are still being exemplified in the various phases of campus activity. Academically, SAE has consistently maintained a strong position. Athletically, SAE participated in most varsity and all interfraternity sports, again winning the softball championship and placing second in basketball. E's on campus hold positions of leadership in student government, major publications, Glee Club, and honor societies such as DVS, ODK, Alpha Epsilon Upsilon, and Eta Sigma Psi.

Fall quarter was highlighted by another great pledge class and the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children. Winter quarter, always to be remembered for Formal Weekend, also marked the presentation of the SAE Sweetheart, Miss Mary Ann Houser.

The 1963-64 school year was climaxed by SAE once more being named recipient of the Tri-Delt Best Fraternity Award, a perfect correlation to SAE's national rating as the number one social fraternity.

Sigma Chi was founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in June of 1855. This year, the Sigs here at Emory in keeping with tradition, have again excelled in every field. There are Sigma Chis in Emory's leadership and scholastic organizations, on publications' staffs and in campus government positions. In the three major areas of interfraternity competitions, the Sigs have an unparalleled record; winning Dooley's two of the past three years, the IFC Sing thirteen of the past fifteen and both of the athletic trophies, one for the fifth consecutive year, the other for the eighth. Scholastically, Sigma Chi has members in Phi Beta Kappa as well as Stipe Scholars and lockheed Scholars. XI Chapter of Sigma Nu is best known on campus for its versatility. Brothers are to be found in all activities holding many offices, among them presidents of the Barkley Forum, Collegiate Civitan and the Liberal Club; president and vice-president of the American Institute of Physics; vice-president of Alpha Epsilon Delta, a pre-medical honorary fraternity, and the International Relations Club; managing editors of the Wheel and The Campus, secretary and manager of the Glee Club, news editor of The Wheel, and the Coke Lounge Director of the Student Center Board.

Many brothers have been recognized for their excellence in the fields of scholarship, leadership and journalism. Sigma Nus are members of Alpha Epsilon Upsilon, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Eta Sigma Psi, Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Delta Epsilon, and Stipe Scholars.

In addition, Sigma Nu has varsity athletes in soccer, tennis, and wrestling, and the fraternity consistently places high in all interfraternity sports, winning the second flight in volleyball, placing second in softball and third in swimming this last year.

Scholastically, Sigma Nu ranks fourth on campus, with a number of brothers consistently on the Dean's list. In the field of community services, Sigma Nu topped the Row in money collected for the Empty Stocking Fund, and the annual Orphans Christmas Party was a great success in the eyes of the children.

These traditions, of ideals, friendship, service, and chivalry, serve as the fraternity’s guiding lights. In recent years, a spirit of individualism has permeated the TEP house. The fraternity believes that the group is made up of the individual members, and as such, Tau Epsilon Phi presents no group image.

Dooley's Diary

SEPTEMBER 13
Dooley notices that the campus is buzzing early this year. The SCB Freshman Orientation Dance is a good innovation, and the fraternity men are rushing for all they are worth, even though it is illegal. Dean Stephens smiles and twitches his knee in time with the music. Out of the corner of his eye Dooley notices a paint-smeared co-ed trying to dance without being seen. The Wheel office is canary yellow the next morning.

SEPT. 12
Dooley returns to Atlanta's "pile of renaissance buildings." He is struck by the lack of Time, Life, and Sports Illustrated subscriptions being bought on campus. Dr. Ladd silently smiles and waits for the next meeting of the Committee on College Environment.

SEPT. 14
Hammers and jukeboxes, lawnmowers and cutoffs, it looks like Dooley's Frolics without girls. Rush is upon the Row. Dooley prefers girls.

SEPT. 15
Dooley learns that the SCB has received permission to charge for its entertainments. They immediately spend $15,000 and school has not started yet. Dooley is impressed and decides to adopt a wait and see attitude.

SEPT. 16
RUSH: Pretty girls, boys in their recently shined Wemans, courtesy, anecdotes, psychology and laryngitis. Andy Sheldon in a coat and rep tie, black umbrella, pipe and other escutcheons, blesses it all with a Mephistophelean grin.

SEPT. 17
After four days of orientation at Emory, Dooley overhears bewildered Frosh "I understand everything except what is orientation?" Also overheared in a freshman soprano, "I just loooove the post-office, it's so exciting here!" Dooley tries not to laugh.

SEPT. 19
RUSH: Dooley wonders why 500 girls have to walk alike, dress alike and smile continuously in single-file to impress 250 girls who want to do the same thing for God knows what reason. Dooley wonders if some of the old-timers wear knee pads under their dresses.

SEPT. 20
First day of classes. Everybody has sworn to make Dean's List and so they attend the first day. A goodly number are thinking about final rush functions that night and many girls are to have their first Emory date.

SEPT. 22
Pledges walk the Row and what a pretty day it is. The Pledge classes are small this year, AEI's and Psi Delt taking the largest but not necessarily the best. Andy Sheldon is no longer grinning.

SEPT. 23
School begins! Again!

OCT. 1
"Teas are the order of the day, and Dooley doesn't like tea. All of them are for Dr. Atwood who won the hearts of everyone with the immortal statement "You people are twice as good as you think you are." Drink up, Dr., you earned it.

OCT. 3
Wheel wins Associated Collegiate Press "All American" rating. Bill Hedgepeth comes back to campus full of wrath, Bob Chambers just smiles. Dava Aiken decides not to have this year's patented.

OCT. 5
Wheel column headed "Intramurals will Continue." Cooper warns Fraternities. Dooley remembers in March when the same Coach discontinued the same intramurals. Oh well!

OCT. 6
Miss Diane Love becomes Miss '67 at the Freshman dance. Dooley approves heartily but wonders about some of the quotes in the Wheel, i.e. "The life of a freshman is certainly hectic, it seems as if the courses get harder and the time shorter every day." Say it ain't so.

Good Wishes

SELECTING YOUR LABORATORY

With Dentists who know values, the primary consideration when it comes to Laboratory service is technical knowledge and skill. REPUTATION "record of performance" is of utmost importance. Reputations are built slowly, over a long period of years, by fine quality and superior service.

When it comes to selecting your Laboratory, the deciding factors are quality, service, prestige—and other considerations less tangible than price, but much more important. We have been in this business fifty-one years; this accumulated store of knowledge and experience is at your command.

Dooley's Diary

OCT. 7
Fine Arts Festival Plans appear. Chet Mirsky is brimming and the SCB is spending $13,000. Odetta is to appear. However, they are starting three months earlier than last year.

OCT. 10
Informal discussions on Contemporary Culture are given for the first time in the cafeteria. Started by three independent students, the series is planned for the whole year. Good luck to a good idea.

OCT. 11
Senator Pelham becomes Coach of the Barkley Forum. They proceed to win every trophy in sight and some quite out of sight. More progress.

OCT. 12
Delta Tau Delta House has real lion on the lawn, the kind that growls and bites. Dooley does not see the humor or the seat of his pants. The Delts get rid of the lion.

OCT. 14
Student Council issues a resolution against merchants in the Village who operate segregated establishments. Big furor at the time. Dooley notices at the end of the year that the establishments are still segregated. Dooley gives the Council an Emory "E" for effort.

OCT. 15
Much talk about buildings on the campus. New dental school, new graduate dorms with single rooms (Dooley thinks he knows why) new Yorks Primate Center (Gym, maybe) and new auditorium are all in the works. Dooley is amazed and immediately buys car and new map. However, on going outside, he cannot find the buildings in question.

OCT. 31
Mr. King of the Security Dept. announces that taped on decals are illegal on Emory automobiles. Dooley remembers that when you apply this year's decal with water it cracks, falls apart and generally disintegrates, except for the number. Dooley thinks we should go back to the old expensive detail.
Dooley's Diary

NOV. 1
The IFC Sing, Greek Week, and other established entertainments take place. Dr. Atwood wins the Banquet, Sigma Chi wins the Sing. Oscar Brown Jr. wins the dance after Billy Butterfield defaults. Oscar Brown also adjourns to the TEP house after the dance and does the libretto from his new show "A Cappella." Dooley is quite impressed and goes immediately to Dr. Lemmonds for singing lessons.

NOV. 3-8
Religious Emphasis Week happens but no new evangelical movements sweep the campus. At least Dooley thinks that it was. Viridiana is shown in conjunction and nobody understands except Dr. Strauss and Dooley is not so sure about him either.

NOV. 4
Ethel Vigodsky is "Wheel Girl" in a bikini. Immediately gets unlisted phone number. Dooley is hurt and tries applying to her new office on the third floor of the Ad building. The line is too long however, seems it is the spot to spend a coffee break.

NOV. 5
Posters, Posters everywhere, and the Freshmen are off and running. Nobody really knows what they are running for but it seemed like a good idea at the time. It rains on Sat. when the posters have to be taken down.

NOV. 6
The Committee for Non-Violent Action stops at Emory on its way from Quebec to Cuba. They sit on the Emory Quad to rest their feet and everybody goes to see them. It is the biggest thing since Bishop Tomlinson "King of the World" made his last appearance in these parts. Dooley plans to use both for exhibits on his weekend.

NOV. 15
President Atwood is formally inaugurated on the Quadrange in full academic regalia and what must certainly have been the greatest exhibition of pomp and circumstance ever seen in these here parts. It was truly a beautiful ceremony and an inspiring beginning for an inspiring President. Dooley feels out of place.

NOV 16
John Holmes is elected President of the Freshmen Class. Remember that name as you probably will not hear it again in the next four years. But that is the liability of being Freshman Class President.

NOV 22
People stand around in bunches listening to transistor radios. They quickly return to their desks and crowd the TV's. All is silent and faces reflect the stunned disbelief and total shock which will mark this day forever. President John F. Kennedy is dead.

NOV 23-27
Everyone leaves for Thanksgiving which starts the 28th. Dooley wonders what's the rush? The answers are not printable.

DEC 6
Glee Club and Chorale present the traditional Christmas Service in Glenn on Friday night and Sunday. Dooley attends and thinks that it is one of the most beautiful things that has been produced at Emory. Dr. Lemmonds has arrived and the musical tradition at Emory seems once again to be in excellent hands.

DEC 11
The IFC presents Flatt and Scruggs in the gym and everyone there goes wild. Andy Sheldon sits with the same pipe and umbrella and looks quite bewildered. Dean Pershing quietly bounces his leg. Other Emory sophisticates are not quite sure how to react. A good time was had by all. Dooley is glad to see The Emory Student let his hair down.

DEC 14
Finals begin and the girls wear slacks and the boys don’t shave. Pardon me, these are only the boys and girls who don’t study. The ones that do are in the dorms where Dooley can’t see them. Good show to all you slopy dressers. Dooley hopes that you and your dex are back to brighten up the campus next quarter.

ODK taps four, two of which are juniors. ODK is getting over-anxious. Dooley wonders which Juniour has no office at the time of his tapping? Simultaneously, Phi Beta Kappa taps five, however, they do it as unobtrusively as possible on the bottom of page two.

JAN. 23
Barkley Forum wins its 37th tournament of the year. Dooley adopts wait and see attitude.

JAN. 24
Enory celebrates its 127th birthday by getting drunk and developing horrible hangover. No students attended this debauchery.

JAN. 25-26
Bennie Bruner fills a record six columns in the Wheel while attempting to cover the Gay Society of Enory for this weekend. Dooley notes that she only misspelled five names, a record which lasted until the third week in February, when she only misspelled three.

JAN. 30
President Atwood announces an 8-story addition for the Woodruff Memorial Building. He also announces the earmarking of $40 million for other medical buildings. Dooley wonders how much the new flower pots in front of Coe Hall will cost.

FEB. 5
Creative Arts Festival begins with Mr. Vance Packard giving the opening lecture. Dooley notices that ticket sales have been good and the Festival is only $3000 under when it begins. Vance Packard is not so good due to the fact that he cannot speak. Dooley looks forward to “Androcles and the Lion” on Tuesday.

FEB. 4
“Androcles” was excellent and Don Gehring is selling tickets and handing out cigars simultaneously. Don is confused, but Chairman Chet Miskky straightens him out. Don now sells cigars and gives away tickets.

FEB. 5
It is raining very hard and 500 people crowd their way into Glenn to hear Sabicas. It is not crowded inside, but the rain is what makes everyone crowd. Sabicas enthralls the audience with his mastery of the guitar and receives four (4) standing ovations. Everyone concerned is pleased. So is Sabicas. Dooley has only one reservation, though: was Sabicas his first or last name?

FEB. 6
A healthy throng of people turn out to see if Brevon and the “Barber of Seville.” Yet despite this initial disappointment, the Turnau Opera Players succeeded in bringing highbrow culture to a tattooed lowbrow campus and getting away with it. Chet Miskky is showing the beginnings of a smile, and Dooley is happy he doesn’t have to fight his way to see the New York Metropolitan Opera in May.

FEB. 7
Cannonball Adderley and the gym is decked out with its most festive sweatshirts. A small crowd, the greatest luminary being Dean Pershing who. Dooley notices, is listening not to the jazz, but at it. Charles Lloyd is the clarinetist and he looks just like a hero.

FEB. 8
Bob Dylan in Glenn and the place is mobbed with the long-haired, hip-booted, guitar swinging set. Dooley notices students in coats and ties feeling terribly uncomfortable. He also notices that cigarettes are being put out on the floor of Glenn. He wonders if iconoclasm simply means bad manners or no manners.

FEB. 9
The debris is cleared and Chet Miskky discovers that the net loss will be $2000. This is not so bad since everyone enjoyed the Festival, so the SCB says “charge it, please.” There are democrats everywhere thinks Dooley. Hoda Levine looks notably unflappable.

FEB. 10
WEMO, Means Hall Radio, covers the university like manna, and makes its first broadcast with the most inexperienced staff of announcers in the business. Station manager Jeff Miller announces that the hours are ten till, the till indicating the time at which the announcer falls asleep. Dooley wishes the radio all the luck in the world and most of the electricity and dex.

FEB. 11
Dean Pershing receives early Valentine from Dean Robinson to the effect, “Roses are Red, Violets are Blue. The Student Activities Don’t Really Need You.” Dean Pershing is understandably taken aback and as explanation cites Dean Robinson’s words: “The incipient assumption by me of responsibility for all student activities will enable an ease of financial pecuniability and thus facilitate the continued measured and vitally fantastic growth of said functions as above stated.” Dean Pershing simply thinks it is unethical, so do a great many other people. Dooley hopes a more amicable and effective arrangement will be made by both parties.

FEB. 14
Happy Valentine’s day from Sneaky.

FEB. 15
Don Moore celebrates the Ides of February by confirming the rise in dorm rents, effective Fall, 1964. Dooley wonders how the increase will affect his coffin... it has been shaken too many times already.

FEB. 16
The government linked smoking and cancer, so the Wheel canvassed the Student Body with 100 questionnaires about their smoking habits. Significantly, 31 reported that they smoked, making these thirty-one people a significant figure. Dooley noted that Joe B. Massey wasn’t handing out free samples of Salem anymore, and praised the Power of the Press.

FEB. 18
The Emory Players were putting the finishing touches on their production of “The Importance of Being Earnest”. By constructing gallows under the guidance of General Manager Claude Tison, Dooley wonders if said gallows would be saved for the Red Skeletons in Claude’s closet, but didn’t hang around to find out. “Better to be dead than red in Tison’s book,” he said, and crawled back to his coffin.

FEB. 20
The Wheel blossomed forth with the pictures of six fraternity sweethearts on page one, including Ethel Vigodsky sans bikini, and Benzie Bruner sans misspelled name. Dooley was happy, and spent the remainder of the week pasting the pictures of Judy Jans, Penny Baum, Jenny Roane, and Sandra Coley on the walls of his den.

FEB. 21
The Coke Lounge (you remember the Coke Lounge, it’s in the AMB) receives a shot in the arm as people begin to realize that everything served there can be obtained in the dorm vending machines. Dooley goes to speak to Helen Jenkins about the problem, and finds her sitting on a throne in her office mumbling something about “Let ’em eat cake.”

FEB. 22
Happy George Washington’s Birthday. Everybody notices that Emory is finally closing down for a National Holiday; only Dooley realizes that it is a Saturday. And there are no more Saturday classes until March 7th. The Semantic Skeleton goes to Candler Estate to chop down a cherry tree in disgust.

FEB. 24
Preregistration for Spring Quarter starts, and students are indifferently perusing course lists and the College Council Faculty Report Card. Dooley decides that it doesn’t make any difference, there just aren’t any crisp courses.

FEB. 25
“Raisin in the Sun” is shown in the Biology Building which just goes to show that the SCB will go anywhere to show a picture. Dooley has seen most of them and thinks that it is good to give the students a chance to do something besides study.

Tuition increased announced for Fall quarter. Dooley realizes that tuition has risen from $265 to $410 in only four years. Dooley is very flattered since he thinks he is the reason.

MARCH 3

Arkon, the new literary magazine gets under way after scrounging money from the IFC. Andy Sheldon is behind it. Since now that he is no longer IFC President, he can afford to dislike fraternities and grow a beard. Ben Johnson gets sick of handing out money, when he notices that the IFC is sponsoring a Republican Convention, a literary magazine, a folk music concert, and an Air Force plaque.

MARCH 5

The Wheel runs a special on the new drinking resolution which passed the Senate. Faculty Senate that is. Dava Aiken calls Dean Pershing at 12:00 Sunday night and then uses different information which he claims he received from a student who had the straight skinny. Dooley wonders about journalism.

MARCH 6

Making a hard bid at the finish, Niki Fossett is chosen Miss Emory of 1964. Since the last five Miss Emory's have failed to return to Emory the following September due to marriage or other forms of disillusionment with the institution, Dooley would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Niki and say goodbye.

MARCH 8

The Debate team wins another two or three tournaments. Dooley adopts a wait and see attitude.

MARCH 11

First successful party raid of '64. Dooley lecherously watches as Emory men climb balconies and enter Harris Hall. They receive parries for their efforts and to date nobody has been locked out. Dooley thinks that this is the influence of Northern liberality.

MARCH 14

Arthur Geffen falls off the balcony of the second floor of the TEP house and a KA VW reలєiates by slamming into the living room. Both vehicles left the scene of the accident under their own power.

MARCH 15

Finals start beneath balmy skies and all the KA's have beards so that Dooley can't tell who is studying and who is thinking about Old South. Jerry Leach, Emory’s Rhodes Candidate, is still on probation along with the rest of the fraternity.

MARCH 16

The Campus goes to press and thus beats the highest odds since The Clay upset. Dean Pershing breathes sigh of relief. The Phoenix does not appear and Dooley finds out that it will be distributed at registration which doesn't make any sense to Dooley. Publius' upset stomach is given as the reason.

At this point in the narrative Dooley becomes so obsessed with his weekend of glory that his musings become incoherent. The only thing that is comprehensible is that the theme will be Birth of a Nation and that Sigma Chi will do the slaying of the Watusi in the Congo, featuring real blood and fake Watusi. The new IFC rush rules are in effect so everyone contemplates a hectic Senior day and the school is talking about spreading rush over two weeks next year. This is fine except that the girls will not have any place to rush which Dooley thinks is not quite fair. Dooley notices that Emory has changed rapidly this year. He says that the emphasis is on the big Northern university, sort of like Harvard, with quality of instruction and facilities being the great goal. The student is left to look after his own welfare and in many cases to pay for it. Dooley realizes that this will gain Emory a great deal of prestige, but can't help wondering that it might be better to save a little of the Southern concern for the rights and welfare of the individual. Dooley has always liked to call the students by name, anachronistic we admit, and totally impractical in this modern age, but nice anyway. Dooley has an idea that in the interest of progress he won't be here next year, but rationalizes that you can't have everything. Being the conceited old thing that he is however, he always sort of thought that he stood for something and meant something. Dooley wishes the Seniors good-bye and Emory good luck and crawls back into his coffin, silently hoping that the lid will open next year.

Editor's Epitaph

Ending an entire year's work with one short statement such as this is difficult. I feel a great deal of relief that the final copy is in and that there are no more deadlines to meet, but I also feel a sense of loss at leaving something that has brought much satisfaction.

A yearbook is many things to many people, but to me its prime mission is to present the record of a year in as comprehensive a manner as is practical and to give as much of the atmosphere and attitude of the students as is possible. To this end we have worked this year.

The production of such a book as this is in every way a team effort. There are many people on my staff and outside it who deserve praise for their work and interest. A few, however, I would like to mention. Our photographer for the major part of the year has been Darrell Thompson, who along with his student assistants did a commendable job in taking over our photography. The pictures in the book are a tribute to their ability and their constant advice and help. I would also like to thank Judy Long, and Bob Gunby who as Managing and Associate Editors, respectively, were the real work horses. The constant interest, concern, and help given by the administration was also a great aid.

Finally I would like to express my gratitude to the student body for their support and for giving me this opportunity.

To next year's editors I give my congratulations, and all my good wishes.

Thank you again,

Al Wight
