The Emory Campus

The Year Book of Emory University

Vol. XXXII

1924
Dedication

To Mansfield Theodore Peed, Virginian, Georgian, Christian Scholar, for thirty-five years Instructor at Emory University, and loved by as many generations of Emory men, this thirty-second volume of The Emory Campus is affectionately dedicated.
A foreword

When in the years that are to come you wish to recall to mind the pleasures, the friends and the accomplishments of your years at Emory it is hoped that this, the thirty-second volume of The Emory Campus will serve as an accurate and true portrayal of "the light of the days that have been."

A Short History of Emory

Emory College was named in honor of Bishop John Emory, of Maryland, who was elected to the episcopacy in 1832 on the same ballot with Bishop James O. Andrew. He later presided over the fourth session of the Georgia Conference, at Washington, Wilkes County, in 1834. In December, 1833, he was accidentally thrown from his carriage and killed near his home in Baltimore. The Conference session of 1836, at Columbus, Georgia, appointed trustees to incorporate the College and directed them to call it Emory, probably at the suggestion of Bishop Andrew, as a tribute to the memory of his lamented colleague. In pursuance of the will of the Conference the trustees bought 1,400 acres of land near Covington, Newton County, in the granite region of Georgia, for $14,000.00 and, at the suggestion of Dr. Ignatius A. Few, gave it the classic name of Oxford, in honor of the old English university.

In 1837 the College was opened for the reception of students, under the presidency of Dr. I. A. Few. The first class was graduated in 1841. Since then, nearly two thousand men have received the diplomas of the College, and have since served the country and the church with honor to themselves and their Alma Mater, and the College was continually in session at Oxford until 1919.

The original Board of Trustees was composed of men whose names are historic in Georgia Methodism: Ignatius A. Few, Lovick Pierce, Charles Hardy, William J. Parks, Elijah Sinclair, Samuel K. Hodges, Samuel J. Bryan, Alexander Speer, George F. Pierce, Daniel P. Hillhouse, William P. Graham, Seaborn Jones, Joseph A. Eve, Iverson L. Graves, Lucius Wittich, and John Park.

The following have filled the office of President:

Three of these, Drs. Pierce, Haygood, and Candler, were elected to the episcopacy from the Presidency of the College. Dr. Haygood, however, declined the election in 1882 on account of his duty to the College, but was re-elected in 1890 after he had resigned the Presidency.

In 1914, Emory College became the College of Liberal Arts of Emory University, and Dr. Edgar H. Johnson became its first Dean.

With the opening of the summer quarter of 1919, the College of Liberal Arts was removed to the University Campus in Druid Hills, Atlanta, where the other Schools of the University were already in operation, and the old college grounds and buildings in Oxford were transferred to the Emory University Academy.

Zoeller, H. G.
I am the doom of nations and of men.
I am the maker of turmoil, strife, and war; on my account was fought the fight of ages;
I send a million souls each day into an endless hell,
And many others meet the shades of death before their time because of me.
I break the hearts of many youthful lovers, giving rise to hate,
And loosen friendship's chain.
I destroy the happiness of homes, where peace and joy at one time reigned supreme;
I can prevent success, progress, and prosperity;
I am a brother of ignorance;
Beware of me.
I AM MISUNDERSTANDING.

Marse Robert

By Thomas Croom Partridge

One day, up in Virginny, endurin' of de war,
I seen Marse Robert ridin' by our regi-ment, an' Lor'
De way dem sojers cal'ed on! I knows 'at good an' well
De folks down in Atlan'a musta hear'n dat rebel yell.

Thoo all de years what's passed along, I ain't forgot dat day,
An' heah de other mawnin' when I's out Stone Mount'n way,
Jes walkin' 'long, an' lookin' whah de mount'n meets de sky—
I hopes t' tell you', folks, I seen Marse Robert ridin' by!

A-ridin' cross de mount'inside—an' slow, an' solemn like,
I thunk I seen de boys in gray a-comin' down de pike—
De win' blowed thoo de pine trees, and I thunk I hear'n 'em sigh:
"Boys, shif' you' load, an' clear de road—Marse Robert's ridin' by."

Turner, P. A.
Love

There is a note in our great scale of life;
When struck it brings the sweetest melody.
A harmony that frees the soul of discord.
That causes hate to vanish, self to flee;
A word that brings a million thrills and heart throbs,
But ev'ry beat a perfect rhythm brings;
The keynote of a universal music,
LOVE! the vibrant tone that moves all things.

Alpha Epsilon Upsilon

Founded 1907

Devoted to the ideals of that high scholarship that lingers on the shores of knowledge to discern the light of wisdom and feel the refreshing breezes of the truth that cannot die, the Alpha Epsilon Upsilon has during the fifteen years since its foundation at Emory College in 1907 by William Landor Weber, built up a membership of over fifty of the leading graduates of Emory. The founder intended that this society should, by rewarding with membership those who attain certain high standards, be an incentive to intellectual endeavor, and by uniting in fellowship those who earn distinction, give them inspiration. These objects have been gained, and in order to extend the influence and increase the appeal we hope ultimately to become a chapter of the national scholarship organization, the Phi Beta Kappa.

As track is our only intercollegiate sport, we naturally give more attention to it than any other sport. For the past four years it has been our privilege to hold the State meet on our Campus. Up until last year we had always made a very good showing, being Tech's closest competitor. However, last year we entered the meet with a practically new team, all of our old stars, such as Stokes, Brandon, Millican and Parks, having graduated. Although our men fought hard, their inexperience told on them and we had to be contented with fourth place.

This year with a number of old men back, better experienced, and with a number of new stars we hope to see Emory up at the top.

The results of the fourth annual meet were: First, Tech; Second, Georgia; Third, Oglethorpe; Fourth, Emory; Fifth, Piedmont.

W. M. Peterson

"Pete" started off as a track star his Freshman year and has been going good ever since. He is our best bet in the distances.

Linus M. Ellis

Linus waited until his second year to show us what he could do on the cinder path, and he certainly showed us. We are counting on big things from him during the next two years.

Marion N. Watson

"Sub" after two years of hard work won the coveted "E" by his fast work in the dashes.

H. H. Stovall

"Stovie" is another man who made his letter his first year out. He will bear watching for the next three years.
Gordon Logan

Gordon throws the javelin as good as any of them even though he is a little man. He is one of Emory’s best all-round athletes.

Norman Newsome

“High-pockets” does his stuff in the dashes and the high jump.

Ralph E. Russell

Ralph made his letter in track his first year, which is proof enough that he is a real track man.

Herbert Ratcliffe

“Rat” is a good, steady man in the distances.

Thomas S. Logan

Tom is one of Emory’s hardest working men on the athletic field. He represents us in the middle distances.

It was the consensus of opinion that the football season of '23 was the most successful one ever had on the Emory gridiron. There was some real football displayed every time any of the teams met. New interest was added to the schedule, because of the fact that the School of Business Administration put a team in the competition for the first time in its history. This made a total of six teams in the race for the championship. These teams were: Law, Theology, Sophomore, Junior-Senior, Freshmen, and the School of Business Administration.

The end of the season found two teams tied up for the championship, the Sophomores and the Junior-Seniors, both of whom had been defeated once during the season. This made necessary a play-off between these two teams. But the play-off only added more of a deadlock to the situation, since it ended in a scoreless tie. Each team would carry the ball to within a few yards of the goal, only to be held for downs. Numerous drop-kicks were tried, all of which went wide of the goal. Thus the season ended with this hard-fought, heart-breaking game, and with both the Junior-Senior team and the Sophomore team sharing championship honors.

Immediately after the season was over, the Athletic Council gave letters to the following men:

Ends—Carlisle, Cannon.
Tackles—Jones, Morrison.
Guards—Kronstadt, Hurt.
Center—Collins.
Quarter-back—Williams.
Half-backs—Salley, G. Logan.
Full-back—Callahan.
Utility—Anthony, Stovall, Clarke, F. Edmondson.

Carlisle, Sophomore end, was one of the factors which kept the Sophomore team in the running through the end. He was one of the hardest and surest tacklers on the field.

Clarke
"A. B.," Theolog tackle, was one of the best men at this position on the field. He was equally good on defense and offense and was sure to smear the play before it made any gain. He was one of the bulwarks of the Theolog line.

Cannon
Cannon, Theolog end, was one of the fastest men on the field. He was death on end runs. Cannon played a good game on the defense and offense.

Kronstadt
"Mike," Law center, was one of the most determined and persistent players in school. He was there with the real work on the defense.

Jones
Jones, Law guard, and the heaviest man on the field, was very proficient in smearing plunges before they reached the line of scrimmage.

Hurt
Hurt, at guard, was one of the bright-lights of the Theolog team. His specialty was breaking up the line plays no matter where they came.

Morrison
Although handicapped by a bad foot "Ted" played one of the best and most consistent games in school. He well deserves his place as varsity tackle.
Edmondson

Frank's ability to pass the ball was largely responsible for the good showing the Junior-Senior team made in the contest. He was a hard player and could be depended upon at all times.

Logan

Logan, captain and quarter on the Sophomore team was the mainstay of that team. He was a good general, handling his team especially well.

Williams

As general of the Solon aggregation Ray showed himself to be one of the niftiest players in school. He was a good broken field runner and a demon on the defense.

Salley

and

Callahan

"Bill" and "Oscar" must be discussed together for it was in this capacity that they showed their ability. As backs on the Junior-Senior team they were responsible for about 90 per cent. of the gains of their team. Cross bucks were their diets.

Collins

Although on the weakest team in school "Fat" showed his ability as a linesman. He is good on the defense and offense.
Basket-Ball

The 1924 basket-ball season was by far the best ever witnessed on the Emory court. Every team was good and there was a fight from beginning to near the end to decide who would cop the rag. The teams were all well-trained, possessed that push so necessary to a good team.

At the beginning of the schedule, it was doubtful as to who had the strongest team, but as game after game was played, the Junior-Senior team showed an impenetrable defense, and only one team succeeded in defeating it. At the end of the season this team had lost only one game and was therefore entitled to the pennant.

The Sophomore team, despite the fact that they had many old stars, were unable to get under way. Had they ever mustered that old push they should have given the Junior-Senior aggregation some close running for the pennant.

The Theologs and Lawyers from the beginning showed a determination but they were never able to bring their teams together in well-working units.

As usual the Meds put out one of the best teams in the scrap. They had several individual stars in Thomas, Smith, White and Lester.

The Rats showed up exceptionally well this season. Contrary to precedent they had plenty of push and probably the best working team in school.

The following basketeers were selected as the All-Emory Team for the 1924 season:

Forwards: Logan (Soph.), Peterson (Jun.-Sen.), Crawford (Fresh.).
Centers: Walker (Jun.-Sen.), Owens (Fresh.).
Guards: Reeves (Soph.), Edmondson (Jun.-Sen.), Hatcher (Jun.-Sen.).
Hatcher (Guard)

Slats has a horse shoe hidden upon himself somewhere or he could never sink the long shots he so consistently gets. Slats plays the floor well and is very good at guarding under his opponents' goal.

Gordon Logan (Forward)

Logan is a fair dribbler, a better passer and has an uncanny eye for the basket. He is the type of player that a team needs to build around.

Owens (Center)

"Bubber" was, until he withdrew on account of illness, the outstanding player of the season. He passes good, has a good eye for the basket and covers the floor exceedingly well.

Walker (Center)

Johnnie was one of the mainstays of the Junior-Senior team. He plays an all-round good game and is very dependable.
Reeves (Guard)

Reeves is a very versatile guard, covering the floor well and shooting good at a distance. His work is at times spectacular and always consistent.

Peterson (Forward)

Peterson's best work was passing under the goal to another who caged the marker. He is fast and has plenty of fight from beginning to end.

Crawford (Forward)

Crawford was one of the most consistent players of the season. He follows up shots well and sinks them when least expected.

Edmondson (Guard)

Edmondson is a consistent player and an accurate shot. He was a very valuable man to his team as guard.
In addition to being one of the fastest ever seen on the Emory Campus the 1923 baseball season was one of the big athletic events of the year. With the exception of the Freshmen, each of the teams had enough seasoned material for a good start, and even the Freshies had several stars, formerly of high school fame. Practically all of the teams were evenly matched, and most of the games were fast and full of pep. The Meds, although they entered the fray after the others had recuperated from the shock of their initial appearances, came out on the big end. The Meds entering at a late stage in the tournament were at a disadvantage but the fine pitching of Gainey soon overcame all opposition.

The season as a whole was the best ever witnessed on the Emory diamond. Every team entered to win and the results show that many of them kept that determination until the end.

The All-Emory varsity pick was as follows:

Catcher: Darsey—Plenty of pep and a fine player.
Pitcher: Wooten—Switt and with plenty of stuff.
Pitcher: Gainey—A world of stuff and a fine baseball head.
First Base: Munn—Dead sure, both at the initial sack and at the bat.
Second Base: Green—A fine fielder and one of the heavy hitters on the Med aggregation.
Short Stop: Copeland—One of the mainstays of the Med nine.
Third Base: Dickinson—A snappy fielder and far above the average at the bat.
Right Field: Bowles—A good fielder but not an exceptionally heavy hitter.
Center Field: Cochran—A good fielder and hitter and fast on the bases.
Left Field: Cowart—A good rangy fielder and no slouch at the bat.
Utility: Talley—A fast player and a good manager.
Chanson D’Ennui

By Ernest Hartsock

Weary of Gods and mortals,
Weary of songs and speech,
Sadly I take my departure,
Fleeing past sorrow’s reach:

Sad and silent and languid,
Swept in an aching sea,
Dim with my disillusion,
Sick in the soul of me,

Weary of pain and pleasure,
I seek an insenate rest,
Safe with your arms about me,
My forehead against your breast.

Home

By Hunt Clement, Jr.

In a fond recollection where memory dwells,
There's a picture that haunts me, awakens, and swells
To my heart, and it stays there as I chance to roam.
A picture—what is it?—O! it was called Home.

A place where the grumbles and mumbles of men
Broke only in whispers, as softly—and then
Their worries were eased like rain drops on loam—
Dad—he was the King—in that place we called Home.

And the laughter and music and sunshine of peace
Were shared by a spirit who now has release
From the sorrows and pains which beset the earth's dome,
Ah—Mother was Queen in that place we called Home.

But the years made their changes, comes sorrow along;
I look for their faces in each passing throng;
O, how I miss them; yet where'er I roam,
Their spirits are with me, while they have gone Home.

By Ernest Hartsock

Sad is our life and still more sad our death,
Like vagrant stars we gleam awhile and wane;
And, fading from the firmament of time,
We lose in dark eternal our brief pain.

Our births are wrought in pain, in pain we die,
And thru our mournful brevity of days
We laugh above the inner urge of pain
And sing with fevered lips our ill-feigned praise.

Sad is our life and sadder still our death,
A flare of pale blue flame we burn awhile
Up from the dark, or we are lost like faint
Perfume forever from a turquoise phial.
Southern Beauties
Sept. 1—Faculty and students who knew him mourn the death of "Uncle Boh" Hammond, janitor at old Emory College for many years.

SEPT. 25—Congestion of traffic in halls of Physics building. Faculty, officials and students enter into a grand rush. Many new faces appear. REGISTRATION! A. B. Austin is still here.

SEPT. 26—Annual "College Night." Tilley, Nixon, Scott and Warnell represent the school on the platform. Aby Austin and Cy in their respective (not respectable) parts scored a hit.

SEPT. 27—Elbert Peabody visits the campus to see if the "South's Sweetest Singer" can hold up under the tremendous strain of losing his voice.

SEPT. 28—Dr. and Mrs. Rhodes are being congratulated on the arrival of a new daughter.

SEPT. 29—(Five o'clock A. M.) The campus quivers. Noise comes from the direction of the temporary chapel. The Chalker brothers hope to make the Glee Club.

SEPT. 30—Homesick "rats" begin to count the days and hours that will pass before the Christmas holidays.

SEPT. 31—ABY AUSTIN and Henry Ford play golf on the Emory links. ABY wins.

OCT. 1—Politics begin in the Lamar School of Law. Tommy Partridge and Millsaps Fitzhugh are elected.

OCT. 2—Ralph Williams begins his weekly migrations to Griffin (Georgia, U. S. A.)

OCT. 4—Colonel Eben Fletcher Tilly, assisted by the Emory regiment of the R. O. T. C. performs.

OCT. 4—On account of smallness of statue, Freshman Persons wants to be exempt from drill. Captain Sullivan places him in the Infantry.

Oct. 5—"Sump" Kelley visits the campus, but leaves before he is seen by those who were jipped out of a 1923 Campus.

Oct. 6—Lane Stokes weds Miss Mildred Shelton. Ceremony takes place at the Druid Hills Methodist Church. "Handy" Hancock dons a dress suit.

Oct. 7—Our postmaster frightens the night watchman, who thinks that safe blowers have visited the postoffice. Abie is only blowing his knows (?) in his sleep.

Oct. 11—"Col." Saps Fitzhugh gives Dooley a lift in his new Ford coupe. In the words of the eminent author "Postum," "There's a reason." Saps refused to divulge the source from whence the Ford came, but he can't fool Dooley—we know he got it by handling some big political campaign.

Oct. 13—Sophomore Budd rises in public sleeping class to speak on the topic "Bull." Budd seems full of his subject. Chester discusses parts of Physics. Yea, verily, Mr. Chester is acquainted with his hen fruit or cackleberries, as the case may be.

Oct. 17—John Seay and Joe Neal blaze the trail and start traffic rolling to Brenau. Page Valentino!

Oct. 25—"Cutie Sledd" knows his Greek lesson.

Oct. 27—Nothing doing.

Oct. 30—Jim Mitchell buys one also.

Oct. 31—Hammack follows suit.

Nov. 1—"Graveyard" and "Froggie" leave at three o'clock in the morning for Ocean Pond (Faculty's recreation resort) on a fishing trip. Mrs. Graveyard and Mrs. Froggie have plenty of salt water fish for supper.

Nov. 9—Unusual commotion at the Emory depot. (Time: 11 P. M.) Explanation: Georgia plays Virginia next day.

Nov. 10—Many "cuts" as a result of the above commotion.

Nov. 11—Armistice Day. The usual "APPROPRIATE EXERCISES" in the respective classrooms.

Nov. 14—Spurlin, Mandle and Davidson are seen parading the campus in peculiar attire. Flights of oratory on the dining-hall steps. Annual initiation of Tau Kappa Alpha. We want an original initiation once more before Dooley's bones decay.

Nov. 16—Days of chivalry and knighthood are depicted by the meek and lowly rats. Observe Freshman Day by wearing coats inside out and walking backwards over bridges.

Nov. 19—Medical students and stretcher bearers are kept busy removing casualties from the field of battle. Battle of the Argonne is reproduced by the freshmen and sophs in their annual pushball contest.

Nov. 20—Ghosts walk and rats in Alabama Hall tremble. Initiation of the Pyramids.

Nov. 22—Jim Mitchell advises freshmen and others to wash faces and clean ears. Photographs for the Campus are to be made.

Nov. 23—Glee Club gives first performance of the season at Emory Academy, Oxford, Georgia.

Nov. 25—Much rain and mud.

Nov. 26—Ditto, with additional mud. Track carnival is postponed.

Nov. 29—Turkey Day. Dooley enjoys his bird at home.

Nov. 30—Freshmen meds refuse to attend classes.

Dec. 1—Freshmen meds still sleep after the Thanksgiving meal.

APRIL 2—Annual track carnival. Freshman Lindsay “do’s himself proud.”

APRIL 3—Huck Sawyer’s annual editorial on “The Political Situation at Emory” appears in his paper. Huck, with eleven years of experience, is fully capable of discussing any phase of Emory politics.

APRIL 4—The air turns warm, and we catch a faint odor of politics brewing.

APRIL 5—Rumors of frame-ups.

APRIL 7—Non-fraternity men hold an important mass meeting in the temporary chapel for the sole purpose of the “promotion of friendly spirit and brotherhood.” “Boss” Johnson takes charge.

APRIL 9—Sister Parlin’s “old faithful” (Overland four) appears with a shining new coat of paint.

APRIL 11—The Whompus Gai is published for the amusement of those who were not lucky enough to get in on the nominations.

APRIL—Prof. Herman J. Bankston, Jr., takes unto himself an added responsibility.

APRIL 12—Chas. N. Johnson becomes ambitious.

APRIL 18—With a peaceful quietness never before excelled, a spirit of good will and contentment hovers over the polls. Everybody lets his conscience be his guide, and all candidates are happy. Chas. N. Johnson decides not to hold any office for 1925.

APRIL 19—“Boss” Johnson cannot be found on campus.

A Few Facts About Emory

Our football team has never been beaten.
Our basket-ball team is invincible.
Our baseball team has not been defeated in twenty years.
There is no graft on our publications.
Politics never enter into our elections. The candidates stand on their merit alone.
Georgia Tech is our oldest child. Said institution was born in our blacksmith shop.
Our boys never play cards or poker or shoot craps.
Students are never dismissed from school for hazing.
The Marshall and Pendergrass Drug Store on the campus is a financial burden to the company.
Our dining-hall clears enough each month to pay the salaries of the faculty.
Our favorite drinks are Coca Cola, canned heat and Jamaica Ginger.
One of our scientists recently discovered that water was good only to run under bridges and float ships.
We never give our Profs. nicknames; it is so common.
Our annual is the best advertisement in the city.
In “Nag” Goodyear we have the neatest dressed professor in the South.

How An Annual Should Be Gotten Up
(Apologies to Ring Lardner)

To the editor:

Well friends let me say to begin with I don't know nothing about this game but don't seem to stop a few other boys that is writing things and I doubt if my editor took that part in considerations anyway, but I guess he kind of felt like my stories would be silly and I might get bright and introduce some humor and make somebody laugh which is out of keeping with annuals, which is almost sacred you might say, and the editor and what is sometimes jokingly called The Staff would be off me for life.

Well, friends, some will maybe consider my ideas as new and they is new to those who has not heard me discuss them fervently with Madam Pede on the five-the-thirty car. Well, anyway, I ain't going write no annual but wile we are on the subject I will say a few wds. as regarding the best way this should be done, firstly judging from all annuals put out to date they ain't been wrote up right. Allow me in passing to remark that this is on account of having a staff and I suggest that in future all annuals be obtained without no staff and let each boy write their own annual then everybody would be more pleased and every boy would buy one (1) which would be his own. The staff only makes people mad even themselves on account of which if I is jokingly editor he wanted to be literally editor and &c. until they is all fighting. And if the Eta Beta Pi gets more men on the staff than the I Shaka Leg then the Legs all hol-I "Frame-up" wich makes the Pies sore and leave all the Legs out and the Legs goes on to say in reply why in h—l don't you give the Shaka Legs more space. All we ask is a square deal but we ain't getting it and by a square deal they mean 8 pages about Shaka Legs and none about nobody else and that 8 pages has got to be 8 pages of glory hallelujah.

The staff is also likely to cause many disappointment like for inst. a lot of budding artists what has their life ruined if their masterpiece ain't accepted whereas if everybody wrote their own annual they could put in what they want and all would be jake you might say. One of a annual staff's little chores is generally to look up what is sometimes called the nick-name of the boys and all the clubs and other accomplishment to his credit. If you name him like a boy wants you pretty near get kissed but you don't no sooner than lay eyes on the other fellow, namely him which you named wrong when you realize the reason he ain't got no accomplishment is all your fault. Some of my best friends is on the staff and don't none of them name some J. Dempsey fellow wrong or it will be many unconsciousley happy hrs.
before he will name another fellow.

Well, friends, again whereas if every I write his own annual he could appoint himself to any position which he wished and probably would refrain from fighting with himself, as he is all in the same club and same religion and same breakfast food, but that is off the subject. To return I state it would be fun if the staff except an annual from each boy and I hope he accepts this and put—in 1 book. Only nobody would read just only their own part, but that don't make no different as no one does anyway.

To Her

One look I craved.
How could I live
Without the things
She would not give?
Just one caress
So fine and fair!
The flame was in
Her eyes and hair.
One kiss I begged.
My soul was yearning
To be fuel
For her burning.
And like a moon-kissed,
Silver flame,
Love lingered, living
'Till she came.
Happy in
Fool's paradise,
I feasted on
Her lips and eyes.
I loved her
For my soul's delight.
A soul as black
As Ebon night.
There was no love,
We both had lied.
We went our way,
Unsatisfied!

1880

He gently drew her close to him
And whispered words of love:
He called her “sweetheart,” “lovely pet,”
And softly cooing dove.

They had just married.

1924

He thrust his arm around her waist,
Her hand in his he grips;
She did not try to pull away;
He kissed her red-hot lips!

They had just met.

A bright little maid of St. Thomas,
One day found a suit of pajamas;
Said the maiden, “Well, well,
What these are, I can’t tell,
But I’m certain the garments ain’t mamma’s.”

Who dined with his girl at 8:08;
As Tate did not state,

NEW YORK SHOW ROOMS 126 FIFTH AVENUE
The Coca-Cola School

We're not allowed a football team
That will break thru Georgia's line;
With all the baseball bull we fling
We'll never beat Tech's nine;
But our poker teams are winners.
Defeat we never fear.
So buy your lot and hike the pot;
We need your money here.

CHORUS:

Emory, Emory, thy future we foretell.
We were raised on Coca-Cola
So no wonder we raise hell.
When e'er we meet Tech's engineers,
We drink them off their stool.
So fill your cup, here's to the luck
Of the Coca-Cola School.

We cannot pull off gay soirees
We never fling a dance,
And, as to all those spicy shows
We haven't got a chance.
But when it comes to slinging "bull"
I guess we hold our ground.
For if "bull" were only water
This would be a seaport town.

Compliments of a FRIEND
Rest

One more day—and its work is done!
One more lap of the Race is run!
One of Life's prizes—lost or won!
And I rest—until the morrow.

One more life—all its days are spent!
And the rush and the strife of the world relent.
That a man might all of his wrongs repent—
And I rest—for all the morrow.

T. C. Partridge.

SPEAKING OF SCENT-IMENT

BY SASH A. KITTEN

Two lonesome skunks by the roadside stood
As an automobile rushed by:
It left an odor far from good,
And a tear was in one's eye.

"O, why do you weep?" asked his anxious friend,
"And why do you sob and quake?"
"Because that scent," said the other skunk,
"Is like mother used to make."

Those who wear Ballard Glasses already know, and the general public is rapidly learning, that the quality, style, and service that enters into every pair of Ballard’s glasses, repair work, adjustment of frames or any kind of service pertaining to optics is not always found elsewhere. Why? Because every man in our employ is an expert in the particular work he does. We are exclusive opticians, no side lines of any kind. Ask the better oculists and physicians who do not demand a commission on prescriptions for glasses referred to the optician, what they think of our method of rendering service.

Stude—"Where did you do most of your skating while learning?"

Young Thing—"I think you're perfectly horrid!"

Young Husband (attempting to swallow bride's first biscuit)—"Don't cry, dearest; this hurts me more than it does you."

Wife (returning home from a trip)—"George, where did all those empty bottles in the cellar come from?"

George—"I don't know, dear; I'm sure I never bought an empty bottle in my life."

"I sho does pity you," said a negro pugilist to his opponent as they squared off. "I was born wid boxin' gloves on."

"Maybe you was," retorted the other, "an' I specs you's gonna die de same way."

Our Idea of a College Annual Staff

As a result of four years of careful study we present the following:

STAFF SLAVE
The bearer of all the burdens, the brunt of all criticism, and the general GOAT.

EXECUTIVE STAFF
STAFF SLAVE

EDITORIAL STAFF
STAFF SLAVE

BUSINESS STAFF
STAFF SLAVE

ASSISTANTS

Editor-in-Chief
The man to whom the honor goes, deservedly or not; generally elected for what he didn't do in years past.

Literary Editor
A lazy man for a little job.

Art Editor
The man with original ideas, seldom expressed.

Athletic Editor
Generally interested, but never enough to work.

Associate Editors
Ambitious young men who are especially fond of the honor of being a member of the staff and having their picture in group of same.

Business Manager
Grafters and crook of the campus.
Let Us Be
Your Engraver, too!

It's a mighty important thing—this selecting of the engraver of your personal stationery, invitations, announcements, etc. Even as important, almost, as the choosing of the publisher of your annual.

The same high standards that have brought success in our school and college publication department govern our steel die engraving. From Maryland to Texas, you will find that engraving bearing the Foote & Davies Imprint is always the criterion. We believe that we can please you, too.

Alma Mater

In the heart of dear old Dixie,
Where the sun doth shine,
There is where our hearts are turning,
'Round old Emory's shrine.

Though the years around us gather
Crowned with love and cheer,
Still the memory of old Emory
Grows to us more dear.

We will ever sing thy praises,
Loyal sons and true.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail the Gold and Blue.
